In a report published January, 1955, a Survey by the Jacobs Company found that the staffs of Supervisors of Attendance and School Physicians were unduly large.

Whereas, the report recommended higher salaries for the physicians, it recommended lower starting salaries for the Supervisors of Attendance.

Custodial

The inauguration of the 40-hour work week in the early 1950's increased the size of the custodial staff; at present, there are about 70 more personnel than in 1950. However, the custodial strength as of July 10, 1956, which was 483, is within the maximum of 490 allowed in the maximum manpower needs set out in the Jacobs' Survey.

A pertinent finding in the Jacobs' Report which points in the direction of personnel savings states that custodial manpower needs can be reduced by an estimated 10 percent, operating at present service levels, if operations are fully mechanized.

Submasters and Vice-Principals

An area of instruction in which the statistical picture suggests a review of the situation is the matter of submasters and vice-principals in elementary districts. They assist principals in the latter's supervisory functions.

The rules governing the number of such positions are briefly as follows:

MAIN DISTRICT BUILDING

1 submaster and 1 vice-principal (in girls' districts—two vice-principals).

SMALL BUILDING

1 submaster or 1 vice-principal, in each building, where six or more teachers present.

The following table relates the change in the number of such positions to the number of buildings:

These statistics raise the question of a lack of adjustment to reduced size of the elementary building system.

The Strayer Report contained the following observation:

"Some principals have more than one submaster or vice-principal in the main building (of the district), which hardly seems necessary."

According to the 1956 Manual of the School Committee this condition still obtains in some districts.

Increase in Salary Levels

As previously indicated, it is the increase in salary levels, rather than an increase in staff which accounts primarily for the approximately $3,000,000 increase in the salary item between 1950 and 1955. The changing salary levels may be indicated broadly by citing the over-all increases given during this period. They include the following:

September 1, 1950—$204 increase to all teachers.

September 1, 1951—$264 increase to all teachers and civil service employees.

September 1, 1952—$120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and Junior high teachers.

September 1, 1953—$120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and Junior high teachers.

September 1, 1954—$5 increase per week to civil service employees.

September 1, 1954—$120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and Junior high teachers.

September 1, 1955—various salary increases throughout the system.

September 1, 1955—$120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and Junior high teachers.

September 1, 1956—$120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and Junior high teachers.

Those not on maximum salaries for their rank—about 30 percent of the teachers—receive in addition the regular $144 annual increment.

This list is incomplete. To gain a complete picture the annual schedule of salaries would have to be studied. While in the main salary increases cover classes of positions, there are many cases of selective treatment where individual positions have been raised or incumbents placed on maximum both in the academic and the nonacademic areas.

Salary Schedule Since 1950

The following cross section of changes in the salary schedule for the 1950-1955 period, and the future salary objectives, taken from the Annual Schedule of Salaries for Teachers, Members of the Supervisory Staff and Others, is offered to show:

1) To what extent the upward revision in the salary schedule has been and will be a factor in the increase of the personnel item;

2) To what extent there appear to be shifts not only in the year-to-year evaluation of a particular position, but also in the evaluation which that position bears in relation to other positions.

The level of expenditure for the school system is, per capita, relatively high among the larger cities of the country in several functional categories.

Although there has been a general contraction in the size of staff as the dimensions of the school system have shrunk, there are some areas where an increase has taken place or a lack of downward adjustment is indicated.

The principal reason for the increase in the cost of the school system is found in the personnel item, particularly in the series of changes in the salary schedule.

The Finance Commission does not presume to pass on the propriety of any salary range, but is concerned with the procedures involved. There is a lack of stability in the salary schedule. The evaluation of many positions, as expressed in the salary schedule, has changed several times since 1950 as has the relationship to other positions. More or less of a chain reaction of demand among the several segments of school personnel seems to have developed. For instance in February, 1956, and transmitted to the School Committee.

Another aspect is that relating to the budgetary process.

A rule of the School Committee adopted July 7, 1953 provides:

"Annually on or before the second Monday of March, in each year, the School Committee shall determine what, if any, increases and reductions in the compensation of employees of the school department shall be provided for in the annual budget."

The effect of this rule would be to prevent the August salary scramble; however, if this rule is suspended, its salutary effect may be nullified.

In view of all the foregoing data, the Finance Commission believes that the School Committee should:

1) Explore all areas for further possibilities of adjusting the size of staff to the pupil load and other pertinent factors, where educationally possible, and weigh carefully the recommendations of the Strayer and the Jacobs Surveys that make for personnel savings;

2) For the purpose of stabilizing the salary schedule and achieving one which is objectively sound and detached from pressures, determine the proper evaluation of position, after a study by the Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Personnel. This should resemble the type of classification and pay plan prepared for other segments of municipal personnel.

Personnel practice ought to conform to the following principles of a salary policy, enunciated in the Strayer Report:

1) "A salary policy ought to define a comprehensive, long-term payment plan.

2) "Salary policy has to be expressed first in terms of a basic schedule for the rank and file of the teaching personnel."

3) The Strayer Report endorsed the single salary schedule which "requires that teachers of equivalent educational preparation be paid equal salaries and be advanced equally in terms of step increments for satisfactory service, regardless of the educational level of the school or grade in which they teach.

4) "The salary grades for administrative, supervisory, and special service groups should be considered differentiations from the

Conclusions

The foregoing data, taken largely from published reports of the School Committee has been correlated to point up certain trends in the school picture, and warrant the following observations:

80 petitions from various groups and individuals among school personnel were filed with the Board of Salary Adjustment (composed of six superintendents). The latter's recommendations were then translated into a Revised Schedule basic salary schedule, related to it, as well as to each other, by definitely known measures determined upon as a matter of policy. . . . It is only those personnel assignments which represent definitely heavier responsibility, strategically greater values to the schools, special and extensive preparation, special difficulties of procurement, and the like, which need to be accompanied by salary grades differentiated from the basic.

5) "Certainly, the office in the Boston School System which is functionally responsible for the research and leadership in the salary field should be engaged in a detailed study of the cost of living factor. This is not something that can be done by a board around the table.

6) "Assign to an assistant superintendent the definite functional responsibility for the development of instructional salary policy. . . . Administrative responsibility for and leadership in the developmental tasks ahead with respect to salaries are simply not in the province of boards.

(An assistant superintendent has been appointed to head up instructional personnel management; but a Salary Adjustment Board considers salary revisions.)

7) "Salaries will be computed automatically from schedules set up after job analysis, thus obviating time-consuming and morale-destroying special pleading.

8) "Clerical salary policy should be unified and coordinated throughout the school system. Leadership in this task belongs with the assistant superintendent in charge of personnel."

(This last recommendation has not been adopted.)

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT. Assessment System

The Mayor, on September 10, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As your Honor is fully aware, a part of the present program of the Assessing Department is to install a real estate assessment system which will be most effective in providing adequate maps for assessing purposes, in maintaining a detailed and accurate record of each parcel assessed and, generally, in producing uniform and equitable valuations and assessments.

The installation of such an assessment system insofar as it relates to valuations requires design and supervision by a consultant experienced in the field and also a manual furnishing basic data as well as instruction in collecting and analyzing pertinent material and evaluating the same in the light of the basic data.

Investigation has disclosed that Cuthbert E. Reeves, with offices at 1711 Liberty Bank Building, Buffalo, New York, is a consulting engineer with much experience in installing valuation systems and preparing such manuals.

Your authority is hereby requested to dispense with advertising in awarding a contract to said Cuthbert E. Reeves for a valuation system manual and related technical services under which the city would pay a lump sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the manual and Mr. Reeves' services until January 1, 1957, and an additional sum not exceeding twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) for additional consultant services by Mr. Reeves in 1957, and services in 1957 and the remainder of 1956 by a resident advisor supplied by Mr. Reeves; the services to come within the $12,000 maximum to be paid for on a per diem basis as follows:

Two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) for the first day of each period of consultation with Mr. Reeves and one hundred sixty dollars ($160) for each additional day in each such period.

For the services of the resident advisor, seventy-five dollars ($75) a day in the case of ten or more consecutive days of services; and in the case of less than ten consecutive days, one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for the first day and eighty-five dollars ($85) for each additional day in such period.

In the case of both Mr. Reeves and the resident advisor, the specific days of service are, under the terms of the contract, to be designated from time to time by the Assessor of Taxes.

As indicated above, the services involved in the contract are distinctly professional services and therefore do not lend themselves to invitation for bids by advertisement.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN J. CHAPMAN,
Assessor of Taxes.

WELFARE DEPARTMENT. Consultant Services

The Mayor, on September 7, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

YOUR HONOR:

The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to award a contract for a period of six months from October 1, 1956, for expert services as consultant to the Board.

In the past, the Board has engaged the services of Miss Katharine D. Hardwick, a well-known expert on social service matters, as a consultant, and her services have been of inestimable value. Miss Hardwick has been actively engaged in social service activities for many years and her competence, ability, and reputation in the field of social work are widely established.

The amount of the contract will not exceed twenty-six hundred (2,600) dollars for the six-month period.

Due to the nature of the services to be performed, public advertising would not be advisable.

Sincerely yours,
JOSEPH K. COLLINS,
Chairman.

PORTION OF PROVIDENCE ST. TO BE DISCONTINUED

The Public Improvement Commission has ordered, and the Mayor has approved, the discontinuance of a portion of Providence street, Boston Proper district, as a public highway, between Berkeley street and Clarendon street.

The action is described as follows:

A portion of the highway named Providence street is hereby discontinued as a public highway, from a point approximately 175 feet southwesterly from Berkeley street, thirty feet southwesterly.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACTS

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

John Bowen Company, Inc., in the contract at the Mary Hemenway School, has been directed to relocate steel stairs from stair No. 3 to boiler room, at a cost of $250, and to substitute 4-foot marble toilet partitions for 4-foot 6-inch marble partitions, as noted on original architectural drawings, at a deduction of $27. Total addition to contract is $223.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

On September 12 the Mayor approved an addition to a contract, based on the following communication:

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request your Honor's approval of the following addition in the contract of the Minot Construction Company dated July 31, 1956, for installation of underground conduit, construction of manholes, and installation of fire alarm box posts on Cummins Highway, Mattapan:

Addition No. 1.

Excavate 3 inches of additional pavement 3 feet wide and 1,020 feet long amounting to 28 cubic yards at $46.40 per cubic yard, $1,299.20.

Pour high strength cement concrete mat of additional thickness of approximately 3 inches for a 3-foot width and for a total length of 1,020 feet or 28 cubic yards at $20 per cubic yard, $560.

Construct manhole at revised location over telephone company ducts on Greenfield road, $369.

Total contract with addition, $19,111.20.

Due to a delay in awarding contract to the Minot Construction Company for underground work in Cummins Highway, the contractor who was working on the reconstruction of the roadway laid a new surface of their base and binder courses on Cummins Highway. It is necessary for the Minot Construction Company to excavate and remove an additional thickness of pavement than was originally contemplated. After a careful survey of the entire length of the street by Superintendent O'Banion of the Fire Alarm Division, it appears that an average of 3 inches of additional pavement would have to be excavated. This means that the Minot Construction Company will have to cut through 3 inches of additional pavement and dispose of the excavated material by truck.

In the construction of this street, the Commonwealth requires that the concrete over the excavation must come to the top of the pavement which means that the Minot Construction Company must pour a concrete mat of an additional thickness of approximately 3 inches, 3 feet wide for a total length of 1,020 feet of trench. The concrete, as specified by the Commonwealth, is a high strength cement concrete which costs $20 per cubic yard.

In the original plans for installation of underground duct on Cummins Highway, we included a 200-foot duct run from manhole on Cummins Highway and Weybosset street to a connection post on Greenfield road. In our attempt to reduce the cost, this 200-foot duct was omitted from the present plans. However, in making a study of the fire alarm system and its layout, it was determined that we must have some connection between our circuits on Greenfield road and the underground which was being installed at Weybosset street. This installation of a 200-foot duct would cost approximately $1,800.

The telephone company agreed to allow this department to have the contractor construct a manhole over the two telephone ducts and, by breaking duct in the manhole, the telephone company would permit us to pull in our cable from Greenfield road to our manhole on Cummins Highway, at Weybosset street. The company insisted, however, that this manhole must be built in accordance with their requirements and that special care must be used in the construction of the manhole to prevent damage to their ducts and cables. The original bid for construction of manholes in the contract of the Minot Construction Company amounted to $400 each. However, there will be an extra cost for construction of this particular manhole of $369.

Respectfully yours,

FRANCIS X. COTTER,
Fire Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

DEDUCTIONS ON CONTRACTDEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

White Construction Company, Inc., in its contract on the new Greenwood School, Hyde Park, has been directed to make changes within the boiler room for waste and vent piping leading to sump pit; also change in drains leading from area outside boiler room, connected to sump pit, in accordance with drawing P-2A, deduct $150. Furnish and install a 250-gallon hot water tank in lieu of the 350-gallon tank called for on the plans and in the specification, deduct $250. Omit tile-lined doors for boiler combustion chambers as called for in the specifications, two boilers at $100 each, deduct $200. Total deduction $600.

TRANSFERS OF APPROPRIATIONS.

The Mayor has approved the following requests for transfers of appropriations:

From 10, Permanent Employees, $4,000, to 270, Repairs and Servicing of Equipment, $4,000.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

From 10, Permanent Employees, $60,000, to 3, Supplies and Materials, Miscellaneous Supplies and Materials, $60,000.

AMENDMENT OF CONTRACTHOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

The Trustees of the Hospital Department, with the approval of the Mayor, on September 10, have entered upon the following agreement:

Whereas, on July 2, 1956, the City of Boston, acting by the Hospital Department, entered into a $3,445 contract with D. Antonellis, Inc., providing for certain repairs to the brick work on No. 1 boiler in the Power House at the Sanatorium Division; and

Whereas, At the very beginning of the aforementioned repair work, it was discovered that the inner course of brick, because of age and excessive heat had become fused with the outer layer of brick. The inner course had deteriorated and was crumbling. The existence of this condition caused the entire brick wall of the boiler to fall upon attempting to effect the repairs; and

Whereas, The condition described above, the same having been unforeseen at the time of the execution of the principal contractor, will necessitate a certain amount of extra work to cost the sum of $370; and

Whereas, The contractor is ready and willing to perform the required extra work at the $370 figure; and

Whereas, The reasons for the entire work and cost have been set forth in a letter to the Mayor dated July 18, 1956, approved July 24, 1956, which letter and approval have been published in the City Record, said letter, approval, and publication being hereby incorporated by reference; now therefore

The parties hereto do hereby agree that the said contract and specifications be amended to include the extra work and that the contract cost be increased in the amount of $370 to cover the cost of the additional work thereby making the new contract sum $3,815.

All terms and conditions of the original contract not inconsistent herewith shall remain in full force and effect.

URBAN RENEWAL PLAN FOR SOUTH COVE AREA PLACED BEFORE CITY COUNCIL FOR APPROVAL

Sixty-three South Cove acres, closely adjacent to the downtown business area, and comprised mainly of old and exhausted residential real estate, would be slated for 90 per cent demolition, followed by modern redevelopment, under the latest urban renewal plan for Boston, submitted this week by Mayor John B. Hynes to the Boston City Council. Cost of acquiring and clearing the land for the project is estimated at $18 million.

The Urban Renewal Division of the Boston Housing Authority, author of the plan, is seeking advance funds from the federal government to blueprint the proposed project. A resolution adopted by the City Council authorizing the application for funds is necessary before federal money is made available.

The sixty-three-acre study area is bounded by the Boston & Albany Railroad tracks and by Albany, Kneeland, Stuart, and Arlington streets. In the area live 5,200 people—914 of them in family units and 1,700 unrelated individuals. Most of the area includes the largest section of Chinatown's residential district, which would be demolished. The Chinese business section situated on the other side of Kneeland street, would not be affected. The report emphasizes that the project boundaries at present are generalized and not yet final.

Possible reuses of the area include expansion of the New England Medical Center, office and hotel buildings, merchandising mart, housing and neighborhood facilities, entertainment and transportation facilities. According to the preliminary report filed by Urban Renewal Director Kane Simonian, between $40 million and $80 million worth of construction could be erected on the site after the 90 per cent of the existing buildings are demolished. The area, as tentatively blocked out, carefully skirts the more modern and useful types of buildings now in the South Cove section.

The total cost of clearing the land will, if finally approved, be borne two thirds by the federal government and one third by the City of Boston. This was done for the adjacent "New York Streets" project just completed. Assessed value of the area has shown a general decline and stands now at approximately $29.5 million. The Urban Renewal report further states that some $7 million in property is tax exempt, mainly in the medical center. "With a fully-developed medical center exerting a stabilizing influence on values, it is expected that renewal of the area will result in a considerable increase in tax income, due mainly to the increase in the ratio of building value to land value," the report cites. The project area, as it now exists, is described as "offering some of the worst living conditions to be found within the city"—one of "death, disease, poverty and loneliness—where the birth rate is 25 per cent below that of the city, while the death is 75 per cent above." The present death rate from tuberculosis in the area is quoted in the report as high above the rate for the state or the city, indeed "one of the highest in the country."

Present housing in the area consists of nineteenth-century, closely-packed, three- and four-story walk-ups of timber frame and brick wall and 49 per cent are substandard "by the most lenient of measures," according to the report. Replacement of dwelling accommodations by open parking lots in recent years has taken place at a higher rate than the movement of people from the area, with the result that greater pressures have been placed upon remaining housing facilities and the incidence of overcrowding has increased. The percentage of dwelling units with more than one person per room is 19.5 per cent as compared with the 12.7 average for the city.

In anticipation of a desire by the Chinese community to remain in the district, the plan calls for a residential development with neighborhood stores and services. Some thirty acres would remain for the use of private commercial services and public community services.

Where, at present, outmoded streets and alleyways take up 23 acres of the area, the tentative plan would allot only 10 acres for those purposes, and the medical center would be allocated 13.5 acres for expansion.

"For those who are suspicious of statistics," the housing report states, "it is suggested that a walk through the area will provide a more realistic demonstration of the need for removal."

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MINIMUM STANDARDS ESTABLISHED FOR DWELLING UNITS.

Dr. John H. Cauley, Health Commissioner, on September 26, adopted regulations establishing minimum standards of fitness for human habitation in the City of Boston. The regulations set forth the minimum requirements of the Health Department with respect to plumbing, heating, light and ventilation. They also cover standards of maintenance, egress, garbage and rubbish disposal, as well as standards for the sizes of rooms and the requirements covering the use and occupancy of space.

The responsibilities of owners and occupants are likewise defined, and the regulations further provide for penalties in the event of failure to conform to the requirements of the minimum standards.

This action by the Health Commissioner, in setting up regulations which are generally referred to as "The Housing Code," is part of the Workable Program for Urban Renewal.

The announcement of these regulations is a further step in insuring the full cooperation of the Federal Government in the broad Urban Renewal Program going forward under the direction of Mayor Hynes.

the average grade of the ground adjacent to and within 15 feet of the exterior walls of the room.

In the event that any service or utility which the owner or operator has agreed to supply is discontinued the owner or operator shall take immediate steps to cause the restoration of such service or utility.

8.2—The owner of a dwelling located in an area found by the Health Commissioner to be infested by rats, insects or other vermin shall carry out such rat stoppage, vermin-proofing or other means of preventing or remedying such infestations of said dwellings as may be required by the Health Commissioner.

8.7—It shall be the responsibility of an occupant of a dwelling unit to furnish such garbage and rubbish storage receptacles as are necessary within the dwelling unit. In dwellings containing no more than three dwelling units it shall be the responsibility of the occupant of a dwelling unit to furnish such additional storage receptacles as are needed for the storage of garbage and refuse until removal from the premises. In dwellings containing four or more dwelling units, it shall be the responsibility of the owner to furnish such receptacles without the dwelling unit, for all dwelling units on the premises.

8.8—Every occupant of a dwelling containing a single dwelling unit shall be responsible for the extermination of any insects, rodents or other pests therein or on the premises; and every occupant of a dwelling unit in a dwelling containing more than one dwelling unit shall be responsible for such extermination whenever his dwelling unit in a dwelling containing more than one dwelling unit is the only one infested. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, whenever infestation is caused by failure of the owner to maintain a dwelling in a rat-proof or reasonably insect-proof condition, extermination shall be the responsibility of the owner. Whenever infestation exists in two or more of the dwelling units in any dwelling, or in the shared or public parts of any dwelling containing two or more dwelling units, extermination thereof shall be the responsibility of the owner.

8.9—Every occupant of a dwelling unit shall keep all plumbing fixtures therein in a clean and sanitary condition and shall be responsible for the exercise of reasonable care in the proper use and operation thereof.

Each day during any portion of which such violation is allowed to continue shall be considered a separate offence.

9.2—These regulations shall apply to all buildings used for human habitation within the City of Boston. The Health Commissioner or a duly designated subordinate shall enforce these regulations in accordance with the provisions of General Laws (Ter. Ed.), Chapter 111.

9.3—In any case where a provision of these minimum standards is found to be in conflict with a provision of any zoning, building, fire, safety or health law or special law or ordinance or regulation of this municipality existing at the time of publication of these standards, the provision which establishes the higher standard for the promotion and protection of the health and safety of the people shall prevail.

9.4—If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phase or word of these minimum standards should be declared invalid for any reason whatsoever, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of these standards, which shall remain in full force and effect; and to this end the provisions of these standards are hereby declared severable.

9.5—The Health Commissioner may vary the application of any provision of these minimum standards to any particular case when in his opinion the enforcement thereof would do manifest injustice, provided that the decision of the Health Commissioner shall not conflict with the spirit of any provision of these minimum standards.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT.
Purchasing Division.

Automobiles

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from Long Island Hospital Division for one (1) Ford, F600, 8-cylinder, dump truck, and another requisition for one (1) Ford, 8-cylinder, Country sedan, to be delivered immediately.

Since the Superintendent of Long Island Hospital has requested that these units be delivered immediately and inasmuch as publicly advertising for bids would result in a delay of several weeks, written quotations were solicited from several Ford dealers. Three bids were received, the lowest from Bowers Motor Sales, Inc.

It is now requested that, inasmuch as these vehicles are needed immediately, advertising would delay delivery, and competitive bids have been received, permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Bowers Motor Sales, Inc., for one (1) only new Ford, F600, chassis and cab, 8-cylinder, 130-inch wheelbase, oil filter, two-speed axle, 750 x 20, 8-ply tires front, 825 x 20, 10-ply tires rear, dual rear wheels, helper springs, heater and defroster, turn indicator, equipped with 2-yard dump body with cab shield, at a delivered price of $3,710, less 2 per cent, ten days, and one (1) only new Ford Country sedan, 8-passenger, 8-cylinder, equipped with Fordomatic transmission, oil filter, oil bath air cleaner, turn indicator, heater and defroster and undercoating at $3,280, excise tax excluded, less allowance on used unit, $540, making the total $2,740, less 2 per cent, ten days.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,450, less 2 per cent discount for payment within ten days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Automotive Repairs

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On June 8, 1956, your Honor approved a contract for automotive repair parts to E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, Inc., in the amount of $22,000, net.

The Commissioner of Public Works has advised this office that additional sweepers are in need of repairs, and that the present contract with E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, Inc., is insufficient to cover needed repair parts.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with public advertisement and award a contract, without public advertisement, to E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, Inc., in the sum of $6,000. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Hydrant Hoods

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Water Division of the Public Works Department for the immediate delivery of 300 only cold rolled pressed steel hydrant hoods, high pressure.

These hydrant hoods are manufactured only by the Worcester Pressed Steel Company of Worcester, Mass. This company has submitted a written quotation to this office in the amount of $18 each, f.o.b. Worcester, Mass.

Inasmuch as the Worcester Pressed Steel Company is the only manufacturer of the hydrant hoods, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices. Authority is therefore requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Worcester Pressed Steel Company.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $5,400, net, f.o.b. Worcester, Mass.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Cotton Sheets

The Mayor, on September 18, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Boston City Hospital for the immediate delivery of 200 dozen, 72 x 108, unbleached cotton sheets, 140 count. Inasmuch as these sheets are urgently needed, time does not permit to publicly advertise for prices.

Written quotations have been solicited from several companies. Three bids were received, the lowest being that of Jennings Linen Company, Inc., who submitted a price of $21 per dozen.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Jennings Linen Company, Inc., for the immediate delivery of 200 dozen sheets as specified at a price of $21 per dozen.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $4,200, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Water Meters

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 10, 1956, publicly advertised bids for furnishing water meters to the Water Division of the Public Works Department until December 31, 1956, were publicly opened and read in this office. Subsequent to the bid opening, your Honor approved a permission to award a contract to the lowest bidder, Hersey Manufacturing Company, for furnishing water meters until December 31, 1956, in the amount of $128,899.40, net, 30 days.

It has now been determined that the Water Division has sufficient funds in the 1956 budget to pay for only approximately $68,536.70 worth of meters. The balance of the proposed contract amount will have to be delivered and paid for in 1957.

Authority is therefore requested to cancel the permission of award to Hersey Manufacturing Company, reject all bids, dispense with public advertisement, and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Hersey Manufacturing Company for the same items at the same prices submitted by this company on the publicly opened bid of July 10, 1956. The termination date of this contract will be March 31, 1957. The amount of deliveries in 1956 will not exceed $68,536.70. Approximate total amount of contract will be $128,899.40, net, 30 days.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Typewriters

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of several requisitions for Royal typewriters for various city departments.

Inasmuch as these typewriters are available from the manufacturer, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices. Permission is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Royal McBee Corporation, Royal Typewriter Division, for 28 only 13-inch typewriters at $187.50 each, and 19 only 11-inch typewriters at $182.50 each, to be delivered immediately to the various city departments.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $8,717.50, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

Automobile

The Mayor, on September 24, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Fire Department for the immediate delivery of a 1956 Buick, four-door sedan, Model 41, as per specifications. Dickson Buick, Inc., has submitted an informal written quotation and has assured this office that a vehicle is available for immediate delivery.

Inasmuch as time is of the essence and since Dickson Buick, Inc., has submitted an acceptable price, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to this company. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be as follows: List price, $3,408.30, less taxes, $175—$3,233.30, less trade-in allowance on 1952 Mercury car, No. A77, $400—$2,833.30, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

CITY PLANNING BOARD.

Public Relations

The Mayor, on September 24, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 20, 1956, the Planning Board voted as follows:

"That the Government Research and Reporting Service, Inc., 'public relations' experts, with offices at 20 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., be engaged by written contract covering the period October 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957, at a total cost of twenty-two hundred and fifty dollars ($2,250) to perform extensive expert services in the field of public relations for and on behalf of the Board in accordance with the aforementioned firm's written proposal in respect thereto dated and accepted this date by the Board."

It was further voted

"That the proposed contract be entered into, without public advertising, subject to the prior approval of his Honor the Mayor, and further that the chairman be authorized to sign the contract."

The primary function of the aforementioned "public relations" expert will be to supplement the research and public information services of the Board to the end that the Board may have a better understanding not only of transportation, industrial and commercial developments in the metropolitan area, but also of the attitudes, interests, and opinions of civic, business, and labor organizations in order that information and knowledge of policies may be transmitted to specific organizations, as well as to the general public, in such detail and form as to create a clearer and full understanding of the work of the City Planning Board.

The Government Research and Reporting Service, Inc., has as its founder, president and principal field representative a man who is now, and has been actively engaged in this area in the highly-specialized realm of "public relations" for the past nine years; and who, for sixteen years prior to that period, functioned variously as a reporter, a feature writer, and an editorial writer for the Boston Post. Furthermore, the proposed fee of $2,250 to be paid to the corporation for its "public relations" services for the Board does not appear to be an unreasonable one.

In the light of the foregoing, therefore, and in view of the very special nature of the services to be rendered, I respectfully request, on behalf of the Planning Board, your authorization to dispense with a public solicitation of proposals in the City Record and to enter into a $2,250 contract with Government Research and Reporting Service, Inc., 20 Beacon street, Boston, Mass., to perform for the Board certain expert services in the field of "public relations" all as will be set forth in the contract, during the period October 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957, inclusive.

Respectfully yours,

THOMAS F. McDONOUGH,
Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Automotive Repairs

The Mayor, on September 19, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of April 13 of the current year, a contract in the maximum amount of $10,000 was awarded to the Charles N. Wood Company, of 570 Arsenal street, Watertown, for repairing Walter snow fighters which are the heavy-duty trucks used by the department for sanding, salting, and plowing streets during the winter months.

This amount has been entirely expended, and it will be necessary to award a new contract to this company, as I am in receipt of a report from Chief Automotive Engineer James H. Stewart to the effect that a considerable amount of additional repair work will have to be done on some of these heavy-duty units, in order to place them in reasonably good operating condition for the start of the winter season of 1956 and 1957.

Incidentally, the department operates twenty-nine of these heavy-duty snow fighters, and it is impossible for our mechanics to keep them in repair, as we also have approximately four hundred other pieces of equipment that must be kept in good operating condition by said mechanics. Under the circumstances, it is impossible for our own employees to effect all of the repair work on the Walter snow fighters, and we have found it necessary, over the past several years, to engage the services of outside repair shops.

The only dealer in this area authorized to sell and repair Walter snow fighters is the Charles N. Wood Company. This company has done considerable repair work for the department in previous years, and its work and prices have been very satisfactory. I feel, therefore, that it would be advantageous to the city to award a contract to the Wood Company for repairing the Walter snow fighters selected by Mr. Stewart, Chief Engineer of the Automotive Division. There would be no advantage in publicly advertising for proposals for this repair work, due to the nature of the work, and also because of the fact that the above-referenced company is the only authorized dealer of Walter snow fighters in this area.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authorization to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the Charles N. Wood Company, in an amount not to exceed $10,000, for effecting whatever repairs are necessary to the Walter snow fighter trucks during the current year, with the understanding that the work will be authorized and assigned by the Chief Automotive Engineer of the Automotive Division; and with the further understanding that the city makes no commitment as to the volume of work to be sent to the Wood Company. All repair work will be done in the presence of an inspector of the Automotive Division, and at agreed rates for labor and parts used on the work.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

Architectural Services

The Mayor has approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your Honor's permission to engage the services of George A. Sherwood, architect, Room 824, Park Square Building, Boston, for architectural services on the emergency work on the exterior of the Old State House, in the City of Boston.

The above will include the preparation of drawings and specifications, the supervision of all phases of the demolition and reconstruction, the issuing of such progress reports as we may request, the checking of the contractors, requests for payment and the preparation of certificates, and the checking and approving of shop drawings.

The fee will be the standard 10 per cent as prescribed by the American Institute of Architects for work of this type.

In view of the nature of the professional services rendered, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award the contract to the above-mentioned person without the usual form of advertising.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

LEGAL SIGNATURE

The first name and the surname constitute a man's legal signature.

Middle names or initials are not legally necessary, but since they help distinguish an individual from someone else with a similar name, they are sometimes requested for certain records to avoid danger of confusion.

A married woman's given name followed by her husband's surname is her legal signature, even if she becomes a widow.

Hon. John B. Hynes,

Dear Sir:
In reply to Councillor Ahearn's order of August 20, 1956, I submit the following report: At a meeting of this commission held Thursday, August 23, 1956, representatives of the Savin Construction Company which has been hauling fill from Canton to the site of the Southeast Expressway in heavy trucks over various streets in Dorchester agreed to discontinue the operation of these trucks from 10 p.m. each day to 6 a.m. each succeeding day beginning Saturday, August 25, 1956.

The commission felt that this would abate the nuisance that has been disturbing the residents of Dorchester.

Very truly yours,
TIMOTHY J. O'CONNOR,

INFORMATION ACCOMPANYING TAX AND WATER BILLS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 5, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Director of Administrative Services concerning your resolution of August 20, 1956, relative to having the additional information now contained on attached slips of paper printed on the reverse side of the tax and water bills.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Administrative Service Department,
August 20, 1956.

Dear Sir:

Inquiry of the Collector's Office (Mr. John Connors) and personal observation by a member of this department disclose that at no time are paper clips used to attach the notice of local payment points to tax bill.

In connection with the possibility of printing the notice of the local payment points on the reverse side of the tax bills, inquiry shows the following:

The tax bill forms are printed and delivered far in advance of the actual billing of the tax bills, and the preparation of individual bills is dependent on the work flow of the Assessing Department. From these facts it can be seen that it is not possible to print the specific local dates on the reverse side of the bills, as they cannot be established by the Collector's Office until the time the bills are received from the Assessing Department.

The printing of the notice of payment locations on a separate slip of paper, of a different color than the bill, has been found to make the notice stand out well and helps accomplish what its intention is intended to be, namely, to provide convenience for the taxpayer. This feature may be lost if the notice were printed on the reverse, in which position it may be overlooked.

I trust this information answers the question raised by Councillor Piemonte.

IMPROVEMENTS ON CERTAIN STREETS IN DORCHESTER.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 6, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works concerning your order of August 27, 1956, in regard to installing electric lights on Groom, Holden, Belden, and Hamlet streets, in Dorchester, and also that these streets be properly paved.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
September 4, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of August 27:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Public Works Commissioner to install electric lights on Groom, Holden, Belden, and Hamlet streets in the Dorchester section; and be it further

"Ordered, That these streets be properly paved."

Immediate steps will be taken to conduct a street lighting survey of the above-referenced streets, and steps will be taken to provide for the installation of whatever electric lights are determined necessary as the result of the survey. However, I do not believe that it is possible to provide for the installation of the new lights this year, as the Boston Edison Company has a large backlog of work to do in the various streets throughout the city in connection with our street lighting modernization program. However, we will do everything within reason to have this improvement effected as soon as possible.

The same applies to the paving or the resurfacing of these streets. Due to the lateness of the season, we cannot provide for the complete reconstruction of these streets, but we will give consideration to including this improvement in the 1957 street reconstruction program. In the meantime, a street survey will be made, and steps will be taken to effect whatever repairs are deemed necessary at this time.

I trust, therefore, that these matters will eventually be adjusted to the satisfaction of the residents of these streets.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

INCREASING THE SALARY OF CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF REVIEW, ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 10, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

Since the adoption of the employee's Compensation and Classification Plan, and since the adoption of the Reorganization Plan for city departments, it has become evident that the salaries paid to some department officials are not commensurate with the responsibilities entailed. It is my intention to survey the salaries paid to department officials with a view to presenting to your Honorable Body a revised schedule.

In the meantime, I submit a change in the salary rate of the Chairman of the Board of Review, in the Assessing Department. In my judgment, this position is a most sensitive and responsible one. The present occupant of the position and future occupants of this position, should be adequately compensated. The attached ordinance increases the salary of this position from $9,500 to $11,000 per annum. I recommend its passage.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston.

(2) The assessor of taxes, twelve thousand dollars; the two associate assessors of taxes, four thousand dollars each; the chairman of the board of review in the assessing department, eleven thousand dollars; and the other two members of said board, eighty-five hundred dollars each.

EXTENSION OF MTA TO RIVERSIDE.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN and AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, The lack of adequate mass transportation for the public and traffic congestion are two of the most pressing problems now facing the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The early reduction, and eventual solution of these problems are essential to the future economic well being, not only of Boston, but of the entire Greater Boston area; and

Whereas, There is presently pending before proper authority the recommendation of the Conference of Business and Civic Organizations to extend our rapid transit facilities to Riverside by using the Highland Branch of the Boston & Albany Railroad, as but one step in breaking the log jam now hampering our mass transportation facilities; and

Whereas, There already have been many studies, reports, plans, recommendations, etc., which died a-borning for many reasons, including lack of support from the people and public officials, outside of Boston, and lack of a coordinated effort on the part of those who did support these prior efforts to improve the situation; and

Whereas, These problems of traffic and mass transportation are now in the critical stage, and time is of the essence if we are to secure the economic future of Boston and her environs; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, wholeheartedly favors the proposed extension of our rapid transit facilities to Riverside over the Highland Branch of the Boston & Albany Railroad; and be it further

Resolved, That the governmental agencies, whose approval is necessary before this plan can be put into operation, be urged to act without undue delay so that an essential step towards the solution of these problems and towards securing the future of Boston, can be taken at the earliest possible moment.

BOSTON FISHING FLEET HAD A POOR YEAR DURING 1955

The year 1955 was the worst twelve months in 31 years of the Boston fishing fleet, according to the annual report of the U. S. Department of the Interior's Boston Fishery Market News Service.

The report said 2,650 fishing trips—fewest in 10 years—landed a total catch of 136.5 million pounds. This was the "lowest volume in 31 years, the lowest value in 15 years, and the lowest average price in 13 years," the report stated.

Among the reasons cited for the business fall-off in Boston's fishing industry were low-priced foreign competition, labor-management troubles, severe weather, and a heavy inventory of frozen haddock filets.

Analysis of landings at the Boston Fish Pier during 1955 shows that 70 per cent of the weight of sea food landed was haddock and 73 per cent of the value. Cod represented 12 per cent in both weight and value, pollock 9 per cent in weight and 5 per cent in value, flounders totaled about 3 per cent in weight and 4 per cent in value. The remaining 6 per cent in weight and value were distributed over 16 other kinds of sea food landed.

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. "HOME RULE" IN MATTERS OF ZONING AT LAST IN SIGHT FOR BOSTON

Boston moved closer this week to the end of its long struggle for home rule in the regulation of zoning. Mayor Hynes submitted to the City Council, on October 1, an order calling for the acceptance of "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Limit Buildings, According to Their Use or Construction, to Specified Districts" (Ch. 665, Acts of 1956).

Up to now, Boston has occupied a unique position among the large cities of the nation in that our municipal government is not permitted to determine the regulation of zoning within its borders. Each zoning provision in Boston is spelled out by statute with the present zoning officials of the city acting merely as agents for the carrying out of these state laws.

The new act, which takes effect on November 10, provided it is accepted by the City Council, sets up, within the Planning Department, a new, unpaid board of nine zoning commissioners authorized to regulate and restrict the construction, alteration, or use of buildings or land. These powers include the authority to restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and structures, the size and width of lots, the percentage of the lot to be occupied, size of yards, courts, and open spaces, density of population, and location of industrial, commercial, and other types of buildings. The zoning commission, may, under the act, divide the city into districts of such number, shape, and areas as may be deemed best suited to carry out the provisions of the new act, and, within such district, it may uniformly regulate construction, alteration, building, and land use.

The zoning commission set up under the act would, at the outset, promulgate its zoning rules and regulations and set up the zoning districts within the city, all of which would replace the present zoning laws governing Boston. By the final implementation of the new act, the present zoning laws would be automatically repealed.

However, the home rule zoning act contains one contra-home-rule provision. The commission set up is required to file the original set of regulations and district designations which it adopts with the clerk of the Massachusetts Senate, and those pertinent provisions of the new act "shall not take effect until twelve months have expired after it is so filed."

The act contains fourteen sections, several of which specify the duties of the new zoning commission in the matter of conducting public hearings and other details. Appeals from the action of the commission would be handled, as they are at present, by the Board of Zoning Appeals.

The unpaid zoning commission set up under the act would be composed of nine zoning commissioners to be appointed by the Mayor from two nominations, each, submitted by the following organizations: The Associated Industries of Massachusetts, the Boston Central Labor Union, the Boston Real Estate Board, the Boston Society of Architects (1), the Boston Society of Landscape Architects (1), the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, the Massachusetts Motor Truck Association, and the Master Builders Association of Boston. One commissioner would be selected by the mayor from the citizenry-at-large. All members of the commission must be residents of Boston and would serve for terms of three years, with the exception of six of the board members who, at the outset, would serve one- and two-year terms so that membership would eventually rotate by having the terms of three members expire each year.

In his message to the City Council on Monday, urging prompt acceptance of the act, Mayor Hynes pointed out that the present Zoning Enabling Act, as amended as recently as 1954, expressly excludes Boston from the power it renews in all other cities and towns to pass zoning regulations.

"Let us demonstrate now that Boston is not loath to accept 'home rule' when it is tendered," stated the Mayor.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

TEXT OF BOSTON'S "HOME RULE" ZONING ACT

[CHAP. 665]

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS*In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-six*AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CITY OF BOSTON TO LIMIT BUILDINGS
ACCORDING TO THEIR USE OR CONSTRUCTION TO SPECIFIED
DISTRICTS.Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. There shall be in the city planning department of the city of Boston, or in such other department of said city as the city council of said city with the approval of the mayor of said city shall from time to time determine, a board, known as the zoning commission, consisting of nine zoning commissioners appointed by the mayor as follows:—one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Boston Central Labor Union, one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Boston Real Estate Board, one commissioner from two candidates nominated one by The Boston Society of Architects and one by the Boston Society of Landscape Architects, one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Massachusetts Motor Truck Association, Inc., one commissioner from two candidates nominated by the Master Builders Association of Boston, and one commissioner selected at large by the mayor. All zoning commissioners shall be residents of Boston; provided, that any person who on the passage of this act is a member of the board of zoning adjustment of said city may be a zoning commissioner irrespective of his place of residence. The zoning commissioners initially appointed under this section shall serve, in the case of the commissioners appointed upon nomination of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, the Boston Central Labor Union, and the Boston Real Estate Board, for a term expiring three years, in the case of the commissioners appointed upon nomination of The Boston Society of Architects or the Boston Society of Landscape Architects, the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, and the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, for a term expiring two years, and in the case of the commissioners appointed upon nomination of the Massachusetts Motor Truck Association, Inc., and the Master Builders Association of Boston, and of the commissioner selected at large by the mayor, for a term expiring one year, from May first, nineteen hundred and fifty-six. As the term of any zoning commissioner initially appointed, or of any subsequent zoning commissioner, expires, his successor shall be appointed in like manner as such commissioner for a term of three years. Any vacancy in the office of a zoning commissioner shall be filled in the same manner for the unexpired term. The zoning commission shall elect one of its members as chairman and another as vice chairman. The zoning commission shall also elect a secretary, who need not be a member of the commission. The members of the zoning commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The zoning commission shall cause to be made a detailed record of all its proceedings, which record shall include the vote of each member participating in its decisions, and the absence of a member or his failure to vote. The zoning commission shall not be subject to the supervision or control of the officer or board in charge of such department of the city as the commission shall from time to time be in; but unless otherwise ordered by the mayor, the zoning commission shall not make any annual or other report except through such officer or board, and shall not communicate with the mayor except through such officer or the chairman of such board.

SECTION 2. For the purpose of promoting the health, safety, convenience, morals or welfare of its inhabitants, the city of Boston may, by a zoning regulation adopted by its zoning commission, regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and structures, the size and width of lots, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures and land for trade, industry, agriculture, residence or other purposes; provided, that use of land for a municipal purpose shall not be permitted in any district in which dwellings are permitted except that where, at the time of the adoption of a zoning regulation or amendment permitting dwellings in a district, a particular parcel of land in such district is used for a particular municipal purpose, use of such land for such purpose may be allowed to continue, and except, further, that use of a particular parcel of land for a municipal purpose in a district where dwellings are permitted may be allowed by special order of the zoning commission adopted after like report, notice and hearing, and in like manner and with like approval as a zoning regulation or amendment if notice of the hearing thereon is also sent by mail, postage prepaid, to the owners of all abutting property and also to the owners of such other property as may be deemed by the zoning commission to be especially affected by such order, as they appear on the then most recent local tax list. For any or all of such purposes a zoning regulation may divide the city into districts of such number, shape and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this act, and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration or use of buildings and structures, or use of land, and may prohibit noxious trades within the city or any specified part thereof. The regulations and restrictions shall be uniform for each class or kind of buildings, structures or land, and for each class or kind of use, throughout the district, but the regulations and restrictions in one district may differ from those in other districts. Due regard shall be paid to the characteristics of the different parts of the city; and the regulations and restrictions shall be the same for zones, districts or streets having substantially the same character. A zoning regulation shall be designed among other purposes to lessen congestion in the streets; to conserve health; to secure safety from fire, panic and other dangers; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population, to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks and other public requirements; to conserve the value of land and buildings; to encourage the most appropriate use of land throughout the city; and to preserve and increase its amenities.

SECTION 3. A zoning regulation may be adopted and from time to time be amended by alteration, addition or repeal, but only in the manner hereinafter provided. No zoning regulation originally establishing the boundaries of a district or the regulations and restrictions to be enforced therein, and no such regulation amending the same as aforesaid, shall be adopted until the city planning board of the city of Boston shall have submitted a report with recommendations concerning such regulation or amendment or allowed twenty days to elapse after receipt from the zoning commission of a request for such a report without making such report, nor until after the zoning commission shall have given notice and held a public hearing with respect to such regulation or amendment. Such notice shall be published at least fourteen days prior to such hearing in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city of Boston, and shall (a) refer to this act, (b) give the time and place of the public hearing, and (c) either state the express terms of the proposed regulation or amendment, or state the general subject thereof and the times when and the place where a copy of the express terms thereof may be obtained. Such notice shall also be sent by mail, postage prepaid, to any person filing written request for notice of hearings, such request to be renewed yearly in December. Such public hearing shall be attended by not less than five of the members of the zoning commission; and if less than five members are present at any public hearing, the members actually present may adjourn the same by proclamation to such time and place as they deem advisable, and further notice thereof shall not be necessary. After such notice and hearing, the zoning commission by the concurrent vote of not less than six of its members, may adopt or reject the proposed regulation or amendment, or may adopt a regulation or amendment in substantial accord with the proposed regulation or amendment.

Votes of the zoning commission adopting a zoning regulation or amendment thereof shall be subject to the same provisions of law in respect to approval by the mayor as orders or votes of the city council of the city, except that the concurrent vote of not less than eight members of the zoning commission shall be necessary to pass such a regulation or amendment over the veto of the mayor. Any owner of property may petition the zoning commission to adopt an amendment of a zoning regulation which would affect his property, but shall not be entitled to have his proposed amendment considered by the commission unless he pays the city such sum, if any, as may from time to time be established by the zoning regulation as the estimated average cost to the city of a hearing on a proposed amendment of the zoning regulation.

SECTION 4. A zoning regulation or any amendment thereof shall apply to any change in the use of a building or structure or of land, and to any alteration of a building or structure when the same would amount to reconstruction, extension or structural change, and to any alteration of a building or structure to provide for its use for a purpose or in a manner substantially different from the use to which it was put before alteration, or for its use for the same purpose to a substantially greater extent; but no zoning regulation nor any amendment thereof shall apply to existing buildings or structures, nor to the existing use of any building or structure, or of land to the extent to which it is used at the time of the adoption of such regulation or amendment, except that any such regulation or amendment may regulate non-use of a non-conforming use so as not to unduly prolong the life thereof.

SECTION 5. No zoning regulation or amendment thereof shall effect any permit issued or any building or structure lawfully begun before notice of hearing before the zoning commission has first been given; provided, that construction work under such a permit is commenced within six months after its issue, and the work, whether under such permit or otherwise lawfully begun, proceeds in good faith continuously to completion so far as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances. The issuance of a permit or the beginning of work upon a building or structure, or a change of use, after such notice has been given, shall not justify the violation of a zoning regulation or an amendment thereof subsequently adopted as the outcome of such hearing and in substantial accord with such notice; provided, the subsequent steps required for the adoption of such regulation or amendment thereof are taken in their usual sequence without unnecessary or unreasonable delay.

SECTION 6. A building, structure or land used or to be used by a public service corporation may be exempted from the operation of a zoning regulation or amendment if, upon petition of the corporation, the state department of public utilities shall, after public notice and hearing, decide that the present or proposed situation of the building, structure or land in question is reasonably necessary for the convenience or welfare of the public.

SECTION 7. The building commissioner of the city shall withhold a permit for the construction or alteration of any building or structure if the building or structure as constructed or altered would be in violation of any zoning regulation or amendment thereof; and state and municipal officers shall refuse any permit or license for a new use of a building, structure or land which use would be in violation of any zoning regulation or amendment thereof.

SECTION 8. The board of appeal provided for in the Boston building code shall act as a board of appeal under this act; and any board or officer of the city or any person aggrieved by reason of being refused a permit by any administrative official under the provisions of this act or by reason of any order or decision of the building commissioner or other administrative official in violation of any provision of this act or any zoning regulation or amendment thereof adopted under this act may appeal to said board of appeal within forty-five days after such refusal, order or decision by paying to the building commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars or such other sum as the city council with the approval of the mayor may from time to time prescribe, and filing with the board or officer from whose refusal, order or decision the appeal is taken a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. Such board or officer shall forthwith transmit to said board of appeal such notice of appeal and all documents and papers constituting the record of the case in which the appeal is taken. Said board of appeal shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of any appeal and give public notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, and also send notice by mail, postage prepaid, to the appellant and to the owners of all property deemed by said board of appeal to be affected thereby, as they appear on the then most recent local tax list and to any person filing written request for notice of hearings, such request to be renewed yearly in December, and to the city planning board. At the hearing any party whether entitled to notice thereof or not may appear in person or by agent or attorney. In acting upon such appeal, said board of appeal may, in conformity with the provisions of this act, reverse or affirm in whole or in part, or may modify, any order or decision, and may make such order or decision as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the board or officer from whom the appeal is taken, and may direct the issue of a permit. The concurring vote of four fifths of all the members of said board of appeal shall be necessary to reverse any order or decision of any administrative official under this act, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any zoning regulation or amendment thereof, or to effect any variance in, or exception to, the application of any such regulation or amendment. Said board of appeal shall cause to be made a detailed record of all its proceedings, which record shall set forth the reasons for its decisions, the vote of each member participating therein, and the absence of a member or his failure to vote. Such record, immediately following the board's final decision, shall be filed in the office of the building commissioner of the city and shall be open to public inspection, and notice of such decision shall be mailed forthwith to each party in interest as aforesaid, to the city planning board, and to every person present at the hearing who requests that notice be sent to him and states the address to which such notice is to be sent.

SECTION 9. Upon an appeal from the refusal of the building commissioner or other administrative official to issue a permit under this act or under a zoning regulation as adopted and amended under this act, said board of appeal may authorize with respect to a particular parcel of land or to an existing building thereon a variance from the terms of such zoning regulation where, owing to conditions especially affecting such parcel or such building, but not affecting generally the zoning district in which it is located, a literal enforcement of the provisions of such zoning regulation would involve substantial hardship to the appellant, and where desirable relief may be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without nullifying or substantially derogating from the intent and purpose of such zoning regulation, but not otherwise. In authorizing such variance, said board may impose limitations both of time and of user, and a continuation of the use permitted may be conditioned upon compliance with regulations to be made and amended from time to time thereafter.

SECTION 10. A zoning regulation or amendment thereof may provide that exceptions may be allowed to the regulations and restrictions contained therein, which shall be applicable to all of the districts of a particular class and of a character set forth in such zoning regulation or amendment. Such exceptions shall be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the zoning regulation or amendment, and may be subject to general or specific limitations therein contained. If exceptions are so provided for, said board of appeal may, subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards, allow such an exception upon an appeal from the refusal of the building commissioner or other administrative official to issue a permit under this act or under a zoning regulation or amendment thereof adopted under this act.

SECTION 11. Any person aggrieved by a decision of said board of appeal, whether or not previously a party to the proceeding, or any municipal board or officer, may appeal to the superior court sitting in equity for the county of Suffolk; provided, that such appeal is filed in said court within fifteen days after such decision is recorded. Every person so appealing shall file a bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the court, for such a sum as shall be fixed by the court, to indemnify and save harmless the person or persons in whose favor the decision was rendered from all damages and costs which he or they may sustain in case the decision of said board is affirmed. Upon an appeal under this section, the court shall hear all pertinent evidence and determine the facts, and, upon the facts as so determined, annul such decision if found to exceed the authority of such board, or make such other decree as justice and equity may require. The foregoing remedy shall be exclusive; but the parties shall have all rights of appeal and exception as in other equity cases. Costs shall not be allowed against said board of appeals unless it shall appear to the court that the board in making the decision appealed from acted with gross negligence, in bad faith or with malice; and costs shall not be allowed against the party appealing from the decision of the board unless it shall appear to the court that said party acted in bad faith or with malice in appealing to the court. All issues in any proceeding under this section shall have precedence over all other civil actions and proceedings.

SECTION 12. The superior court sitting as aforesaid shall have jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this act, and any zoning regulation or amendment thereof adopted under this act, and may restrain by injunction violation thereof.

SECTION 13. Chapter four hundred and eighty-eight of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-four, as amended, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 14. Sections one to twelve, inclusive, of this act shall take effect upon the acceptance of this act prior to June first, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, by vote of the city council of the city of Boston, subject to the provisions of its charter, but not otherwise. Section thirteen of this act shall take effect at the same time as the zoning regulation originally dividing the city of Boston into districts under this act and establishing the regulations and restrictions to be enforced in said districts takes effect; provided, that the zoning regulation originally dividing the city of Boston into districts under this act and establishing the regulations and restrictions to be enforced in said districts shall, after its adoption, be reported by the zoning commission to the general court by filing the same with the clerk of the senate and shall not take effect until twelve months have expired after it is so filed.

U. S. OFFICIALS TO AID CITY EFFORTS TO GET FUNDS FOR DEMOLITION-RESTORATION WORK

Representatives of the Urban Renewal Administration of the United States Housing and Home Finance Agency have agreed to visit Boston next week to assist the city in preparing an application for a federal grant of money to aid the city in its demolition and restoration program. This is the result of a report of Attorney John A. Murray, Demolition Director of the City of Boston, who conferred Friday in Washington with Gilbert R. Barnhardt, Director of Demolition Program of the Urban Renewal Agency. Present with Mr. Murray at the conference were Robert M. Morgan, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Boston Five Cents Savings Bank, and Chairman of the Mayor's Advisory Committee on the proposed demolition of hundreds of abandoned Boston houses; Peter Turchon, noted expert on the rehabilitation properties, and Paul Hines, co-ordinator of the Boston Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program.

How much money can be obtained for the city for the Boston demolition program is a matter which has not been determined. However, Mr. Murray in his report to the Mayor stated that Barnhardt expressed satisfaction at the manner in which Boston is attacking its abandoned house and rehabilitation program and assured him that if Boston continues with a vigorous and energetic rehabilitation and demolition program that he would favor a substantial grant for the city. Such money would be in addition to the funds already allocated to Boston for its present redevelopment project such as is taking place in the "New York Streets Area" and its urban renewal program now being developed by the Boston Housing Authority.

Mr. Barnhardt, said Mr. Murray, stated that a recent study made by one of its agencies to investigate the best methods and technique to be used in Greater Boston for the rehabilitation and conservation of blighted areas confirms the Mayor's contention that abandoned houses in Boston are a major impediment to the city-wide neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation program.

Work will be started this week on the demolition of thirty-five abandoned structures in Charlestown and twenty-five city-owned abandoned houses, acquired through tax foreclosure, located in other sections of the city. It is the hope of the Mayor that before winter sets in the hundreds of abandoned houses scattered throughout the older sections of the city will be razed at the rate of at least fifteen per week.

Efforts will be made as the demolition program progresses to induce local builders and financial institutions to replace the antiquated houses with modern low-priced single- and multiple-family dwelling units. Leaders of lending institutions and building contractors have already expressed interest in participating in such an operation. Many of the sites will, of course, be more suitable for industrial use and the matter of re-use will be studied by the Boston Real Property Department, the City Planning Board, and the Boston Housing Authority.

It is the Mayor's belief that just as soon as the Legislature recognizes the necessity of relieving the tax burden now being imposed on Boston real estate and takes the necessary steps to relieve it that investment capital will again flow freely into Boston and that many of the vacant lots in the older sections of the city which can now be purchased at low price will be eagerly sought for building purposes. Studies show that in all of these sections there is a constant demand for good housing with none available. In districts like Charlestown there hasn't been a new house built, except public housing projects in more than fifty years.

TWO IMPORTANT CITY POSTS FILLED DURING PAST WEEK

The Board of Schoolhouse Commissioners on September 27, appointed, and the Mayor approved, Charles A. Callanan to be the Superintendent of Construction in the School Buildings Department, effective October 15.

Mr. Callanan has been Building Commissioner for the City of Boston for the past two years. He is described by Mayor Hynes as a highly-competent qualified engineer. Prior to becoming Building

Commissioner, he was a Deputy Superintendent of Construction in the School Buildings Department. At his own request, he is returning to the Schoolhouse Department to replace James H. Mooney, deceased.

Effective October 15, Thomas J. Hughes, of 114 Princeton street, East Boston, will be the Building Commissioner of the City of Boston, replacing Mr. Charles Callanan.

Mr. Hughes is forty years of age. He is married and has two children. At the present time Mr. Hughes is a State Building Inspector in the Department of Public Safety and his duties in that position are comparable with the duties he will perform as Building Commissioner. Prior to his service in the state, Mr. Hughes was employed by the Building Department of the City of Boston where he served from 1947 to 1955 as an Egress Inspector, Construction Inspector, and Assistant Chief Egress Inspector. FIRE DEPARTMENT MAKES ELABORATE PLANS FOR OBSERVANCE OF FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 7 to October 13, 1956, inclusive. Mayor John B. Hynes has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week:

"Fire Prevention Week should bring forcibly to the mind of everyone the causes of fire and a forcible correction wherever they may be. The history of fire is replete with information of how fires have started, and so unnecessarily. With very little effort and forethought an acknowledgment that what caused a fire elsewhere can start a fire again should warrant the individual to look around and eliminate the breeder of fire. Neglect of heating devices, failure to remove frayed cords, irregularities in the fuses and electrical equipment cause many fires. If one allows rubbish to accumulate, it can one day bring the fire engines to the door. Fire Prevention Week alerts to checking one's own domain. This is the week for the individual to make a fire prevention inspection of his own premises and correct the hazards of fire."

An organized campaign to emphasize the importance of fire prevention is being undertaken by the Boston Fire Department by means of a series of activities, concentrated into the Fire Prevention Week period.

Fire stations shall be open to the public between the hours of 12 noon and 8 P.M. for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning the Fire Department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer, who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the quarters and to answer questions regarding the department, or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

Children under twelve years of age should not be allowed in the fire station unless accompanied by adults.

Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years, and it is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday to Saturday.

District fire chiefs are required to take an active interest in the fire prevention program in the following manner:

By arranging special visits to plants and large industrial premises in their districts during the week and holding, or causing a company officer to hold, a special fire drill during Fire Prevention Week, particularly where there are fire brigades already existing. Notices of the date of the fire drill held and the rating of the drill as either "Fair," "Poor," or "Good" should be forwarded to the Fire Prevention Division on or before October 22, so that a summary may be made of the number and location of industrial fire drills conducted in the City of Boston during Fire Prevention Week on each day of the week.

All public and private schools within each district should be visited by a district fire chief or such officer as may be detailed by the district fire chief to assist in this work. School fire drills are to be held, and permission should be obtained for the presentation of a five-minute talk on the subject of fire and fire prevention at an assembly of the pupils. Such talks should not be read from any manuscript or printed pamphlet, but should be delivered directly by the district fire chief or by some uniformed member of the Fire Department capable of presenting such a talk effectively and promptly.

Home inspection blanks should be provided to various school principals or head masters for distribution and collection by the teacher-fire councillor of the building. Collection of the filled-out home inspection blanks from teacher-councillors by the Fire Department is an important feature of the use of these forms and should not be neglected. A list of the schools from which such forms have been collected should be forwarded to the Fire Prevention Division on or before November 5.

Officers assigned by the district fire chief to deliver addresses in schools likewise should be assigned to attend Rotary Clubs, Kiwanis, Board of Trade, and other neighborhood and local organization functions, including women's club meetings, in the district held during the week, or, if no meeting is scheduled during the week, to attend any meeting held during the month of October. Chief officers should know the various representative social organizations in the community and should keep a list of them for reference at such times when fire prevention messages of importance to the community are to be conveyed to such organizations quickly. The name and address of such local organizations where talks were given should be forwarded to the Fire Prevention Division on or before November 1.

Throughout the week, all fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them in their coming to and going from daily work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulations, and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public expects uniformed members of the Fire Department to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in this subject, since they are public employees engaged in this field. Fire fighters, therefore, during Fire Prevention Week, should have this subject uppermost in their minds, and they should not pass by any fire hazard at any time without making a note of it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the Fire Department is a fire prevention inspector at all times.

MAYOR HYNES COMMENTS ON BOSTON CONSOLIDATED GAS CO. ABATEMENT CASE

Mayor John B. Hynes this week issued the following statement on the Boston Consolidated Gas Company tax appeal case:

I have just finished reading the forty-five-page, finely typewritten, opinion written by Chief Justice Raymond S. Wilkins of the Supreme Judicial Court, handed down earlier this week, involving the personal property taxes of the Boston Gas Company. I have also discussed the opinion with the Corporation Counsel, William L. Baxter, and with our special counsel, Lewis H. Weinstein, who represented the assessors before the Supreme Judicial Court and the Appellate Tax Board in this case.

The opinion of the Supreme Judicial Court fully upholds the action of the Appellate Tax Board, and in my judgment is a decisive victory for the city which opposed the Gas Company's appeal to the Full Court. While the city also appealed, the city's action was primarily nominal and technical, to defend the city's huge stake in the outcome of this case.

ORIGINAL DECISION HAILED

When the Appellate Tax Board handed down its decision on December 17, 1954, I hailed its action as a resounding success for the taxpayers of Boston. I then said: "We accept this decision with not only a measure of relief, but indeed with elation. This decision in fact is the first time we claim a victory in a substantial tax case." I am now delighted to hail the decision of the Supreme Judicial Court as another victory for Boston.

Because this case is so substantial in amount and so significant in its effect upon future valuations, I think that the public is entitled to a brief explanation. The case involves valuations of the underground system of the Gas Company and other personal property for the eight years beginning 1944 and ending 1951. The assessments had begun at $23,500,000 for 1944 and reached $26,500,000 in 1951. They totaled $207,500,000 for the eight years. The company claimed that the total assessments for the eight years should have been $63,214,000 and fought to recover more than $8,000,000 plus interest in cash abatements. After hearings lasting almost a year with thousands upon thousands of pages of exhibits and transcripts of testimony, the Board found that the total fair valuation was $179,500,000, or three times what the company claimed. The Board's decision for 1944 was $22,000,000 with the amounts increasing to $24,000,000 in 1951. In other words, the 1951 valuation as found by the Appellate Tax Board was higher by a half million dollars than the city's assessed valuation for 1944. The Board granted abatements of $1,425,750 or about one-fifth of the abatements that the Gas Company tried to obtain. The Board also disallowed the Gas Company's claim that millions of dollars of certain classes of property, including gas meters and governors and electric transformers and overhead wires, were tax exempt.

EXTREMELY COMPLEX CASE

The Gas Company appealed from the decision of the Appellate Tax Board and as Chief Justice Wilkins points out in his decision, the Gas Company's claims of error covered twenty-six pages of the printed record. Obviously the city had to resist the appeal. The case was the largest which the Appellate Tax Board had ever heard and one of the most substantial in documentation and amount the Supreme Judicial Court had ever heard. The issues were highly technical from the legal, accounting, and engineering points of view.

The masterful decision of the Supreme Judicial Court, with its detailed analysis of the issues in the case, upholds the Appellate Tax Board's action, its decisions on valuation and its findings that the property of the Gas Company which it claimed to be exempt was fully taxable.

The Board of Assessors and the Board of Review, together with the Corporation Counsel and Mr. Weinstein are considering the effect of this decision upon assessed valuations of $26,500,000 of the Gas Company's property for each of the five years 1952-1956, inclusive.

While the city still has the problem of finding funds to pay this abatement, at least I am relieved that it does not have to find five times this amount.

Again, I express my appreciation and that of the city to Mr. Weinstein, to Mr. Baxter and their associate, Mr. Jerome Preston, for their skillful and successful handling of an extremely complex and difficult case.

LIBRARY TO HAVE PANELS ON ELECTION ISSUES

For voters who wish to understand the basic issues involved on Election Day, three panel discussions on national and international affairs will be presented by the Boston Public Library in cooperation with Boston College, Boston University, and Brandeis University, on alternate Thursdays, October 4, 18, and November 1, at 8 P.M., at the Boston Public Library.

Prior to each program a questionnaire on National Affairs—Civil Rights, Education, Immigration, and Segregation; National Affairs—Economic; and International Affairs will be printed in the Boston newspapers, to poll the opinions of men and women of Greater Boston. The public will be requested to return the questionnaires, entitled Polling Bostonians on Public Issues, to the Boston Public Library so that the panelists may comment on the findings of the poll.

Harry M. Scoble, Coordinator of the Citizenship Project, Boston University, has prepared the questionnaires with the cooperation of Professor Paul T. Heffron, Chairman, Department of History and Government, Boston College. Professor Hugh S. Gibbs, Chairman, Department of Government, Boston University; and Professor Herbert Marcuse, Chairman, Department of Politics, Brandeis University.

Pointing up the basic principles to be voted upon on November 6, various viewpoints will be represented in the discussion of the questionnaire, with emphasis on background information and long-range implications.

On October 11, at 2 P.M., the questionnaire National Affairs—Economic will be discussed by guest speakers at the Central Library at a meeting of the Never Too Late Group. On October 25, at 8 P.M., the two questionnaires on National Affairs will be presented in a panel discussion at a meeting of the Friends of the Jamaica Plain Branch Library. The questionnaire on International Affairs will be discussed in another meeting of the Never Too Late Group on November 8, at 2 P.M.

A film program on the national government will be shown before each meeting of the series Polling

Bostonians on Public Issues, October 4, 11, and November 1, at 7.30 p.m., in the Preview Room of the Central Library. The schedule consists of Meet Your Federal Government on October 4; The Congress on October 18; and The President on November 1.

Furniture and Rugs

The Mayor, on September 27, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of three requisitions for furniture and rugs for the Long Island Hospital Division.

In order that the proper patterns, styles and colors be obtained, the Hospital Superintendent requested that the Superintendent of Nurses be allowed to select the items most suitable and within the budget allowance. The most satisfactory items were offered by William E. Tully, doing business as William E. Tully Company, 66 Canal street, Boston.

It is therefore requested that, in order that the above-mentioned items may be purchased in the most efficient manner and for the best interests of the city, permission be granted me to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to William E. Tully Company, for certain items of furniture and rugs as per specifications which will be included in the proposed contract.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $2,148, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Purchasing Agent.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

Dog Board

The Mayor, on September 27, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR SIR:

Your approval is respectfully requested for the City of Boston to enter into a contract with the Animal Rescue League of Boston for one year from October 1, 1956, under the following agreement:

The Animal Rescue League of Boston agrees, for the term of one year beginning October 1, 1956, to board for the necessary period of quarantine, all dogs which during said year may be quarantined at said Animal Rescue League by the City of Boston or by said corporation at the direction of the City of Boston; and the Animal Rescue League further agrees for the said term of one year from October 1, 1956, to perform the work necessary for complete rabies control in the City of Boston such as the Health Department of said city may designate for the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000).

The Animal Rescue League has been performing this work since 1941 to the entire satisfaction of the Boston Health Department, and the contract for the year just ending was approved on an identical basis. Inasmuch as this organization is the only one in Boston equipped to perform this service, your authorization to dispense with advertising is also requested.

Respectfully,

JOHN H. CAULEY, M.D.,
Health Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Maintaining Gas Lamps

The Mayor, on September 27, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The current six-months' contract with the American Service Company, of 253 Adams street, Dorchester, for the servicing and maintaining of the gas lamps used for street lighting purposes will terminate on next Sunday, September 30.

For the past several weeks, I have been conducting negotiations with Bernard A. Fitzgerald, President of the above-referenced company, in an effort to come to an agreement as to the unit price per lamp to be paid under a new contract to start on October 1 of this year and end on March 31 of 1957. We are eliminating gas lamps as fast as possible, and this is one of the reasons why Mr. Fitzgerald is not willing to undertake a new contract without an increase in the price of servicing and maintaining each unit. We have approximately 2,800 lamps in service, whereas on April 1, 1955, we were operating 3,300 lamps at the time that the current price of $22.63 per lamp was established. Mr. Fitzgerald claims that the reduction in lamps, plus the fact that all of his costs have increased, makes it mandatory for him to get at least $25 per lamp on any new contract. I do not feel that the city can do any better, as it would be impossible, in my opinion, to obtain publicly advertised bids for this type of servicing, as the American Service Company is the only organization in this area that performs this type of work, as practically all of the cities have eliminated gas lamps.

Incidentally, we have removed approximately 3,600 gas lamps since 1950 and replaced them with modern electric street lights. This program will continue and, as stated, we are eliminating gas lamps with as much expedition as possible.

In view of the circumstances, I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the American Service Company, of 253 Adams street, Dorchester, for the servicing, maintaining and equipping of gas lamps located in the streets of this city, for the period from October 1, 1956, to March 31, 1957, at an agreed price of $25 per lamp per year. It is estimated that the cost of the above-referenced contract will not exceed $17,500 for the period from October 1 to December 31 of the current year; and it is further estimated that it will not exceed the sum of $17,000 for the first three months of 1957.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works,

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

New Boilers

The Mayor, on September 25, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On August 27, 1956, the boiler inspector ordered a considerable amount of work on both No. 1 and No. 2 boilers at the Haymarket Board of Health Building. The P. J. Riley Company was given an order to proceed with this work. During the progress of the work it was found that the shells of both boilers had deteriorated to such a degree that it would be impossible to weld same.

The P. J. Riley Company, after a thorough investigation, reported to this office that it would be, in their opinion, unwise to attempt to salvage these boilers, that the cost would be prohibitive and furthermore if they were given the work they could not guarantee any results, as these boilers are forty-eight years old.

They suggested two alternatives: 1, to install two new boilers. This cost to install two new horizontal return tubular boilers would be approximately $45,000. 2, to install a 150-horse power low-pressure York-Shipley steam generator, sufficient to heat the entire building, including a 5,000-gallon storage tank. This unit and oil storage tank to be installed in garage above boiler room. All necessary valves, piping, and pumps, necessary to make a proper working installation, in a sum not to exceed $20,000. This price to include all electrical work, cutting and patching and flue work. Work to be carried on continuously, including overtime, until work is completed.

In view of the fact that the heating season is at hand and the time element is an important factor, I therefore respectfully request permission to award a cost-plus contract, without advertising, to the P. J. Riley Company, to furnish and install one 150-horse power low-pressure York-Shipley steam generator with all necessary work to complete installation, in the sum of $20,000. This work to be done on a cost-basis plus 15 per cent for overhead and 10 per cent for profit.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Assistant Commissioner.

Violation Slips

The Mayor, on September 28, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR SIR:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 216 of the Acts of 1950, chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, I respectfully request permission to award a contract for traffic violation slips to Henry Rosnosky of 16 Lincoln street, Boston, without advertising, for the calendar year of 1957.

Mr. Rosnosky has furnished these violation slips to the court over a long period of years and expects to be able to deliver them on quick notice when slips are needed.

I am estimating at the present time that there will be needed five hundred thousand (500,000) sets of traffic violation slips in triplicate.

These slips are to cost ten dollars and eighteen cents ($10.18) per thousand sets, including one-time carbons, three slips to a set, or a total of five thousand and ninety dollars ($5,090). This represents an increase over the previous order of thirty-six cents ($0.36) per thousand sets in triplicate due to several increases in the cost of paper during the interval since they were last furnished.

Respectfully yours,

DANIEL J. LYNCH,
Clerk of the Court.

General Order No. 2,272.

The annual ball of the Boston Police Relief Association will be held in the Boston Garden, Monday evening, December 3, 1956.

The proceeds of the ball, as members of the department know, are added to the funds of the association and are used for the payment of sick and death benefits to members of the association and their families, which funds, at the present time, are insufficient to meet the demands made upon the association.

It is the desire of the commissioner, the superintendent, and the board of directors of the association that all members of the Force interest themselves and make a special effort to dispose of the tickets for the ball, and thereby make it such a success that the finances of the association will be put on a sound basis, so that the good work accomplished by the association in assisting its members in time of sickness or death since it was organized in 1871 may be continued.

The tickets for the ball will be distributed to each station by the treasurer, Lieut. Harrington B. Wyand, Division 2, who will receive a receipt therefor. Captains of divisions will distribute the tickets to their officers and keep a correct list of the number of tickets given to each man. Each officer will make a daily return to his captain of the number of tickets he has sold, together with the name and address of the purchaser, and will return the money received to his captain.

All officers will be held strictly responsible for tickets allotted to them.

Captains will collect each day all money received by officers in the sale of tickets. This money will be converted into a check, made payable to Harrington B. Wyand, treasurer, B.P.R.A., and forwarded to the superintendent by morning mail the following day. A correct list containing the ticket numbers, together with the names and addresses of purchasers of tickets, shall be kept on file at the various divisions. In this way, it is expected that a complete canvass of the city will be made and a substantial increase in the sale of tickets will be accomplished.

All tickets that remain unsold on December 4, 1956, will be collected by the captain of each division and returned to Lieutenant Wyand who will furnish a receipt therefor.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

THOMAS F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

October 1.

General Order No. 2,273.

The resignation of Sergt. Joseph E. Ahern of Division 16 having been presented, it is hereby accepted, to take effect Monday, October 1, 1956, at 7.45 o'clock A.M.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

You are hereby notified that I have accepted the resignation of Leonard Linsky, of 247 Walnut avenue, Roxbury, as a constable, authorized to serve civil process, effective September 13, 1956.

REPAIR OF PIER AT COMMERCIAL BEACH.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 18, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation concerning your order of August 20, 1956, relative to repairing or reconstructing and maintaining the lower section of the pier located at Commercial Beach, so called, in the North End section of the City of Boston.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
September 10, 1956.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

I have your memo of August 22 with inclosure, copy of Councilor Piemonte's order as follows:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Parks and Recreation Commission to repair or reconstruct and maintain the lower section of the pier located at Commercial Beach, so called, in the North End section of the City of Boston.

We gave up repairing this structure sometime ago as repairs could not keep pace with the destruction done by vandals. The work of repairing it would be very costly, and we have no money in our budget for this purpose. The pier has been closed for some years and must remain closed pending a decision to do a major reconstruction job with funds appropriated from the Capital Improvement appropriation, or to tear it all down.

Very truly yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Commissioner.

Coun PIEMONTE in the chair.

The Chair referred the message and communication to the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation for specific instances of vandalism for each year.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT FIRTH ROAD, WASHINGTON, AND SOUTH STREETS, AND LEE HILL ROAD.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 18, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner concerning your order of August 27, 1956, relative to the installation of pedestrian-controlled traffic lights at the intersection of Firth road, Washington street, South street, and Lee Hill road in Ward 19.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
September 12, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Referring to the City Council order dated August 27 requesting the installation of a pedestrian-controlled traffic signal at Firth road, Washington street, South street, and Lee Hill road in Ward 19, I submit the following comments:

I have had several requests for signals in this vicinity especially since the opening of a large super market on Washington street opposite Bexley road.

There is a large playground at the intersection of Firth road and Washington street and in addition there is a bus stop at each side of Washington street, at Firth road. Accordingly, this is a suitable location for a pedestrian flasher signal and we are adding it to our list of locations where signals should be installed.

The date upon which action may be expected in this matter is dependent upon the date and size of our next appropriation for traffic signals, which appropriation, as you know, comes to us periodically from the proceeds of the sale of land and buildings. Therefore, while I cannot give a definite promise as to when this work will be done, I can give assurance of our knowledge of the need of the installation and our desire to accomplish this project as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

WM. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

EMERGENCY LOAN FOR DEMOLITION OF DILAPIDATED AND ABANDONED STRUCTURES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 24, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am informed that the state officials who must approve the emergency loan for $500,000, now pending before your Honorable Body, cannot act upon the loan until such time as the City Council has given this loan order its second and final reading and until such time as the loan order is approved by the Mayor.

In view of this development, I respectfully request that your Honorable Body give the emergency loan for $500,000 for the demolition of dilapidated and abandoned structures its second reading.

At the present time the program for the demolition of these type of structures must necessarily stop because of lack of funds. The Director of Demolition informs me that no federal assistance, which could amount to two-thirds of the cost of the program, will be forthcoming unless the city first makes an appropriation for this purpose.

Therefore, in order that there may not be any further delay in the demolishing of dangerous structures in our city, and so that we may appeal for federal funds to aid in this work, I earnestly hope that the loan order before your Honorable Body will be passed.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

TRANSFER OF APPROPRIATION TO URBAN RENEWAL PROGRAM.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 21, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am requested by the Boston Housing Authority to forward an order to your Honorable Body for an appropriation of $10,000 for the completion of the preparation of plans and estimates for the submission of applications for planning advances to the federal government, involving two or more urban renewal projects.

This appropriation is necessary in order to continue the services of planners who are now employed. There is great difficulty in obtaining city planners and it is, therefore, most desirable that this appropriation be made available in order that we may continue the services of qualified planners who are now working in the Housing Authority.

The communication of the Housing Authority in full explanation of this matter is attached herewith.

I respectfully request passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Boston Housing Authority,
September 19, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

This Authority has voted to respectfully request that your Honor submit to the City Council an order requesting the appropriation of an additional $10,000 for the completion of the preparation of plans and estimates for the submission of applications for planning advances to the federal government for two or more urban renewal projects, in accordance with section 260 and 26BBB of chapter 121 of the General Laws.

The sum of $10,000 originally appropriated by the City Council on January 9, 1956, has been expended as follows:

The application for a planning advance from the federal government for the South Cove urban renewal project has been completed. Application will be submitted to the federal government when a resolution is adopted by the City Council authorizing the filing of the application.

The preparation of an application for a planning advance from the federal government for the Charlestown-State Prison urban renewal project is approximately 50 per cent completed.

The selection of a pilot rehabilitation project area for an urban renewal project of the rehabilitation type is now being made. A preliminary screening of potential areas is being undertaken, with the assembling and evaluating of information needed for this determination. After the selection of the pilot rehabilitation urban renewal project area is made, an application will be prepared for submission to the federal government for a planning advance for this project.

As of the week of September 17, 1956, the original $10,000 appropriation has been depleted. This appropriation was used to employ a chief planner, an associate city planner, and a part-time planner. The additional $10,000 will pay for the services of this personnel for another six months.

There is an extreme shortage of city planners. It is of extreme importance to the urban renewal program to retain this specialized personnel. The Authority hoped to be able to retain these planners with funds from an application for a planning advance for the final planning phase of the Mattapan project, which is now pending before the federal government. Unfortunately, the processing of the application has been delayed.

It is the judgment of the Authority that the retention of these technical employees is of vital importance to the urban renewal program in order to complete the applications for two or more urban renewal project planning advances so that Boston will be able to take advantage of at least $10,000,000 in capital grants which has been pledged by the federal government for the renewal of our city.

Your Honor is respectfully urged to take immediate action because of the urgency of this matter.

A copy of the original appropriation order is enclosed for your convenience.

Respectfully yours,

F. A. CRONIN, Chairman.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of section 3B of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, as amended by chapter 604 of the Acts of 1941, the city Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund, $10,000, to the appropriation for Urban Renewal Program, $10,000.

TRANSFER OF LAND IN HYDE PARK TO COMMISSIONER OF REAL PROPERTY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 17, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication of Commissioner George G. Hyland of the Public Works Department recommending the transfer of the property at 11 Thatcher street, Hyde Park, to the Real Property Department.

I enclose proposed form of order whereby this property may be transferred from the care, custody, control, and management of the Public Works Department to the care, custody, control, and management of the Commissioner of Real Property.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
September 14, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston,

and City Council,
Boston Mass.

Gentlemen:

At the present time, this department has under its jurisdiction a lot of land located at 11 Thatcher street, Hyde Park, containing 8,025 square feet.

It is marked as lot 63 on plate 14 of the Hyde Park Atlas.

The property came into the possession of this department with the annexation of Hyde Park. It is no longer needed by the department, and I suggest, therefore, that it be transferred to the Real Property Department and sold at public auction.

Respectfully,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner in fee of approximately eight thousand twenty-five (8,025) square feet of vacant land situated on the northerly side of Thatcher street, being numbered 11 in the numbering of said Thatcher street in the Hyde Park district of the City of Boston, held by the city for Public Works Department purposes; and

Whereas, The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston has determined that the above-mentioned parcel of land is no longer required for Public Works Department purposes; and

Whereas, The Real Property Board desires to sell said parcel of land at public auction; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the above-mentioned parcel of land be, and the same hereby is, transferred from the care, custody, control and management of the Public Works Department to the care, custody, control and management of the Commissioner of Real Property.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

SALE OF LAND ON COMMONWEALTH AND CHESTNUT HILL AVENUES, BRIGHTON.

The following was received:

City of Boston,

Office of the Mayor, September 14, 1956.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication received from Frank R. Kelley, Commissioner, Parks and Recreation Department, relative to a proposed sale of 64,335 square feet of land at the junction of Commonwealth and Chestnut Hill avenues for sale at public auction at an upset price of $160,000.

Since the Parks and Recreation Department has determined that the land is no longer required for park or playground purposes, I submit herewith order whereby the City of Boston may sell this land at public auction at an upset price of $160,000.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,

Parks and Recreation Department,

July 19, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

At a meeting of the Parks and Recreation Commission held at the office of the Commission on Wednesday, July 18, 1956, consideration was given to the proposed sale of land owned by this department at the junction of Commonwealth and Chestnut Hill avenues.

Previously, on February 18, 1955, the Commission voted that before taking any action on the sale of this land, the Law Department be requested to ascertain from other city departments if any one of them was interested in acquiring the land. The departments reported that they had no interest in it.

The land is of no further use to this department for park or playground purposes. The entire tract contains approximately 66,762 square feet, but it was decided that an area of 2,427 square feet, on the easterly tip of the tract, be retained by the city for the purpose of widening the two intersecting streets.

The Law Department then retained Earle R. Barnard, 232 Bay State road, Boston, to make an appraisal of the remaining parcel, an area of approximately 64,335 square feet. The appraiser has submitted an estimate of $2.50 per square foot, or approximately $160,000, as a minimum fair market value for this property.

Accordingly, at the meeting of the Commission on July 18, it was voted to request your Honor to draw an order on the City Council asking authority to offer this tract of land at the junction of Commonwealth and Chestnut Hill avenues, containing approximately 64,335 square feet, for sale at public auction at an upset price of $160,000.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

Whereas, The City of Boston owns in fee a certain parcel of land containing approximately sixty-four thousand three hundred thirty-five (64,335) square feet situate at the northwesterly corner of Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut Hill avenue in the Brighton district; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land is now in the custody, care and control of the Parks and Recreation Commission of the City of Boston and the said Parks and Recreation Commission has declared the said parcel of land is no longer required for any public purpose; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Parks and Recreation Commission of the City of Boston be, and it hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of one hundred sixty thousand dollars ($160,000) the aforesaid parcel of land, hereinafter described; and it is hereby further Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to execute and deliver to the purchaser at said public auction a written instrument satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston conveying all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to said parcel of land, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue, then running southeasterly by the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue, four hundred seventeen and 44/100 (417.44) feet; thence turning and running southeasterly and southwesterly by the southwesterly line of Chestnut Hill avenue and the northerly line of Commonwealth avenue, one hundred seven and 99/100 (107.99) feet in a radius of forty and 07/100 (40.07) (radius - 40.07) feet; then running southwesterly by the northeasterly line of Commonwealth avenue, by one measurement, three hundred ninety-three and 61/100 (393.61) feet in a radius of two thousand four hundred (radius - 2,400) feet; thence turning and running northeasterly to the point of beginning by lands now or formerly of Grace D. Allen and William S. Heath, by two measurements, forty-nine and 65/100 (49.65) and one hundred seventy-six and 96/100 (176.96) feet, respectively; containing sixty-four thousand three hundred thirty-five (64,335) square feet of land, more or less. Said parcel of land and all of said measurements are shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Commonwealth avenue and Chestnut Hill avenue, Brighton, June 1, 1914, F. O. Whitney, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department" and revised to show proposed street widening June 22, 1956.

Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON SCHOOL COSTS.

The following was received:

The Finance Commission of the City of Boston,
September 14, 1956.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council:
At the beginning of another school year, during which the School Committee must make policy decisions which carry cost as well as educational implications, and include the subject of a revision of the Rules of the Committee, the Finance Commission wishes to submit pertinent data. In particular, attention is called to questions of personnel administration.

YEAR	Administration	Instruction	Building Operation	Auxiliary Service	Fixed Charges
1950.....	$1,037,751	$17,939,777	$2,465,914	$1,205,444	$214,898
1955.....	967,669	20,106,297	3,108,312	788,474	565,391

It is also possible to determine how Boston's level of per capita expenditure in the various functional categories compares with that of the larger cities of the country during this period, by using the comparative data published by the Federal Office of Education which shows the per capita expenditures under the following six headings: Administration (general, educational, and business); Instruction; Operation of the Buildings; Maintenance of the Buildings; Auxiliary Services (including Medical, Nursing, Cafeteria Services); Fixed Charges (including Pension Funds, Insurance, and Rents); Capital Outlay and Debt Service are not included in this federal document.

An examination of this inter-city data for 1950 and 1955 produces the following conclusions, when Boston is compared with 14 of the largest cities of the country (New York, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, New Orleans, Washington, Milwaukee, Cleveland, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati).

Both in 1950 and 1955, Boston ranked highest in per pupil expenditure for Administration, although the amount declined in 1955, whereas it increased in the case of most other cities. Boston was third highest in the category of Instruction in both years. It was eighth highest in 1950 and the seventh highest in 1955 in the cost of Operation of Buildings. It shows even a better standing in this category when the comparison is limited to cities in the northeast section of the country.

In the category of Maintenance of Buildings, Boston was seventh highest in 1950, and third highest in 1955. In Auxiliary Services, it was third highest in 1950 and fifth highest in 1955.

Boston is at the bottom of the list in the category of Fixed Charges in both years; but this comparison has no validity because the figure for Boston does not include the pensions paid by the City government, whereas the figures for most of the other cities include that amount.

As the federal publication cautions, however, these figures do not relate to the quality, efficiency, or adequacy of the educational program; they simply show the level of expenditure. However, it appears that Boston has, at least since 1950, the first year in which Boston submitted data on this functional basis, observed a relatively high level of expenditure in Administration and Instruction; and that the per capita expenditure for Maintenance of Buildings and Auxiliary Services is relatively high.

The Salary Item.

The principal item of expenditure in the school system, of course, is that for salaries; for several years this has represented about 90 per cent of the cost. Expenditures for salaries rose from $20,468,509 in 1950 to $23,664,546 in 1955.

Increases in salary levels, rather than increases in the number of personnel are the primary reason for the increase in this item. In general, there has been a downward revision in the size of the staff as the school system has contracted. However, an examination of the staff size at the end of 1950 and 1955, including vacancies and expansions, shows areas where there has been an increase of staff, as follows:

Staff Increases (1950-1955).

In the area of General Administration, there was an increase of ten clerks in the Secretary's Office. In Educational Administration an increase of two assistants in the Superintendent's Office, two supervisors in the Office of Supervisors of Attendance, and one supervisor in the Office of Licensed Minors.

In the area of Instruction, Educational Direction and Supervision, there was an increase of two clerks in the Adult Education and Recreation Activities, an increase of three professionals and three clerks in the Division of Educational Investigation and Measurement, four professionals and one clerk in the Division of Juvenile Adjustment, one assistant director in the Division of Expenditure Levels.

The central fact in the situation surrounding the Boston School System is that of shrinking size paralleled by increasing costs.

The decline in pupil enrollment started as far back as 1935; in fact, there are approximately 50,000 fewer pupils in the schools today than in that year. During the same period costs increased approximately $9,000,000.

Rather than analyze the long period since 1935 with respect to expenditures, it seems advisable to consider the more immediate past, the period since 1950.

During this period the pupil load has shrunk by some 3,000, the number of teachers, supervisors, and directors by approximately 200, and the number of buildings by approximately 30. On the other hand, the outlay in dollars in that period, 1950-55, for purposes controlled by the School Committee increased from $23,452,544 to $27,396,633. This does not include the outlay for repair and construction of buildings.

The following table shows the expenditures in several functional categories for these two years:

YEAR	Administration	Instruction	Building Operation	Auxiliary Service	Fixed Charges
1950.....	$1,037,751	$17,939,777	$2,465,914	$1,205,444	$214,898
1955.....	967,669	20,106,297	3,108,312	788,474	565,391

Music, three supervisors in Physical Education, and one director and one clerk in the Division of Business Education.

In the area of Special Education, there was an increase of one teacher each in Speech Improvement and the Clerical School and in the Godwin School, and an increase of four in the Day School for Immigrants.

In the Division of Adult Education and Recreational Activities, expenditures for salaries connected with the programs moved with the change in average membership both in the Evening Schools and the Summer Review School. However, in the case of school centers, the salary expenditures went from $60,699 in 1950 to $130,292 in 1955, while the average membership in the centers changed little, moving from 2,702 to 2,795 in the same period.

Suggested Offset to Outside Use of School Accommodations.

As an offset to the increasing expenditure for Outside Use of Schools (salary expenditure rose from $33,619 to $37,161 in the 1950 to 1955 period) the following quote from the Finance Commission Report of February 7, 1956, on the general subject of fees is pertinent:

"Civic, fraternal, philanthropic and educational groups are permitted to use hall and gymnasiums in schools without a fee except when admission is charged for the event. Some other groups are permitted to use the facilities upon payment of a fee. The fee consists of the estimated cost of the salaries paid to the custodians assigned to the school for the hours of occupancy involved in the use. The reasoning behind this custodial basis appears to be that the larger schools will produce the heavier fee since the size of the custodial staff will vary directly with the size of the school."

"However, the history of the fee levied for the use of school facilities shows that a higher fee was set up four years ago than is now charged. In 1952 the Superintendent of Schools was requested by the then School Committee to make a report on the cost of the operation of school facilities as the basis of a fee for nonschool use. He appointed a committee of school officials, including the Chief Custodian. The report recommended a fee of $75 for high school and junior high school halls. The School Committee increased the figure to $90. This fee was in effect for only a month."

"The Committee then appointed a subcommittee of its membership to reconsider the subject. The latter decided that the estimated custodial cost during the hours of use should constitute the fee. No provision is made for the cost of heat and light."

"A review of the paid uses of school facilities by nonschool groups during 1955 shows there were 350 uses. The following samples are indicative of the use and the fee paid:

	Fee
Use of 14 classrooms for civil service examinations for 5½ hours.....	$45.00
Use of high school hall for talent show for 4½ hours.....	50.00
Use of high school hall for lecture for 3½ hours.....	35.25
Use of cafeteria for breakfast for 3 hours..	30.00

"Fee schedules should be based on all the elements of cost involved in the use of school facilities."

Auxiliary Services.

The quantitative factors involved in the determination of staff requirements in Auxiliary Services would appear to be:

1) Pupil Load and 2) Number of Buildings. The following table shows the size of staff in these services in relation to those factors. School nurses are replacing medical aides, and they should be considered jointly.

	June 30, 1950	June 30, 1955
School Physicians.....	54	56
Supervisors of Attendance.....	33	37
School Nurses.....	63	66
School Medical Aides.....	16	11
Pupil Enrollment as of September.....	91,577	88,553
Number of School Buildings.....	234	207

In a report published January, 1955, a Survey by the Jacobs Company found that the staffs of Supervisors of Attendance and School Physicians were unduly large.

Whereas, the report recommended higher salaries for the physicians, it recommended lower starting salaries for the Supervisors of Attendance.

Custodial

The inauguration of the 40-hour work week in the early 1950's increased the size of the custodial staff; at present, there are about 70 more personnel than in 1950. However, the custodial strength as of July 10, 1956, which was 483, is within the maximum of 490 allowed in the maximum manpower needs set out in the Jacobs' Survey.

A pertinent finding in the Jacobs' Report which points in the direction of personnel savings states that custodial manpower needs can be reduced by an estimated 10 per cent, operating at present service levels, if operations are fully mechanized.

YEAR	Number of Elementary Buildings	Submasters	Vice-Principals
June, 1950.....	184	73	135
June, 1955.....	160	72	136

(Figures from Annual Statistics of Boston Public Schools)

These statistics raise the question of a lack of adjustment to reduced size of the elementary building system.

The Strayer Report contained the following observation:

"Some principals have more than one submaster or vice-principal in the main building (of the district), which hardly seems necessary."

According to the 1956 Manual of the School Committee this condition still obtains in some districts.

Increase in Salary Levels.

As previously indicated, it is the increase in salary levels, rather than an increase in staff which accounts primarily for the approximately $3,000,000 increase in the salary item between 1950 and 1955. The changing salary levels may be indicated broadly by citing the over-all increases given during this period. They include the following:

- September 1, 1950 — $204 increase to all teachers.
- September 1, 1951 — $264 increase to all teachers and civil service employees.
- September 1, 1952 — $120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and junior high teachers.
- September 1, 1953 — $120 increase to high school teachers; $180 to elementary and junior high teachers.
- September 1, 1954 — $5 increase per week to civil service employees.

Conclusions.

The foregoing data, taken largely from published reports of the School Committee has been correlated to point up certain trends in the school picture, and warrant the following observations.

The level of expenditure for the school system is, per capita, relatively high among the larger cities of the country in several functional categories.

Although there has been a general contraction, in the size of staff as the dimensions of the school system have shrunk, there are some areas where an increase has taken place or a lack of downward adjustment is indicated.

The principal reason for the increase in the cost of the school system is found in the personnel item, particularly in the series of changes in the salary schedule.

The Finance Commission does not presume to pass on the propriety of any salary range, but it is concerned with the procedures involved. There is a lack of stability in the salary schedule. The evaluation of many positions, as expressed in the salary schedule, has changed several times since 1950 as has the relationship to other positions. More or less of a chain reaction of demand among the several segments of school personnel seems to have developed. For instance, in February 1956, 80 petitions from various groups and individuals among school personnel were filed with the Board of Salary Adjustment (composed of six superintendents). The latter's recommendations were then translated into a Revised Schedule and transmitted to the School Committee.

Another aspect is that relating to the budgetary process. A rule of the School Committee adopted July 7, 1953, provides

"Annually on or before the second Monday of March, in each year, the School Committee shall determine what, if any, increases and reductions in the compensation of employees of the school department shall be provided for in the annual budget."

The effect of this rule would be to prevent the August salary scramble; however, if this rule is suspended, its salutary effect may be nullified.

In view of all the foregoing data, the Finance Commission believes that the School Committee should:

- 1) Explore all areas for further possibilities of adjusting the size of staff to the pupil load and other pertinent factors, where educationally possible, and weigh carefully the recommendations of the Strayer and the Jacobs Surveys that make for personnel savings;
- 2) For the purpose of stabilizing the salary schedule and achieving one which is objectively sound and detached from pressures, determine the proper evaluation of positions, after a study by the Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Personnel. This should resemble the type of classification and pay plan prepared for other segments of municipal personnel.
- 3) Personnel practice ought to conform to the following principles of a salary policy, enunciated in the Strayer Report:
 - 1) "A salary policy ought to define a comprehensive, long-term payment plan.
 - 2) "Salary policy has to be expressed first in terms of a basic schedule for the rank and file of the teaching personnel."
 - 3) The Strayer Report endorsed the single salary schedule which "requires that teachers of equivalent educational preparation be paid equal salaries and be advanced equally in terms of step increments for satisfactory service, regardless of the educational level of the school or grade in which they teach.
 - 4) "The salary grades for administrative, supervisory and special service groups should be considered differentiations from the basic salary schedule, related to it, as well as to each other, by definitely known measures determined upon as a matter of policy. . . . It is only those personnel assignments which represent definitely heavier responsibility, strategically greater values to the schools, special and extensive preparation, special difficulties of procurement, and the like which need to be accompanied by salary grades differentiated from the basic.
 - 5) "Certainly, the office in the Boston School System which is functionally responsible for the research and leadership in the salary field should be engaged in a detailed study of the cost of living factor. This is not something that can be done by a board around the table.
 - 6) "Assign to an assistant superintendent the definite functional responsibility for the development of instructional salary policy. . . . Administrative responsibility for and leadership in the developmental tasks ahead with respect to salaries are simply not in the province of boards.

(An assistant superintendent has been appointed to head up instructional personnel management; but a Salary Adjustment Board considers salary revisions.)

7) "Salaries will be computed automatically from schedules set up after job analysis, thus obviating time-consuming and morale-destroying special pleading.

8) "Clerical salary policy should be unified and coordinated throughout the school system."

Leadership in this task belongs with the assistant superintendent in charge of personnel." (This last recommendation has not been adopted).

Whereas, Said site at present is without a single flower, tree or shrub, and undeveloped in any way; and

Whereas, Formerly this park was widely used and greatly enjoyed by the people of Brighton; and

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS AND FINANCE.

Coun. FOLEY for the Committee on Appropriations and Finance, submitted the following:

On the message of the Mayor and order (referred August 27) for loan of $500,000 for demolition of abandoned and dilapidated structures—submits the following report:

Your committee met on Friday, September 21, 1956, concerning this appropriation.

Present were the Health Commissioner, the Director of Demolition, the Building Commissioner and others.

As a result of the hearing, it appears that

1) 34 buildings have been marked for immediate demolition.

2) While the need for much demolition of buildings is known to all, an orderly and intelligent direction of the effort is equally necessary. The present plan calls for a director with but one assistant who will coordinate the efforts of the Fire, Building and Health departments in processing buildings for demolition. Final authority in ordering demolition rests with the Building and Health Commissioners who will condemn buildings and oversee the letting of contracts.

Whether this is the optimum organizational arrangement is an open question.

Your committee feels that the co-ordination necessary for success in this program might well be from a higher echelon which leads to

3) This program clearly should be an integral part of an Urban Renewal Program, out of which substantial financing might come from federal sources and also the rehabilitation of neighborhoods must proceed hand in hand with an intelligent demolition program.

Rehabilitation plus intelligent yet expeditious demolition should obviously be part of the Urban Renewal program the city so desperately needs.

Your committee recommends that some moneys be immediately appropriated for this program. The exact amount to be determined after further discussion in the executive session of this Council.

To provide a statistical basis for this consideration in executive we note

1) 34 buildings have presently been marked for demolition.

2) The average cost of demolition of a structure is slightly in excess of $1,000.

3) The Director of Demolition hopes to process 10 to 15 buildings a week from now on.

4) There are about 450 unoccupied structures according to Building Department survey of May, 1956.

NEW COMPENSATION AND CLASSIFICATION PLAN FOR COUNTY EMPLOYEES SUBMITTED TO CITY COUNCIL

A new Classification and Compensation Plan for the officers and employees of Suffolk County, submitted by Duncan T. Foley, Supervisor of Personnel, was forwarded to the City Council on October 8 by Mayor John B. Hynes.

This wage and salary proposal is now under consideration by the Executive Committee of the Council. It was presented as the result of a study of personnel in the county departments similar to the study made for the employees of the city departments.

In his message to the Council Mayor Hynes stated as follows:

" . . . Under the prevailing statutes, any changes in the Compensation and Classification Plan for county employees must be proposed by the Supervisor of Personnel. The latter official has given time and study to the so-called Evans report and has discussed with each of the county officials the schedules proposed by Mr. Evans. The proposal forwarded to your Honorable Body differs, in some degree, from the schedule arrived at by Mr. Evans.

"I favor the adoption of the proposal as submitted by the Supervisor of Personnel, which will be put into effect as of October 1, 1956, after consideration and approval by your Honorable Body."

Following is the text of the order as submitted to the Council:

MAYOR EXPRESSES HOPE FOR COME-BACK OF POST

Mayor Hynes, on October 4, issued the following statement on the suspension from publication of the Boston Post:

In company with the more than a quarter of a million devoted readers of the Boston Post, I deeply regret its suspension from publication.

The Post has been a fixture, a vibrant part of our community life for over 100 years. It is held in deep affection by thousands of individuals and thousands of families. It will be sorely missed, even though the suspension of publication may be temporary.

I feel strongly that the Boston community is big enough to support the Boston Post, and it will support it in large numbers and increasing numbers, if new, enterprising capital will take over its assets. This, I hope, will happen.

The Boston Post, with its 800 loyal employees, and with its homelike appeal to many hundreds of thousands of readers, can be given new life. Certainly, there must be someone, some group, which will realize the possibilities and potentialities of the Post, and take it over. If this is done, a community need will be met, and a community asset will be preserved. The Post is old, it has had its troubles, but it is not dead. It can be revived to again be the great morning newspaper of our community.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT.

Voting Machines

The Mayor has approved the action of the Board of Election Commissioners in the purchase of 45 voting machines, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I wish to advise you that a meeting of the Board of Election Commissioners held on August 1, 1956, after bids had been received from the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation and Group Voting Machine Corporation of New York for the purchase of forty-five (45) manually-operated machines; the Board of Election Commissioners voted unanimously to purchase 45 manually-operated voting machines from the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation at the price of $1,529 per machine, f.o.b. Jamestown, New York; the Group Machine bid was $1,748 per machine, f.o.b. Canton, Ohio. The Automatic Voting Machine Corporation submitted the lowest bid per machine.

Respectfully yours,

DAVID LASKER,
Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Sewerage Works

The Mayor, on October 3, approved the award of a contract for sewerage works in Wilmot street, West Roxbury, to N. Bevilacqua & Son, 11 Taftthill terrace, Roslindale, the second lowest bidder, in the estimated amount of $3,379, using clay pipe for sewer and concrete pipe for surface drain.

The E. M. White Corporation has requested, in writing, that its proposal in the amount of $2,135.20 be rejected as it made an error in estimating costs when submitting its bid in the above sum, adding that this figure of $2,135.20 in no way even approaches a fair price for the work. Inasmuch as our engineer's estimate for the work was in the sum of $5,066, it is quite apparent that the $2,135.20 price is an abnormally low one for the subject work and does not represent a circumstance of which the city ought to take advantage, nor do I feel that to do so would be in the best interests of the city, and propose that the bid of E. M. White Corporation, in the sum of $2,135.20, be rejected.

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed December 1, 1956. The following bids were received September 19, 1956, after advertising in the City Record of September 8, 1956:

Clay Pipe.—E. M. White Corporation, $2,135.20; N. Bevilacqua & Sons, $3,379; Annese Brothers, Inc., $3,678.05; Bagarella Construction Company, Inc., $3,831.50; R. A. Buccella & Sons, Inc., $4,546.50; Edward Vozzella, $4,876; Roslindale Construction Company, $5,574; Minot Construction Company, $6,869.25.
Concrete Pipe.—E. M. White, $2,135.20; N. Bevilacqua & Sons, $3,379; Annese Brothers, Inc., $3,971.05; Bagarella Construction Company, Inc., $3,802.20; R. A. Buccella & Sons, Inc., $4,455; Edward Vozzella, $4,575; Roslindale Construction Company, $5,427.50; Minot Construction Company, $6,869.25.

Automotive Equipment

The Mayor, on October 2, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On September 12, 1956, your Honor granted permission to award contracts for various items of automotive equipment on which bids were publicly opened and read in this office on August 2, 1956. Inasmuch as the specifications and bids received on all items were very complicated, the thirty-day acceptance period provided for in the proposal expired before your approval was received. One of the bidders included in the permission of award, Stilphen Motor Company, refused to accept the proposed contract. Copy of refusal is attached.

It is now requested that permission be granted me to dispense with further advertising and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Hoover Motors, Inc., for eighteen (18) new 1956 Ford, F-600, dump trucks, with three-yard bodies, at $49,141.84, less trade-in allowance on eighteen (18) used units—$3,150; twenty (20) new 1956 Ford, F-750, dump trucks, with three-yard bodies, at $78,286.37, less trade-in allowance on twenty-two (22) used units—$3,850, nine (9) new 1956 Ford, F-750, dump trucks, with twelve-yard bodies, at $41,546.94, less trade-in allowance on ten (10) used units—$1,350. Total amount of contract after trade-in allowances will be $160,607.12 less 2 per cent discount for payment within 30 days.

Hoover Motors, Inc., was the next lowest bidder to Stilphen Motor Company on the publicly opened bid for these units on August 2, 1956. All prices and specifications will be the same as those submitted by Hoover Motors, Inc., on the publicly opened bid of August 2, 1956.

Respectfully yours,

EUGENE K. WELSH,
Acting Purchasing Agent.

Addressograph Plates

The Mayor, on October 5, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In connection with the production of the police and voting lists by the addressograph-multilith process rather than the monotype process which we are using at the present time, it appears that now is the ideal time to make this change for the next lists to be published which will be the 1957 lists.

As you know, we have been working on this program with the thought of putting it into operation over a period of three years. However, due to a change in the law governing these lists, we are now able to make certain deletions which will make each plate a permanent plate rather than a three-year plate. There is now no reason to make the change over a three-year period. Making the change in its entirety at this time will effect a minimum saving of $100,000 per annum beginning with the 1957 budget.

A review of the situation indicates that we should have the addressograph file at the City Printing Plant set up no later than December 1, 1956, in order that the individual plates may be filed, tabbed for males (for use in poll tax billings), and street designation plates interfiled. In this way, when the 1957 police listing comes in, comparison and changes will be a relatively simple matter.

In order to meet this deadline, it will be necessary that the plates for Wards 11 through 22 be processed by the Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation. This will entail the processing of approximately 300,000 plates at a cost of $15.19 per hundred. The total cost of processing plates for Wards 11 through 22 will be approximately $45,570. This amount includes all transportation charges.

Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation. The amount of this contract is not to exceed $50,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

EUGENE K. WELSH,
Acting Purchasing Agent.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award the contract to S. S. Eisenberg, without public advertising.

Respectfully submitted,

PARKING IN DOWNTOWN AREA AFTER 6 P.M.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 21, 1956.
To the City Council
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Traffic Commissioner concerning your resolution of August 20, 1956, relative to surveying the downtown area for the purpose of determining whether additional streets would be available to allow parking after 6 p.m.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,
September 17, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

In response to the Council order of August 20, 1956, comprising a resolution calling upon the Traffic Commission to survey the downtown area for the purpose of determining whether additional streets would be available to allow parking after 6 p.m., this matter was discussed at a meeting of the Traffic Commission on September 14.

In the vicinity of the theater and restaurant section of downtown Boston, Deputy Hinchey has reported extreme congestion and serious obstruction of traffic movements during the early evening hours.

The Traffic Commission is desirous of maintaining conditions which would be conducive to evening business and will review the downtown parking regulations, bearing in mind the purposes of the Council order.

However, it is felt that the area between Broadway and State street would not be subject to many changes during present conditions.

Sincerely yours,

WM. ARTHUR KELLY, Commissioner.

Placed on file.

CONVEYANCE OF OLD COLONY HOUSING PROJECT TO BOSTON HOUSING AUTHORITY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 1, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of a communication from the Chairman of the Boston Housing Authority relative to the conveyance of the Old Colony Project in South Boston to the Boston Housing Authority. Upon conveyance to the Housing Authority, the project will, thereafter, be a low-rent project.

In order that this transfer may be consummated, it is required by the Federal Public Housing Administration that the governing body of the city declare a need for the project in question for low rent purposes. In 1951, such a resolution was adopted by the City Council and approved by me. However, because of the Korean War situation, the conveyance did not take place at that time.

The accompanying resolution revives and ratifies the resolution adopted in June of 1951. After approval and after conveyance of this project to the Housing Authority, the Housing Authority will pay to the city full ad valorem taxes for the remainder of this year and for next year. Subsequently, the city will receive the usual 10 per cent of collected shelter rents in lieu of taxes.

I respectfully request adoption of the attached resolution.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Housing Authority,
September 28, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As you know this Authority has requested the Public Housing Administration to convey to it for low rent housing purposes the project in South Boston, Mass. 19051, known as Old Colony Project. This project is owned by the United States of America, having been acquired from this Authority for war purposes. The project was originally built by the Authority for low rent housing purposes.

Before the project may be conveyed to the Authority for such purposes, it is required by applicable federal law that the City of Boston, through its governing body, declare a need for the project for low rent purposes and request its conveyance to this Authority.

The Boston City Council on December 28, 1950, adopted a resolution (amended June 25, 1951) which contained the findings and requests outlined above and such resolution was later approved by you as Mayor. However, by reason of the war situation then existing in Korea the project was not conveyed to the Authority at that time. Due to the lapse of time Public Housing Administration now requests a new finding be made as to need and a new request for the conveyance.

On June 25, 1951, a form of Cooperation Agreement between the City of Boston and the Authority in connection with this project was approved by the City Council and later executed under date of June 28, 1951 by you on behalf of the City.

Public Housing Administration officials have advised that there will be no need of the execution of a new Cooperation Agreement, but requests the ratification of the existing agreement dated June 28, 1951.

The Cooperation Agreement of June 28, 1951, is similar to those already existing for other low-rent projects and provides for payment to the City of 10 percent of collected shelter rents in lieu of taxes and for other normal municipal services insofar as they apply to the Authority. However, in the year of conveyance and the year thereafter, the Authority may pay full ad valorem taxes to the city.

I enclose herewith a form of resolution which has been approved by Public Housing Administration as adequate for the purposes required by federal law.

It is respectfully requested that your Honor submit the resolution for approval to the City Council.

Public Housing Administration has advised the Authority that the conveyance of the project must be completed during the calendar year 1956. Under such circumstances your early action on this matter will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,
F. A. CRONIN, Chairman.

Resolution Requesting Conveyance of Permanent War Housing Project Mass. 19051, for Low-Rent Housing.

In City Council of the City of Boston:

Whereas, The United States of America, acting through the Housing and Home Finance Agency, Public Housing Administration, owns permanent war housing, now known as Project Mass. 19051, consisting of 873 dwelling units located in the City of Boston, South Boston district, Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and

Whereas, Such housing is no longer needed for the purposes of war; and

Whereas, There exists in said City of Boston a need for such housing to be operated as low-rent public housing at rents within the means of low-income families, especially of living or deceased veterans and servicemen, which need is not being met by private enterprise; and

Whereas, Such condition constitutes a menace to health, safety, morals, and welfare of inhabitants of the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The Congress of the United States has authorized by Public Law 475, approved by the President April 20, 1950, the conveyance to a Public Housing Agency of such housing to provide housing to families of low-income, and the Boston Housing Authority proposes to acquire such housing and to operate it as low-rent housing; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Boston:

Sec. 2. That the City Council of the City of Boston does hereby request the conveyance of such housing to the Boston Housing Authority to be administered as low-rent housing for families of low income.

Sec. 3. That the execution by the Mayor and City Clerk of the City of Boston of the Cooperation Agreement dated June 28, 1951, between the Boston Housing Authority and the City of Boston be, and hereby is, adopted and ratified.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its approval by the Mayor of the City of Boston.

PLANNING ADVANCE PAYMENT FOR PROPOSED SOUTH COVE URBAN RENEWAL PROJECT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, September 25, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

The Boston Housing Authority, through its Urban Renewal Division, is most anxious to obtain from the federal government a planning advance for the proposed South Cove urban renewal project. The application for such an advance payment from the federal government must be accompanied by a resolution adopted by the City Council authorizing the signing of the application.

The renewal study of the South Cove area, herewith attached, gives, I believe, sufficient information to support the proposal of the city government that this area of our city, contiguous to the downtown Boston area, be renewed.

It is only by recognizing the need for renewal of old and exhausted areas in our city that we can prevent our city from becoming blighted, and keep abreast of modern-day conditions.

I respectfully request the adoption of the accompanying resolution by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Housing Authority,
September 19, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mayor Hynes:

On January 9, 1956, the City Council appropriated $10,000 to be expended by the Housing Authority for the preparation of plans and estimates for the submission to the federal government of one or more applications for planning advances for urban renewal projects. The Council order was approved by your Honor on January 10, 1956.

Pursuant to this appropriation, the Urban Renewal Division of this Authority has completed the application for submission to the federal government for a planning advance for the South Cove urban renewal project.

Accompanying this letter I am enclosing copies of a report describing existing conditions in this area as determined from actual planning studies in order to support the application for a planning advance in compliance with federal requirements for the submission of an application.

In accordance with federal procedures, this application for a planning advance for the South Cove urban renewal project must be accompanied by a resolution by the City Council, authorizing the filing of the application.

This Authority has voted to respectfully request that your Honor submit the required resolution to the City Council. A suggested resolution in the form approved by the federal government is attached hereto.

Respectfully yours,
F. A. CRONIN, Chairman.

SECT. 4. That the filing of an application by the Boston Housing Authority for an advance of funds from the United States of America to enable it to defray the cost of the surveys and plans for an urban renewal project in the urban renewal area described above is hereby approved.

AUTHORIZING CITY TO LIMIT BUILDINGS ACCORDING TO USE OR CONSTRUCTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 1, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

In Massachusetts, zoning regulations were enabled by the adoption on November 5, 1918, of Article LX of the Amendments to the Constitution of Massachusetts. This constitutional amendment was followed by the enactment of chapter 601 of the Acts of 1920 authorizing cities and towns throughout the Commonwealth to pass zoning ordinances and bylaws. The "home rule" power over zoning thus given Boston was soon pre-empted by the Legislature by the enactment of chapter 488 of the Acts of 1924, which itself established zoning regulations for Boston. Such pre-emption continued until the current year; for the Zoning Enabling Act which is now to be found in chapter 40A of the General Laws as inserted by chapter 368 of the Acts of 1954 expressly excludes Boston from the power it renews in all other cities and towns to pass zoning regulations.

The present Legislature was once again petitioned to give Boston "home rule" in this important field. This petition resulted in chapter 665 of the Acts of 1956, entitled "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Limit Buildings According to Their Use or Construction to Specified Districts." This statute is, in substance, a zoning enabling act for Boston, adapting to Boston said chapter 40A of the General Laws and establishing a Zoning Commission modeled after the existing Zoning Adjustment Board but with power to promulgate zoning regulations after due notice and hearing as well as to make the map changes which that Board may now make. The existing zoning law would be repealed effective with the promulgation of the new regulations. Typical of "home rule" measures, said chapter 665 of the Acts of 1956 is subject to acceptance by your Honorable Body, subject to the provisions of the City Charter, before any of its provisions take effect. To demonstrate that Boston is not loath to accept "home rule" whenever it is tendered, I recommend early adoption of the order transmitted herewith for the acceptance of said chapter.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 665 of the Acts of 1956 entitled "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Limit Buildings According to Their Use or Construction to Specified Districts," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

ADJUSTMENTS SEEN IN FAVOR OF LOWER SALARY JOBS BUT $500 GENERAL PAY BOOST "OUT OF THE QUESTION"

NEW REVENUE SOURCES ONLY HOPE FOR CITY EMPLOYEES

On the subject of city employee salaries and wages Mayor John B. Hynes stated, on October 16: "There is no question in my mind that employees in certain categories are underpaid, compared with prevailing wages of state employees and those in private industry." He indicated that an effort would be made on behalf of those lower-salaried workers in the 1957 budget.

Mayor Hynes said a $500 annual pay increase for all city employees is "out of the question" because it would cost some $11 million and boost the tax rate another seven dollars.* The Mayor said he would make no decision on the salary increments for lower-paid workers until he has had a chance to study the budget and see what the financial picture looks like next year.

Demand for a flat pay increase of $500 to all the city employees came from President William V. Ward of the Massachusetts State Council American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees. He said enactment of the Barrington Report, a schedule of wages for state employees, places Boston in a "most unfavorable position." Boston employees, Mr. Ward added, are at least $10, and sometimes as much as $20 a week, behind state workers in some types of jobs.

The Mayor, on Tuesday, laid Boston's grim financial picture on the table at a conference with his department heads. The commissioners were specifically directed to sail "very close to the wind" in the handling of their financial affairs between now and the first of the year.

City Auditor Joseph P. Lally warned that the city has "some tough problems to face" in the next two and one half months. Some of the expenses that the city had not anticipated as cited by Mr. Lally are: $600,000 for interest alone as the result of recent court decisions on the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and New England Telephone and Telegraph Company abatement cases; $100,000 for noncontributory pensions and annuities; $75,000 as a result of court executions on awards to claimants against the city; and $45,000 for polio vaccine. "Where these additional amounts will be raised, I don't know," Mr. Lally declared. He said any substantial transfers of funds in the 1956 year-end to make up any departmental budget deficiencies will be next to impossible.

New sources of income for Boston and the other cities and towns to relieve the heavy tax burden on real estate were predicted by Mayor Hynes as inevitable and, of necessity, forthcoming in the very near future.

"I am confident," the Mayor said, "that things will be better in a few years. We will make enemies but we have got to hold the line. This is a period when the whole future of the city is at stake."

The Mayor said: "We have succeeded in knocking down that old resistance to our city government. Now, the city government itself must nourish a growing spirit of confidence. We are the custodians of the city's future. If there is doubt about our conduct of affairs and a suspicion that city government is running wild on spending, this new spirit of confidence, now in evidence all around us, will evaporate into thin air. We have to curb all spending until we get some other source of income to offset the rapid rate at which taxable property is falling."

Expenditures in the final months of 1956, the Mayor warned his department heads, must be "cut to the bone." There can be no general pay increases. Overtime will have to be reduced to a minimum. Department heads were ordered to insist that the city employees devote full time to their jobs and that the city executives deal severely with those city employees who are wont to come in late for work or leave early.

John Chapman, Assessor of Taxes, predicted at the conference that the equalization survey of properties with four apartments or more, which started last Monday, will prove of great benefit to the city and result, he said, in all taxpayers paying their fair share. He estimated that the survey will take from two to three years.

In a letter received by Mayor Hynes on October 16, Mr. Ward of the City Employees' A.F.L.-C.I.O. Union stated that a recent wage and salary survey by his organization revealed that Boston city employees "are underpaid from a minimum of $500 a year to better than $1,000."

* The 1956 tax rate is $78.70 per thousand valuation.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

Could Happen to You!

A City of Boston Employee, whose little daughter had been in the hospital over a long period, faced a one-thousand-dollar medical bill. After release from the hospital the child needed special drugs, costing about forty dollars a month. The father had borrowed the limit from the Credit Union to pay off accumulated medical bills. He appealed to Red Feather. Result: The hospital bill was substantially reduced and budgeted, and drugs were made available for his child at only a fraction of normal cost. A convenient schedule of small weekly payments was also arranged.

The wife of a City of Boston Employee was hospitalized for cancer. Left with the care of three small children, the father was desperate. He appealed to Red Feather. A homemaker took charge of the children every day while he was at work. Red Feather paid the bill of $10 a day, charging the family only a fraction of that amount, according to this City Employee's income scale.

The tiny daughter of a City of Boston Employee became a worry to her mother because of temper tantrums. Appeal was made to Red Feather. The mother was referred to the psychiatric service of a child guidance center. The problem was cleared up at only a token expense to the child's parents.

The 80-year-old mother of a City of Boston Employee needed home care while her daughter was away at work during the day. The elderly lady was too active and alert for a nursing home. The family could not afford a housekeeper. Through Red Feather, arrangements were made for the daily service of a homemaker at a cost well within the family budget.

The wife of a City of Boston Employee, mother of three children, became emotionally upset. Fearing a "nervous breakdown" she appealed to Red Feather. Through one of its member agencies, a course of treatment was arranged at a very small cost to this City Employee and matters were worked out satisfactorily.

Be Thankful For Red Feather

During the year, life insurance policy holders and other beneficiaries in Massachusetts received $209,188,000, of which only 40 per cent was death benefits; 19 per cent was in dividends.

BOSTON BUILDING, LAST MONTH, IN BIG JUMP OVER SEPTEMBER FIGURES OF LAST YEAR

NINE-MONTH TOTAL FOR 1956 ALSO SHOWS BIG GAIN

The estimated value of building operations within the City of Boston during the month of September leaped and was three times the total of the same month last year, according to figures released this week by the Building Department. September's record helped to push the total construction figure for the first nine months of 1956 well over last year's total for the same period — $38,008,441 in 1956 as against $29,969,386 in 1955.

The number of building permits issued in September this year was 24 per cent under September of last year and the total number of 1956 building permits issued since the first of this year are 16 per cent under the corresponding nine months of last year.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

Equipment Maintenance

The Mayor, on October 10, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request your authority to dispense with a public solicitation of proposals in the City Record and to engage the services of Remington Rand Division of Sperry Rand Corporation, with local offices at 857 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, by written contract, to consummate the rental and incidental maintenance of two Alpha-numeric Key Punches No. 305, at $30 each per month, and two Cardo-matic No. 308 Key Punches, at $85 each per month, during the period April 1, 1956, through March 31, 1957. The total cost of this rental maintenance contract will be $3,120.

The aforementioned firm is the sole distributor of these particular machines, and the entire punched card accounting installation of the Assessing Department is predicated on Remington-Rand equipment. It is, therefore, for the best interests of the city that there be a continuance of this performance by this company, and it is not considered that public advertising will serve any useful purpose.

Respectfully,

JOHN J. CHAPMAN,
Assessor of Taxes.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Amendment of Contract

The Mayor, on October 11, approved the amendment of a contract, without the formality of advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On June 26, 1956, your Honor approved a contract with Rossano Construction Company, Inc., for proposed changes to accommodate X-ray Equipment, Rooms T 19 and G 12, Thorndike Building, ground floor, Boston City Hospital, in the sum of $6,861.

Your authorization is now requested to dispense with public advertising, and to amend the aforementioned contract in the amount of $323.01 to cover the additional work of revising unstruct system as result of unforeseen structural conditions.

The work has progressed most satisfactorily and as it is desired to have it all completed as promptly as possible, it is not felt that public advertising would be of avail to the city.

This extra work has become necessary in order to properly complete the work although it was not foreseeable at the time that the project was originally publicly advertised.

The proposed amendment of the subject contract in the amount of $323.01 will result in a new total contract price of $7,184.01.

Respectfully yours,

TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,
AND OF THE BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Highway Construction

The Mayor, on October 10, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

A public hearing was held by the Public Improvement Commission on Wednesday, August 29, in connection with the laying out and construction, as a public highway, of that section of New Haven street, West Roxbury, that extends from Northdale road to Ascent street.

At the hearing, I promised the petitioners that I would do everything within reason to construct the street before the end of the current construction season, as it is in a particularly deplorable condition, and constitutes not only a hazard to motorists, but a very unsanitary condition for the many children who reside on this section of New Haven street.

Therefore, the department subsequently publicly advertised for proposals for constructing the above-referenced section of New Haven street, and also for the construction of ten other streets located in Wards 18, 19, and 20. The bids were to be opened on last Thursday, October 4, but I canceled the opening, due to lack of funds, although we have approximately $550,000 as a balance in the "Public Ways, Construction Of" account. However, the department will need approximately $800,000 between now and next April 1 to encumber the Chapter 90 highway projects that will be advertised and awarded during that period. There is some money due from the state for reimbursement on current and prior Chapter 90 projects, and we also have some outstanding balances remaining in our own highway contracts that have been completed or will be completed within the next month. Therefore, I am hopeful that we will accumulate an additional $200,000 or $300,000 between now and April 1, in order that we will have sufficient money, as stated, to encumber the Chapter 90 projects that will be executed between now and April 1. As the state contributes a minimum of 50 per cent to all Chapter 90 projects, it is most essential that we have an adequate appropriation earmarked for such projects.

It was estimated that the contract involving the above-referenced eleven streets would cost approximately $100,000, and I felt that we could not afford to spend any such sum at this time, in view of the fact that we have an insufficient balance to encumber Chapter 90 projects. In addition, I reasoned that only one or two streets in the contract could be constructed between now and the end of the current construction season, although we would be required to tie up a minimum of $100,000 of highway funds that might be needed during the winter months for Chapter 90 projects. Therefore, I canceled the opening of the bids that was scheduled for last Thursday, October 4.

However, I would still like to construct New Haven street before the end of the current construction season. I have, therefore, negotiated with representatives of the John McCourt Company to construct New Haven street, from Northdale road to a point approximately 540 feet southerly, on the basis, with exceptions as noted below, of prevailing prices now in effect in a contract that the McCourt Company has with the department for reconstructing a section of South street located in Ward 19. It is estimated that the cost of the proposed work will total $13,621.50.

The exceptions referred to above affect seven unit items that are not included in the present McCourt contract for South street. These items, however, total only $2,766, and in all cases we have agreed on prices for these seven items that are reasonable and in keeping with prices that we have obtained as the result of publicly advertising for bids on other contracts. All the other item prices are included in the current McCourt contract and are reasonable as they were obtained as the result of publicly advertising for bids that were opened on Thursday, August 16. It is my opinion that the unit prices for which the McCourt Company has agreed to do the work on New Haven street are less than those that we would obtain at this time of the year as the result of publicly advertising for bids. In addition, and of equal importance, the McCourt Company has agreed that it will start work on New Haven street next Monday or Tuesday, and will complete the entire project in about three weeks.

Under the circumstances, I feel that it is to the decided advantage of the city to award a contract to the McCourt Company for doing the above-referenced work, without publicly advertising for proposals, although, in effect, the work is being done substantially on the basis of publicly advertised bids which were obtained, as stated, on Thursday, August 16, at which time the McCourt Company submitted the low bid of $44,211 for reconstructing South street.

I respectfully request, therefore, your approval to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the John McCourt Company, P. O. Box 19, Readville, for constructing a section of New Haven street, Ward 20, between Northdale road and a point approximately 540 feet southerly, in an estimated amount of $13,621.50, on the basis of agreed unit prices on the seven (7) items referred to above and with the understanding that all other contract items will be paid for in accordance with the appropriate unit prices that prevail in the existing contract that said contractor has with this department for reconstructing South street, Ward 19.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Street Construction

The Mayor, on October 16, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of July 20 of the current year, an order was approved providing for the laying out and construction of West Howell street, Dorchester, as a public highway, from Boston street approximately 351 feet westerly. This street leads to an industrial development which is in the process of construction and, in fact, the first building to be constructed will be opened, I believe, within the next month or six weeks for business. At the present time, we are installing the necessary sewerage facilities, and it is necessary to construct a permanent pavement, as the street is in a deplorable condition.

I believe that it would be advantageous to the city to award a contract for the construction of this street, without publicly advertising for proposals, to P. V. Barone Corporation, on the basis of the bid prices which are in effect in a contract that said contractor has with this department for constructing Ackley place, Ward 11, and eight other streets located in Wards 18 and 20. The Barone Corporation submitted the low bid in the amount of $81,062.90 under date of September 8, 1955, for constructing the latter-referenced streets. Therefore, in awarding this company a contract for constructing West Howell street, we are getting the advantage of the low unit bid prices submitted over a year ago.

There are only two items in the proposed subject contract that are not covered in the contract that was awarded in September, 1955, but these two items total only $250, and the agreed prices on both items are reasonable and satisfactory.

I am certain that we would not obtain any lower prices for constructing West Howell street if we publicly advertised for proposals, and I question if we could have this street constructed this year if we advertised for bids at this time. The Barone Company can start the work within the next four or five days and complete it in about three weeks' time or before the start of anticipated cold weather. The latter factor is of utmost importance, as the highway work should be finished before the opening of the new building which is now under construction.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the P. V. Barone Corporation, 70 Glencoe street, Brighton, in an amount not to exceed $10,449.50, for constructing West Howell street, Dorchester, from Boston street to a point approximately 351 feet westerly, substantially in accordance with the publicly advertised bid prices now in effect in a contract that was awarded to this contractor in September of 1955.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT. Appraiser Services

The Mayor, on October 11, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

At a meeting of the Real Property Board duly held on October 2, 1956, it was unanimously voted to retain the services of John F. Murphy, 53 State street, Boston, as appraiser for the properties taken by the City of Boston for off-street parking purposes, being the four parcels enumerated in the vote of taking of properties at Bedford street, Kingston street, Columbia street, Boston Proper.

The fee for Mr. Murphy's services is to be $2,400, by authority contained in a vote of the Real Property Board taken at their meeting on October 2, 1956.

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award this appraisal work, as specified above, to Mr. John F. Murphy, without public advertising.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN CARP,
Commissioner of Real Property,
Chairman, Real Property Board.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, October 8, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., Senior Member PIEMONTE in the chair. Absent, Councillor White.

The Reverend Thomas Keane, of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, Allston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. THOMAS KEANE.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Before Thee we gather, O Almighty God, creator and maker of this America—hindered by our many and grievous sins—here to ask of Thee that Thou would enter our hearts; teach us what we are to do and where we ought to tend; show us what we must accomplish in order that, with Thy help, we may be able to please Thee in all things. Weak and frail human beings though we may be, we beg that Thou alone be the author and the finisher of our judgments.

In the governing of those who have been entrusted to our care, suffer us not to disturb the order of justice, Thou who loves equity above all things; let not ignorance draw us into devious paths, nor partiality sway our minds; neither let respect of riches or persons pervert our judgment, but unite us to Thee by the gift of Thy grace that we may be one in Thee and may never forsake the truth; as we are gathered together in Thy name, so may we in all things hold fast to justice tempered by pity so that in this life, our judgments may in no way be at variance with Thee and in the life to come we may attain to the everlasting rewards for deeds well done. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN RE ANTI-LITTERING ORDINANCE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 8, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works concerning your resolution of September 24, 1956, relative to an educational campaign against the littering of streets under the new city ordinance governing this matter.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

"Whereas, A clean city is necessary from the standpoint of health as well as appearance; and
"Whereas, The cleanliness of Boston affords good public relations; and

"Whereas, The Mayor and the Boston City Council, in an effort to improve the appearance and provide for more healthful conditions of the city, have enacted an anti-litter law, effective as of September 11, 1956; and

"Whereas, There is nothing more useless than a law which is not observed; and

"Whereas, In order for the city and its people to realize the benefits of the newly-adopted anti-litter law, they must be made aware of the law, and there must be strict enforcement of it; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor direct the School Committee and other agencies to conduct an educational campaign relative to the anti-litter law, by such means as distributing copies of the law to the public schools; and be it further

"Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor call upon other public and private agencies to conduct such an educational campaign, and that he make available for such agencies copies of the law or brochures or pamphlets describing the provisions of the law and the benefits it will afford to the people of Boston; and be it further

We are in the process of preparing a pamphlet containing all existing laws, ordinances, regulations, suggestions, etc., that we feel will be effective in eliminating the littering of our streets. We expect to print at least 5,000 copies of the pamphlet, and we will distribute it freely to all public and parochial schools, civic groups, etc.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

LIGHTING ON ALPINE STREET, ROXBURY.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 8, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works concerning your order of September 24, 1956, relative to removing the gas lights on Alpine street, Roxbury, and to install new and adequate lighting on said street.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
October 5, 1956.

Mr. Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of September 24, 1956:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor is hereby requested to direct the Commissioner of Public Works to cause the gas lights on Alpine street, Roxbury, to be removed as soon as possible and to install new and adequate lighting on said street."

Orders have been issued to the Boston Edison Company for the installation of new electric lighting units in the above-referenced street. It is my understanding that the installation of the poles has been started and should be completed within a short time.

I trust, therefore, that these arrangements will prove satisfactory.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS ON PAGE STREET, DORCHESTER.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 8, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of Public Works concerning your order of September 24, 1956, relative to replacing the present antiquated gas lamps on Page street, Dorchester, with modern electric lights.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
October 1, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of September 24:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to replace the present antiquated gas lamps on Page street, Dorchester, with modern electric lights."

There are approximately 2,800 gas lamps still remaining in various streets throughout the city and we are taking steps to remove them with as much expedition as possible. The speed with which the gas lamps are replaced with electric depends entirely on the ability of the Boston Edison Company to install the new electric lights. I am told that the Edison Company has only forty splicers available for assignment to this work, with the result that the change from gas to electric cannot be effected as speedily as we would like to have said change made.

You may be assured that we will give every consideration to effecting this desirable improvement in Page street as soon as possible, although we are changing from gas to electric on an area basis rather than on the basis of individual streets.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

STUDY OF PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS AT BOSTON & ALBANY YARDS AND SOUTH STATION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 8, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the City Planning Board relative to your resolution of August 20, 1956, concerning proposed commercial and industrial developments at the Boston & Albany Railroad yards and at the South Station, and the proposed extension of the Toll Highway into central Boston, also in answer to your resolution of August 27, 1956, concerning a site for the new federal building.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City Planning Board,
September 25, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

In answer to your referral of City Council resolution, dated August 20, concerning proposed commercial and industrial developments at the Boston & Albany Railroad yards and at the South Station, and the proposed extension of the Toll Highway into central Boston, and also in answer to City Council resolution of August 27 concerning a site for the new federal building, I have the following to report:

Concerning the Boston & Albany development, happily the outline plans drawn in this office shortly after the announcement of the availability of the yards are in accord with proposals later developed independently by outstanding experts. These plans conform to the general plan and can be developed in accordance with existing regulations, zoning and otherwise, and existing utility networks. Basic elements, large office building, auditorium, mercantile development, underground parking, etc., were all incorporated in the Stevens proposals which were designed by a group of experts of nation-wide reputation. Although there was some resistance on the part of those who feared disturbance of the downtown economy, the proposals now are generally recognized as desirable.

It is our understanding that the Prudential Life Insurance Company is interested in the total development of the site on a somewhat similar scale.

Certain features of the Zeckendorf proposal for commercial redevelopment near South Station have been urged by the Planning Board for some years. The filling in of Fort Point Channel is an example. One of our intensive studies is now being made within the area being considered by Mr. Zeckendorf to be specific, the area bounded by Eliot, Kneeland and Albany streets and Broadway. This is the third of a series of studies within the central district, the first two already published, being the North End Water Front Proposal and the Government Center north of State street.

Regarding the Government Center plan it can be said that at a meeting of the Board called by your Honor there was general acceptance of the plan. Follow-up steps were taken towards implementing the plan by forwarding appropriate recommendations and data to federal officials.

The Board has had considerable discussion regarding the Toll Highway. It is of the opinion that in any event the recommendations in the Master Highway Plan should not be upset. Actually no plans have as yet been made upon which to base a determination of the cost of the toll road and several studies are still under way concerning it. All of these proposals are interrelated. Many factors are involved and more time is necessary for study by various groups before thinking on the above proposition can be solidified. Until such time as more concrete developments are available it is impossible to take a definite position on these matters. When the results of the various studies have been made available and it is possible to evaluate them we will be glad to submit a further reply.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS F. McDONOUGH, Chairman.

AMENDMENTS TO COUNTY CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION PLANS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 3, 1956.

To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I forward herewith a proposal by the Supervisor of Personnel to amend the Compensation and Classification Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County.

This proposal is a result of a study of personnel in county departments, similar to the study made for the employees of city departments. Under the prevailing statutes, any changes in the Compensation and Classification Plan for County Employees must be proposed by the Supervisor of Personnel. The latter official has given time and study to the so-called Evans report and has discussed with each of the county officials the schedules proposed by Mr. Evans. The proposal forwarded to your Honorable Body differs, in some degree, from the schedules arrived at by Mr. Evans.

I favor the adoption of the proposal as submitted by the Supervisor of Personnel which will be put into effect, as of October 1, 1956, after consideration and approval by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Administrative Services Department,
October 3, 1956.
To the Mayor and City Council.
Gentlemen:

By the rules for the Administration of the Classification and Compensation Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County, the Supervisor of Personnel is authorized to propose changes and revisions in those plans. Any changes and revisions shall be submitted to the City Council and shall become effective upon approval by the City Council subject to the provisions of the City Charter.

Under the aforesaid authority, there is submitted herewith an order repealing the present Classification and Compensation Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County, substituting in their place, revised plans as set forth in the accompanying Schedule B. This revision of the present county plan is presented as a result of a study made of the duties of classified positions in the service of the County of Suffolk.

After consultations and correspondence with the various unit heads the information contained in the study has been utilized by me in compiling this proposal which is hereby submitted for your action.

Your favorable consideration of the accompanying order is hereby recommended, to be effective as of October 1, 1956.

Respectfully,

DUNCAN T. FOLEY,
Supervisor of Personnel.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 3, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, requesting the appropriation of $29,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1956 budget estimates for the personal service requirements of the Parks and Recreation Department included an estimate of the total yearly income from the George F. Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the appropriation of this income as it accrued for the purpose of defraying the cost of work actually performed on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $29,000, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
October 2, 1956.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

You are respectfully asked to request the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $29,000, which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Parks and Recreation Commissioner, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of.....$29,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1956, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from Item 100, Permanent Employees, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1956, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Parks and Recreation Department.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY, Commissioner.

Ordered, That the sum of twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and Improvement of.....$29,000

POLICE COMMISSIONER TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, The City Council under authority of chapter 222 of the Acts of 1949 is now considering a proposed ordinance which would increase the fee for a hackney carriage license; and

Whereas, Formerly this matter was handled exclusively by the Police Commissioner; and

Whereas, Legally authorized representatives of taxi drivers appeared before the City Council Committee on Ordinances and opposed the increase in fee and further stated that for many years taxicabs unlicensed in Boston and servicing the Logan Airport have been improperly soliciting business in Boston; and

Whereas, The legal problems concerned with unlicensed taxicabs soliciting business in Boston have been recently made the subject of an official opinion of the Attorney General wherein the Attorney General has ruled in substance:

1. The regular solicitation of business in Boston by taxicabs not licensed by the Police Commissioner is a violation of section 3 of chapter 392 of the Acts of 1930.

2. No city or town may properly license a taxicab for operation "at Logan Airport only."

Whereas, Section 62A of chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinance of 1947, approved May 29, 1951, is still in force; and

Whereas, The solution to the taxicab problem is one which will require the cooperation of the Boston Police Department; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council in meeting assembled hereby respectfully requests that the Honorable Thomas F. Sullivan, Police Commissioner, appear before the City Council Committee on Ordinances on Wednesday, October 10, 1956, at 3 P.M., for the purpose of discussing the proposed hackney carriage license fee and the problem of unlicensed taxicabs doing business at the Logan Airport and in Boston.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

ORDINANCE CONCERNING LICENSING OF HACKNEY CARRIAGES AND OTHER VEHICLES.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:
City of Boston.

In the Year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six.

An Ordinance Concerning the Licensing of Hackney Carriages and Other Vehicles.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

Chapter 40 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947 is hereby amended by striking out section 62A, and inserting in place thereof the following:

SECTION 62A. No person, firm, or corporation shall offer for hire or operate a hackney carriage or other vehicle for the purpose of transporting, soliciting, and/or picking up a passenger or passengers for hire within the limits of the city of Boston unless licensed thereto by the police commissioner of the city of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

NAMING OF SQUARE IN HONOR OF S. THOMAS NEDDER.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN offered the following:

Ordered, That the order passed by the City Council on October 1, 1956, authorizing the Committee to Memorialize Veterans to name the intersection of Readville and Knight streets in the Readville section of Hyde Park be, and hereby is, rescinded; and be it further Ordered, That the Committee to Memorialize Veterans be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to name the intersection of Readville street and Neponset Valley Parkway, in the Readville section of Hyde Park, the S. Thomas Nedder Square, in honor of the memory of Air Force Sgt. S. Thomas Nedder who lost his life on March 24, 1945, while serving his country with honor and outstanding valor.

SURVEY FOR INFORMATION ON MECHANICAL GARAGE SYSTEMS.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:

Whereas, The City of Boston has embarked on an off-street parking program designed to afford traffic relief to the downtown area and to encourage shopping, and to stimulate and promote business; and

Whereas, Due to the density of the area, the high value of the land, and the extensive use of the area per foot, it appears that the most efficient method to use would be the mechanical garages; and

Whereas, There are in operation in the United States a number of different types of mechanical garages; and

Whereas, The specifications contained in the proposal for bids on the Haywood Place off-street parking were so drawn as to limit the prospective bidder to the use of but one mechanical garage system; and

Whereas, The City Charter and Ordinances specifically provide for competitive bidding in all purchases and contracts of over two thousand dollars; and

Whereas, Any proposals for bids which include specifications which limit any prospective bidder to but one product is in violation of the spirit of the provisions of the City Charter and Ordinances; and

Whereas, The taxpayers of Boston are entitled to the best available system from the standpoint of economy, safety, and all other features; and

Whereas, There is not at present in the City of Boston any private or public agency whose task is to furnish the purchasing agent or the Purchasing Department with the statistical, historical and other pertinent data necessary to evaluate the various systems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That his honor the Mayor be requested to appoint competent, unbiased engineers, architects, or other technical experts to make a survey of all the mechanical garage systems now operating throughout the country, and to make a report detailing their findings, and, without limiting the findings to the following, it should include: a classified list of the mechanized garage systems in use or available giving the cities where they are operating, the date when they were put up, the floor area, the height, the number of cars to be accommodated, the cost, the safety, the maintenance and operating costs, the accident experience since their erection, the average daily use, the highest daily use, and the cost per unit of the various mechanized garage systems.

Attest:

AGNES E. REYNOLDS,
Secretary

August 20, 1956

A special meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 9:11 P. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs. Carr, Hurley, Lee, McInerney, and McMorow.

DEATH OF SUPERINTENDENT OF CONSTRUCTION, DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS

The Chairman reported that the School Committee has received with sorrow the report of the death of James H. Mooney, Superintendent of Construction, Department of School Buildings, on Aug. 18, 1956.

As he devoted his talents, energy, and warmth to others in a useful life, we devote these words of dedication to his service and memory.

Mr. McMorow: Mr. Chairman, I join the members of the Committee in extending my deep sympathy to the family of the late James H. Mooney, Superintendent of Construction in the Department of School Buildings.

During the few months that I have served as a member of the School Committee, I have noted especially that one of the fine qualities of this gentleman which always impressed me whenever I had occasion to speak with him was his ever-present kindly and courteous manner. I am sure that all the members of the Committee will greatly miss his advice and counsel on difficult school problems.

I believe, Mr. Chairman, that it would be inappropriate for this Committee to discuss the school building program at any length this evening. Despite the urgent importance of such problems as the continuation of the school building program, etc., I prefer to postpone discussion of these items to a later date.

However, Mr. Chairman, I do not know when the Committee intends to meet again, and therefore I should like to ask the Committee to direct the Secretary to write to the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings for the purpose of suggesting that a public hearing be held here in the School Committee Chamber, with the press present, so that the members of the School Committee may have an opportunity to make known to them their views on matters pertaining to the school building program.

Under the law, the School Committee has the power to appropriate approximately $2,500,000 for the alteration and repair of school buildings.

The use of this large amount of money will be determined largely by the new Superintendent of Construction and his immediate assistants. The salary of the Superintendent of Construction is subject to the approval of the School Committee.

I do now move, Mr. Chairman, that the Secretary be directed to send a special delivery letter tonight to the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of School Buildings inviting the members of that Board to meet, in public session, with the members of this Committee on Monday, August 27, at 6:30 p. m. for the purpose of discussing several important school matters in connection with the filling of the vacancy in the position of Superintendent of Construction caused by the untimely death of the late Superintendent, Mr. James H. Mooney.

FIRST IN HALF A CENTURY

There has been a considerable amount of public housing construction in Charlestown in recent years, but the last time a single-family dwelling was erected in that section is well over a half a century ago, according to unofficial opinion among the senior employees of the Building Department. Recently, however, this half-century, nonbuilding spell has been broken. John Grace, an electrical contractor, who has a real affection for old Charlestown, has built himself a $15,000 single dwelling house on Polk street.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 48

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1956

No. 43

DAY-TO-DAY PROBLEMS OF MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION TO BE SUBJECT OF TWO-DAY PANEL SESSIONS

Solution of the day-to-day problems of municipal government in Boston will be discussed among key personnel from each of the city departments at a two-day conference in the Boston Public Library Auditorium, Copley Square, starting Wednesday morning, November 14.

Under the general chairmanship of John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services, six separate panel sessions will be held, four on Wednesday and two on Thursday, covering the following subjects:

"Winning Public Support for Department Programs."

"How Can the City Improve Its Purchasing Procedures?"

"The Administration of Personnel Programs for a Large Municipality."

"Why a Procedural Manual, with Organization Charts, Improves Efficiency in Municipal Operations."

"Inventory Supplies and Equipment Control—Methods and Procedures."

"The Value of Forms Study and Standardization."

The two-day conference will open November 14 with a breakfast at the Sheraton Plaza at 8 A.M. Mayor Hynes will be the host. The cost of this breakfast will be the only appreciable outlay of city funds for the whole two-day program. Four sessions will run through Wednesday, and the final two sessions will start at 2 P.M. on Thursday, permitting the participants to report to their regular duties that morning.

Moderators of the various panels are leaders in their respective fields who are not directly connected with the government of the city. The panelists, four to each session, are key personnel in the city service. One of the chief values of each panel discussion will be the question-and-answer period which follows, and the expression of views from the floor.

Administrative Services Director Breen pointed out that a secondary, but important, purpose of the conferences is to spotlight the enormity and the diversity of administrative detail involved in the operation of our city government. Of greater interest, however, are the practical information and ideas which these conferences will give to the city employees who are directly charged with the responsibility of keeping the wheels of municipal government operating smoothly.

Lawrence W. Costello, Administrative Secretary, Department of Administrative Services, is the coordinator of the conferences.

Moderators on the panels include: Paul A. Newsome, public relations executive; Herbert Layport, director of purchases for Wyman-Gordon Company, Worcester; Thomas J. Greehan, Director, Massachusetts Civil Service Commission; Charles J. Fox, former Director of Administrative Services; John L. Ash, warehouse executive for General Motors Corporation; and Charles M. Evans, head of a large management engineering firm.

Expressing the hope that the conferences will open up new vistas in municipal administration and will mark the beginning of regular, periodic sessions in the future, General Chairman Breen outlines the aims of the conferences as follows:

To create interest among municipal employees in the everyday operations of city government; to acquaint employees with advanced methods and procedures in business and municipal management; to focus attention on the part the municipal employee plays in rendering service; to eliminate obsolete practices in operations; to bring about a more businesslike atmosphere within city departments.

As a result of the conferences, and of others to be conducted in the future, it is hoped, a trend toward more reduction of expenditures is anticipated by the Administrative Services Board, which approved the program. Other beneficial results expected are improved public relations, especially through prompt and courteous service; streamlining of operations; giving the taxpayer his money's worth; and making Boston a better place in which to live and work.

At the conferences particular interest will be focused on the preparation of a Procedural Manual for each department of the city. These projects are now under way, with several departments having already completed the job. Administrative Secretary Costello states that one of the outstanding documents thus far turned in was compiled by the Fire Department.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAYOR MAPS RESISTANCE TO BOOST IN MTA DEFICIT SHARE

Mayor John B. Hynes intends to confer with the Law Department on the possibility of court action against the new apportionment of the MTA deficit, announced this week, which will result in an additional revenue loss to the City of Boston of $272,444 (18 cents on the tax rate). The Mayor further intends to renew his appeal to the Legislature to reduce, rather than increase, Boston's proportionate share of the MTA expenses and deficits in view of the marked decline in the city's population since the 1950 census.

The following statement was issued on October 23 by Thomas P. McCusker, secretary to Mayor Hynes, just after the new apportionment figures, resulting from a new passenger count, were announced:

Mayor's Statement

The increased amount which Boston must pay toward the annual deficit of the MTA comes as another shock to the financial structure of our city.

Under the new schedule which fixes the proportion of the deficit to be assumed by the cities and towns in the MTA district, Boston's share is increased by 1.7453 per cent which means that Boston will now pay over 66 per cent of the annual deficit of the MTA system.

I do not quarrel with the manner in which the count has been taken this year. In fact, I believe it was more scientifically and fairly done than when the last count was taken in 1940. Nevertheless, I do quarrel with the result of the count which assesses upon Boston, despite its decreasing population, an increasingly greater share of the MTA deficit.

Certainly, a law which results in increased costs to a city like Boston with a falling population, and lesser costs to other cities and towns in the district with an increasing population, simply does not make sense.

I believe that the law should be changed so that the proportion of the deficit should be assessed on the cities and towns in the district according to the population in these cities and towns. Obviously, no perfect method of counting can be devised to determine exactly where persons boarding the MTA system live. To my mind, the fairest method of assessing the deficit should be on the number of people living in each city and town for whom the MTA system is always available.

"I Shall Try It Again"

I have tried to have this law changed in the past, so that the deficit would be assessed on a population basis, but without success. I shall try it again. I shall confer with my Law Department to be advised whether or not a petition to the courts might hold so that the new schedule might not take effect.

The MTA is now responsible for $5.50 of the city tax rate. Not only does the city pay its share of the operating deficit, and not only does the city pay its proportion of the fixed charges of the MTA, and not only is the city paying for the discharge of a refunding debt incurred in 1948, but it also lost $2,000,000 per year in taxes from the MTA because of a complete exemption granted to the MTA against the payment of such taxes to the city. For this year the MTA is costing the City of Boston $8,352,170.79. This represents $5.50 in our tax rate.

Boston, with all its other problems, cannot continue to be imposed upon, and cannot continue to be compelled, by laws that are antiquated and inequitable, to shell out large sums of money which it can ill afford.

I do not criticize the trustees of the MTA. They must follow the law as they find it. I am, however, highly critical of the present law, which is so constructed that Boston cannot possibly get any relief when future counts of passenger riders are taken.

EDWARD J. McCORMACK, Jr., SERVES AS ACTING MAYOR

City Council President Edward J. McCormack, Jr., took over the post as Acting Mayor this week during the absence of Mayor John B. Hynes.

The Mayor will return to his desk on Monday, October 29, following a ten-day trip to Europe as guest of the Crusade for Freedom. He made the trip as president of the United States Conference of Mayors.

HUB HAS 37,270 FEWER VOTERS THAN IN 1952

The total number of men and women eligible to vote in the 1956 Presidential election is 375,568. This total is 977 more than in the State election two years ago and 37,270 less than in the Presidential election of 1952.*

By contrast, Massachusetts has a record 2,670,912 registered voters for Presidential election on November 6.

The figure tops by 4,887 voters the previous record of 2,666,025 set four years ago, the Department of the Secretary of State reports.

Registration in the state's 39 cities dropped 80,000 since the last Presidential election, but the registration in the 312 towns increased by about 85,000.

Registration in cities is 1,594,358 while in the 1952 election it was 1,674,420. Boston suffered the heaviest loss, with 37,270 fewer voters.

In the towns, registration climbed from 991,604 to 1,076,554, confirming the moving of the population to the suburban areas.

The difference in the number of "city voters" and those in the towns for this election is 517,804, while four years ago it was 682,815.

State-wide there are 28,407 more voters for this election than in 1954 and 186,972 more than in 1948.

STATE ALLOCATES NEARLY $6 MILLION TO BOSTON

Boston will receive $3,377,678 in the distribution of state-collected taxes, according to a statement, on October 24, by State Tax Commissioner John Dane, Jr. City Auditor Joseph P. Lally stated that this sum has been anticipated by the city and is already figured into the current budget.

A total of $19,800,000 was distributed by the state to its 351 cities and towns. Of the total, $13,300,000 is from income taxes and $6,500,000 from corporation levies. An additional $13,000,000 went to the state's general fund.

Highway Allotment

On the same day, State Public Works Commissioner Carl A. Sheridan announced that Boston will receive $2,530,309 as its share of $15 million made available by the Legislature this year for municipal highway construction.

In announcing the allocation, Commissioner Sheridan said each of the 351 cities and towns may appropriate its sum for highway projects which have prior approval of the Public Works Department. They also may borrow additional funds for these projects to be financed over a 10-year period.

If some cities and towns cannot now undertake highway projects costing their total share, the balance will be reserved for them for future work. Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland said the money to be received by Boston will fit nicely into immediate street and highway reconstruction plans.

TRAFFIC COMMISSIONER WOULD BAN AUTO HORNS

Chicago — Traffic Commissioner William Arthur Reilly, of Boston, on October 22, called upon manufacturers of automobiles to eliminate horns from passenger cars.

"Horn blowing has become a public nuisance," said Reilly, who is attending the National Safety Conference here, "and the only way to stop it is to eliminate them altogether. The noise problem around hospitals and homes today is getting so serious that something has to be done."

NEW HAVEN, PUBLIC WAY

West Roxbury.

The Public Improvement Commission has ordered, and the Mayor has approved, the laying out and construction of New Haven street, West Roxbury district, as a public highway, between Northdale road and Ascent street.

The project is described as follows:

A highway named New Haven street is hereby laid out from Northdale road to approximately 180 feet southwesterly beyond Ascent street, and ordered constructed.

Said highway and the land, exclusive of trees, shrubs, or structures standing upon or affixed thereto, in which an easement for street purposes is hereby taken, is bounded and described as follows:

Northerly by the southerly line of Joyce Kilmer road, forty and 00-100 feet; easterly by the easterly line of New Haven street as hereby laid out, by six measurements, one hundred thirty-eight and 40-100 feet, three hundred eighty-eight and 17-100 feet, one hundred sixty-nine and 25-100 feet, eighty-six and 72-100 feet on a curve of two hundred fourteen and 40-100 feet radius, fifty-five and 75-100 feet, and eighteen and 46-100 feet on a curve of four hundred nineteen and 00-100 feet radius; southwesterly by another portion of said New Haven street as hereby laid out, fifty-four and 17-100 feet; southeasterly by the southeasterly line of New Haven street as hereby laid out, by three measurements, fifty-one and 41-100 feet on a curve of three hundred seventy-nine and 00-100 feet radius, seventy-four and 09-100 feet, and twenty-one and 07-100 feet on a curve of twelve and 00-100 feet radius; easterly by Ascent street, forty-five and 53-100 feet; and easterly by the easterly line of New Haven street as hereby laid out, by four measurements, nineteen and 63-100 feet on a curve of twenty and 00-100 feet radius, one hundred eighty-two and 60-100 feet, three hundred eighty-six and 25-100 feet, and one hundred thirty-eight and 40-100 feet.

Trees, shrubs, or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforesaid land, shall be removed therefrom within thirty (30) days following the city's entrance upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

BETTERMENTS ASSESSED

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this commission estimates that the abutting parcels of land situated on both sides of said New Haven street will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city, from the improvement herein ordered; each of said parcels in the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said parcels and the supposed owners thereof being shown on the plan hereinbefore referred to and on file in the office of this department.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Amendment of Contract

The Mayor, on October 1, approved the amendment of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On April 9, 1956, your Honor approved a contract with R. J. Mulhern Construction Company, Inc., for alterations and renewals to Biochemistry Suite, Boston City Hospital, in the sum of $58,830.

Your authorization is now requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the aforementioned contract in the amount of $2,281.58, to cover the cost of additional work.

The work has progressed most satisfactorily and as it is desired to have it all completed as promptly as possible, it is not felt that public advertising would be of avail to the city.

This extra work has become necessary in order to properly complete the work although it was not foreseeable at the time that the project was originally publicly advertised.

The proposed amendment of the subject contract in the amount of $2,281.58 will result in a new total contract price of $61,131.58.

Respectfully yours,

TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT, AND BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,
RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION.

Waterproofing

The Mayor, on October 16, approved the award of a contract without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

On April 16, 1956, your Honor authorized the awarding of a $60,000 contract, without public advertising, to the National Waterproofing Company, to perform the pointing and waterproofing of the exterior walls of the old Court House building. On May 20, 1956, the contract was actually executed.

In the process of performing the waterproofing work included in the principal contract, the contractor was able to discover that four cast-iron pipe inside drains are corroded badly at a number of points throughout the lengths of the drains. At this point most of the waterproofing work has been completed but the staging is still in place. It would be most unwise not to repair or replace these defective drains at this time for, otherwise, water would continue to seep into the building and cause damage to the interior of the building. Additionally, if the staging were removed now and this additional work performed at a later date it would be more expensive.

The estimated cost of repair or replacement is $6,000. This figure represents only an estimate of the cost of the work because the precise amount of work needed to be done in respect to the drains cannot be known until the walls are opened and the drains examined in their entirety.

If the necessary repairing or replacement work is to cost more than $6,000, your Honor's authorization would be requested for the additional expenditure at that time.

In view of the foregoing your Honor's authorization is requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the existing contract with the National Waterproofing Company, 1077 Columbus avenue, Roxbury, to include the additional drain repair or replacement work to increase the contract cost at this time in the amount of $6,000, thereby making the new total cost not to exceed $66,000.

Very truly yours,

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
by ARNO I. DREW,
Chairman.

O God, You who through divine providence govern divinely well the intricate workings of our universe, deign today to govern our very being, so that this Council, to which you have entrusted some small portion of your work, may deliberate maturely, decide impartially, and regulate wisely.

We ask this of You, through whom kings reign and princes rule. In the name of Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
October 8, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,

Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

This is in reference to the following order that was passed in the City Council under date of October 1:

"Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Public Works Commissioner to install electric lights on the following streets:

"Alvan terrace, Conrad street, Gene street, Harrow street, Hillsboro street, Holden place, Humphreys place, Norfolk avenue, Ramsey street, Sumner park, Wendover street; and be it further

"Ordered, That these streets be properly paved."
A street lighting survey will be made of the above-referenced public and private streets, and every reasonable effort will be made to expedite the removal of the existing gas lamps and their replacement with modern electric lights. However, I cannot give any assurance that these necessary improvements will be done at an early date, as we are in the midst of a major program to replace all remaining gas lights with electric street lights.

Immediate steps will be taken to effect whatever repairs are necessary to the roadway and sidewalk areas of the public streets included in the above list and, if necessary, they will be included in the 1957 highway program for complete reconstruction, subject to budgetary appropriations.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Placed on file.

INFORMATION ON ANNUAL REPORTS OF DEPARTMENTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 10, 1956.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Director of Administrative Services relative to your order of October 1, 1956, in regard to various questions concerning annual reports of departments of the city.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

MEMO TO THE MAYOR.
October 8, 1956.

Subject: Annual Reports of Departments of the City.

An examination into the questions raised by Councillor Piemonte's order of October 1, 1956, on the above subject, shows that reports from city departments are sent to the Mayor or the City Clerk for printing as a public document, as required by the Revised Ordinances of 1947, etc. The accompanying listing shows the Public Document numbers of each report. Exceptions to the above statement were found, however, and a brief explanation concerning these follows:

Civil Defense—Mr. Cleary, newly named as director, was unaware of the necessity for this report and will proceed to write a report for the year 1955. This will be Public Document No. 9.

Library—The staff of the Library has produced two publications:

1. Statistical Report, 1954.
2. Report of Examining Committee, 1955-1956. Copies of these reports are attached.

Plans are made by the Library to produce an annual report of the nature which other city departments are now doing. The number of this would be Public Document No. 15.

Penal Institutions—On inquiry of this department, we learned that this report has not been made up for some years, principally because of a shortage of clerical help; however, a report of this nature will be started next week and it will be known as Public Document No. 17.

Real Property—This department has not produced a report of the nature described in the Revised Ordinances, but does produce a report of a general nature, which is on sale for 25 cents to the public—this for the reason that, when no charge was made for this report, it was felt that wastage occurred, inasmuch as several were taken when it was felt that one would suffice. This report is currently being reprinted and will be available in approximately one month. A statistical report of this department for the year 1955 accompanies this for your perusal.

Veterans' Services—This department compiles a monthly report, which is sent to the Mayor's Office, and steps are being taken to provide funds for printing an annual report for 1956, this to be known as Public Document No. 23.

In summary, I feel that the accompanying list and the information contained in this letter combine to answer the first three questions raised in the order. In regard to the fourth question, it may be said that all public documents, as described in this communication, are at present or will be in the future available at the City Messenger's Office for the information of the public or members of the City Council.

Mr. O'Donnell, the City Messenger, will send a reminder on January 2 to all departments in order that their reports for 1956 be sent to him for printing. In the case where a report has not been made in past years, Mr. O'Donnell will also require that a report be compiled to cover such a period and a copy of the listing attached has been passed to him for this purpose.

I trust that this information meets the requirements of Councillor Piemonte's order.

J. A. BREEN, Director.

Begging God's blessing upon you and all the men in the department, I remain

Faithfully yours in Christ,

M. D. C. TAKES OVER 10 MILES OF CITY ROADS

The Metropolitan District Commission, on October 30, took over ten miles of Boston roadways, creating, along with previously transferred highways, an arc-shaped pattern of M.D.C. boulevards extending from the mouth of the Neponset River, Dorchester, around Jamaica Pond, to the Charles River Basin, Back Bay. This was the most significant transfer of highway jurisdiction since the M.D.C. took over the South Boston-Dorchester shore front on October 7, 1949. The roadways transferred are located in Dorchester, Hyde Park, Roxbury, Jamaica Plain, and the Back Bay.

Upon completion of the state-constructed expressways through downtown Boston and Dorchester, the heart of the city is about to be completely encircled by a state-M.D.C. belt line of highways.

Some of Boston's best known thoroughfares, including the Arborway, Jamaica way, Riverway, and Fenway, became part of the M.D.C. system, under the provisions of chapter 581 of the Acts of 1956, at precisely midnight on October 29. At that minute four city departments officially relinquished jurisdiction: the Public Works Department, of city highways; the Parks and Recreation Department, of parkways; the Traffic Department, of traffic control signals at intersections; the Police Department, of patrol responsibilities. With the ten miles of roadway go all the appurtenances such as walks, paths, traffic signals, signs, catch basins, drains, street lights, and other installations previously maintained by the city. Parking meters, however, are excluded from the transfer.

The eighteen portions of City of Boston roadways officially transferred are as follows:

(1) That portion of Gallivan Boulevard which lies between Morton street and William T. Morrissey Boulevard.

(2) That portion of Morton street which lies between Forest Hills street and Gallivan Boulevard.

(3) The Arborway.

(4) The Jamaica way.

(5) The Riverway.

(6) The Fenway.

(7) That portion of Park Drive which lies between Audubon Circle and Boylston street.

(8) That portion of Boylston street which lies between its junction with Ipswich street, near Park Drive, and Hemenway street.

(9) Charlesgate West.

(10) Charlesgate East.

(11) Agassiz road.

(12) That portion of Centre street which lies between Veterans of Foreign Wars Parkway and the Arborway.

(13) That portion of Hyde Park avenue which lies between Milton street and Wolcott square.

(14) That portion of Milton street which lies between Hyde Park avenue and Neponset Valley Parkway.

(15) That portion of Perkins street which lies between the Jamaica way and Francis Parkman Drive.

(16) Francis Parkman Drive, between Perkins street and the Jamaica way at Kelly Circle.

(17) Chestnut street, between Perkins street and Riverdale Parkway Drive, at the Brookline town line.

(18) Willow Pond Road, between the Jamaica way at Bynner street and Riverdale Parkway Drive, in the town of Brookline.

By transfer of jurisdiction, the Boston Traffic Department gave over twenty-two signalized intersections and two flash-signaled locations to the Metropolitan District Commission. Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland estimates that the city will save $20,000 in one year alone by relief from maintenance of street lights involved in the transfer.

The Boston Police Department was relieved of one full-time traffic control intersection at the Sears Roebuck Company in the Back Bay. M.D.C. patrolmen took over numerous school crossings and assumed cruiser-car and patrol duties along the newly acquired roads. Police Commissioner Thomas F. Sullivan pointed out to Mayor Hynes this week, however, that the present responsibilities of the Boston police in protecting the lives and safety of the residents of the areas involved will be lessened to an almost imperceptible degree.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

CITY ADDS THIRTY-THREE ABANDONED HOUSES TO THE LIST OF SCHEDULED DEMOLITIONS

Thirty-three dilapidated abandoned houses, all well beyond the point of rehabilitation are scheduled to be demolished during the next week or two, as part of the city's Rehabilitation and Conservation Program, according to Attorney John A. Murray, City of Boston Director of Demolition and Restoration, in his weekly report to Mayor John B. Hynes. Ten other dangerous buildings, all of wooden construction, are currently being razed in Charlestown.

All of the 33 houses on the list for removal are of wooden construction. Most of them are located in Charlestown and Roxbury. However, a few of them are situated elsewhere. Several of them are owned by the city as a result of foreclosure for nonpayment of taxes. The others are owned by persons who are financially unable to raze them or who refuse to cooperate with the city's enforcement of its health and safety laws.

Where the house is privately owned the city is obliged to impose a lien on the property to reimburse it for the demolition costs. If the lien is not paid within the statutory period of two years the municipality under the law is obliged to foreclose and offer the land for sale at public auction as it does with tax foreclosed parcels.

In the Charlestown area the houses scheduled to be removed in the immediate present are located on the following named streets: Carter, Main, Oak, Perkins, rear of Warren, Elm, Ferrin, Medford, Prospect, Tremont, and Lincoln place and Prospect terrace.

The 10 houses marked for destruction in Roxbury are all located on Terrace street. All of them are more than 75 years old and all of them have been condemned by the Building Department as structurally unsound and dangerous to public safety.

Other houses to be removed per order of the Health Department as a menace to public health are located on Raleigh road, Jamaica Plain, and Bowditch court, Roxbury.

Members of the Mayor's 15 District Rehabilitation and Conservation Committees, as well as numerous neighborhood groups interested in the checking of real estate blight and the renewal of their respective areas, are jubilant over the development of the demolition and restoration program, says Paul Hines, coordinator of the neighborhood rehabilitation and conservation program. "It is the dilapidated abandoned house that has impeded the progress of the city-wide rehabilitation movement more than any other factor," he says.

NEW DRAFT OF FEE SCHEDULES IN THE NOV. 10 ISSUE

The Committee on Ordinances of the City Council, on October 29, reported a new draft of the proposed revision of the schedule of fees for permits and special services charged by the city. This proposed revision was originally submitted to the Council on May 14.

The text of the revised proposed ordinance is included in the minutes of the October 29th meeting of the City Council which will appear in the City Record, issue of November 10.

A public hearing on the new draft will be held by the Executive Committee of the City Council before submitting the matter to the entire Body for final action.

Eunson, 214 Stratford street, West Roxbury, to be reimbursed as a result of an accident which occurred on December 22, 1955, when a motor vehicle belonging to the Police Department, which he was operating, collided with a truck owned by the Lake Service Corporation and operated by Joseph M. Petros, causing damage to same, by payment of $19.90.

FIN. COM. RECOMMENDS DEPARTMENTAL NOTICES IN ALL BID PROCEDURES

October 24, 1956.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission desires to call your attention to the fact that there is a loophole in the intended procedures of purchasing for city departments by which it can happen that the city may not obtain its needs at the best prices available to it. There is nothing in statute, ordinance, or Mayor's directive, or in prevailing practices which requires the City Purchasing Agent before he awards a contract to notify the department head who initiated the purchase of the prices and firms bidding in competition, or that it is proposed to award the contract to anyone in particular of the bidders.

Currently the Purchasing Agent, on requisition from a department head, will make all arrangements for a purchase. He assumes that there is nothing to warrant any interference with a decision by him to award to any particular bidder, except that he must obtain authorization from the Mayor under certain circumstances. After the contract has been executed, which includes the Mayor's approval, the Purchasing Agent simply sends the contract as executed to the requisitioning officer. It is then that the department head who wants the purchase learns officially exactly what has been purchased, from whom purchased, and the price to be paid. In other words, before the contract has been awarded to a bidder, there is no set practice of obtaining information from the department head which might bear on proper award.

There has been one episode recently which illustrates the possibility of loss of advantage to the city by a loophole in this procedure.

Some time ago the City Hospital administrative authorities decided that the animal cages used in connection with its laboratories were beyond repair. The doctor in charge of this service, authorized to arrange for replacement, consulted the Norwich Wire Works of New York, manufacturers of this type of equipment, to furnish drawings of suitable cages.

The drawings were accepted, and discussion took place as to the price which the Norwich Company would charge to make the cages. The Finance Commission has been informed by the Hospital authorities that at this time the Norwich Company representative verbally offered a price of $500 each for forty units of two cages and stated that the price per unit would be somewhat less if the number of units were increased above forty.

Informed by the City Auditor that bids must be solicited by advertising, the Hospital Superintendent made requisition to the Purchasing Division of the Administrative Services Department for purchase of the cages. The contract was advertised by the Purchasing Division on September 7, and executed by the Purchasing Division on September 14 to the lowest of these three bidders:

B. Feneno Company, Inc.....$45,840
Warren E. Collins, Inc.....$48,200
R. B. Mearn Company, Inc...$51,400

The drawings furnished by the Norwich Company were used as the basis of the bidding. In the solicitation for bids, the Purchasing Division described what was wanted as a bid to furnish "80 cages." Though it was thus referred to, since the Norwich Company drawings were the specifications, it meant the same thing as the private offering by the Norwich Company of forty units of two cages each.

It was not until this executed contract was received by the Hospital Superintendent that he learned who had bid, the amounts of the bids, and to whom the contract was awarded. Noting that the price to be paid to the bidder was $45,840 after having received a quotation of $20,000 from the Norwich Company, the Superintendent immediately conferred with the City Auditor as to what should now be done.

Subsequently the Auditor, the Superintendent of the City Hospital, and the City Purchasing Agent forwarded registered letters to the B. Feneno Company giving notice that the contract was being voided.

On September 17, which was three days after the contract had been executed, the Hospital Superintendent obtained from the Norwich Company a letter confirming the offer made verbally some weeks earlier to furnish the cages as specified in the drawings for $20,000. The Norwich Company had not submitted a bid to the Purchasing Division. Its representative claimed that its place of business being in New York, it was not familiar with the City Record which contained the only official notice of the call for bids. It had no knowledge therefore that bids were solicited.

It might be said that the Hospital Department was at fault in not volunteering to the Purchasing Division the information privately received and in failure to notify the Norwich Company, with whom it had had previous contact, that it must now offer a formal bid. It might be said also that had the practice been for the Purchasing Division to inform the Hospital Department, before award was made, of the result of the canvass of bids, the contract might not have been awarded to B. Feneno Company, Inc., at $45,840, or $25,840 more than the Norwich Company offered.

It would appear from this experience that either by Mayor's directive, or by ordinance, it should be required in all instances that an exchange of information should take place between department heads requisitioning purchase and the Purchasing Agent before consummation of a contract for which bids had been solicited by the Purchasing Division. Inasmuch as

BUSINESSMEN TO RAISE $20,000 FOR BOSTON'S CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL

William D. Ireland, president, Second Bank-State Street Trust Company, has been named chairman of the Finance Committee of the 1956 annual Boston Christmas festival.

Another appointment announced through the office of Mayor Hynes is that of Philip J. Potter, vice president of the same bank as vice chairman of the committee.

These two appointees will have the responsibility of raising $20,000 from among the civic and business leaders of Greater Boston during the next month to help finance this year's Christmas festival. The city administration will expend an additional $10,000.

The Mayor will announce appointment of a large group of representative civic and business leaders to assist Mr. Ireland and Mr. Potter.

Mayor's directives lapse with each mayor, and may sometimes be neglected by department officials, it would be best to obtain the desired control by ordinance.

The Commission, therefore, recommends that the Mayor and Council amend the purchasing ordinance as indicated.

Respectfully submitted,

H. W. DWIGHT RUDD, Chairman,

Water Billing Machine

The Mayor, on October 29, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Water Division of the Public Works Department for one (1) Burroughs Sensimatic Water Billing Machine No. F403, as manufactured by Burroughs Corporation. This company has submitted a written quotation on the above machine.

Inasmuch as Burroughs Corporation is the manufacturer of the particular machine requested, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for prices. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with public advertisement and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Burroughs Corporation for one (1) No. F403 Burroughs Sensimatic Water Billing Machine at $3,742, less $374.20, governmental discount, and less trade-in allowance on two (2) Remington-Rand Book-keeping Machines, No. Y130570 at $25 and No. Y153507 at $50, making the total amount of the contract $3,292.80, net, thirty days. Civilian employees in the department receiving salaries equal to the foregoing rates are asked to give according to the schedule. It is understood that this is a voluntary effort, but the attainment of a total donation of at least $5,000 will reflect credit upon the members of the department.

Pledge cards are being distributed to the department today. Company commanders and heads of branch divisions are requested to personally interview each member of their commands, including employees on injured leave, and ask them to make a contribution. All pledge cards are to be made out and returned to Headquarters on or before November 21, 1956. However, completed cards with initial donations should be sent to Headquarters as soon as possible before the foregoing date. Company commanders are requested not to hold a number of completed cards while awaiting the receipt of one or two others. Company commanders shall fill in the stub of the pledge card as requested and return the stub to the member donating money or pledging a contribution.

Also issued with this order is a solicitor's daily report envelope together with sheets of carbon paper. Company commanders are requested to fill out the front of these report envelopes, in triplicate, and pull the two white copies out over the flap of the envelope before the envelope is sealed. Carbon sheets should be used so that all three copies can be made simultaneously. List the names of members, the total amount subscribed by each member, and the amount paid at the time of the pledge. Cash donations and pledge cards should be placed in the report envelope, the envelope sealed as directed above, and forwarded to Headquarters as soon as possible. It is desired that company commanders return to Headquarters as many pledges as possible on or before 11 A.M., Thursday, November 1, 1956.

Company commanders are requested not to detach any of the white lists from the envelopes. It is important that the two white listing sheets be pulled out over the flap of the manila envelope before the envelope is sealed. Envelopes containing pledge cards and currency will be received at Headquarters by Clerk and Typist Dorothea P. Collins on or before November 21, 1956. Delivery of envelopes can be made on any weekday, except Saturday, and must be made between the hours of 9 and 11 A.M.

No deductions will be made on department payrolls in connection with this campaign as the pledge cards appear to indicate.

Posters concerning the campaign are being issued, one to be placed on the front of each fire station.

III. APPRECIATION.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to publish the following letter which was received from Mr. Gerard M. McCusker, 42 Hopkins road, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

"October 24, 1956.

DEAR SIR:

On Saturday, October 20, at 2 A.M., Mrs. McCusker awakened me in my bedroom, which was dense with smoke resulting from a fire that had been in progress for some time.

I immediately telephoned for assistance and within minutes apparatus of Engine 28 and Ladder 10 responded and were followed by additional apparatus from other station houses located as far away as Roslindale square.

It is with deep appreciation that I extend heartfelt thanks and acknowledge the tremendous effect exerted by the members of these companies, and noted the efficient and vigorous methods employed in fighting a fire of this type, especially in view of the fact that this was their second serious fire within a matter of hours.

Mrs. McCusker and I will always remember the thoughtfulness of every man on the scene without exception, for their high regard of our personal property, and disregard of their own personal safety; and their unhesitating entrance into the fire area.

I am happy to learn that of the three cases of exhaustion and smoke inhalation, Acting District Chief W. A. Maraghy who was confined to the Boston City Hospital has completely recovered and that no loss of life or permanent injury occurred.

I am enclosing herewith my personal check in the amount of $100, payable to the Boston Firemen's Relief Fund, with the hope that in some small way this will benefit the members of the Boston Fire Department, who every day are prepared to expose themselves to those unlimited dangers termed 'in line of duty.'

Gratefully yours,

GERARD M. MCCUSKER."

By order of Fire Commissioner
FRANCIS X. COTTER.

LEO C. DRISCOLL,
Chief of Department.

Be Thankful For Red Feather

INVOCATION BY REV. FOGARTY.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Direct all our actions, we beseech Thee, O God, and carry them on by Thy powerful assistance that every thought, word, and action of ours may begin from Thee and be ended happily by Thee.

In our endeavors to serve Thee well, O God, grant us a greater love of Thee and a greater love of souls. Bless the members of this City Council and their work, and inspire them to see that in serving their fellowman they are serving Thee.

Give to these here present a realization and appreciation of all the virtues which they are to practice in order to please Thee, but especially a keen sense of the virtue of justice, in the administration of the affairs of our great city, for Thou hast commanded us: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His justice and all things else shall be added unto you."

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE TO HERBERT A. PHILBRICK.

On motion of Councillor Ahearn the rules were suspended on the order of business to allow him to offer the following resolutions:

Whereas, Mr. Herbert A. Philbrick demonstrated by his activities as an F.B.I. secret agent extraordinary courage and loyalty to the United States of America; and

Whereas, Mr. Herbert A. Philbrick at great personal risk to himself and his family undertook with remarkable success the assignment of a counterspy in the communist underground for nine years; and

Whereas, The work of Mr. Herbert A. Philbrick was an invaluable contribution and enabled our government to learn important facts not otherwise available about the actions and plans of an enemy dedicated to the violent overthrow of our government; and

Whereas, The chronicle of Mr. Philbrick's activities as an F.B.I. secret agent on a three-year television series entitled "I Led Three Lives" was just recently concluded; and

Whereas, Said television program provided not only fine entertainment but served to educate the public in a graphic and dramatic manner in the devious and clever methods of communists and the true nature and purpose of communism with all the brutal and inhuman tactics of the Communist party members; and

Whereas, The facts of the plots and techniques of communism revealed on the program "I Led Three Lives" served to prove the necessity of constant vigilance against communism and served as a powerful force against un-American and subversive activities; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, is happy to salute Herbert A. Philbrick, an American patriot, and expresses the Council's gratitude for the great work he has done for our country and congratulates him on the recent successful conclusion of the television series "I Led Three Lives" which served to educate America as to the true nature and evil of communism.

COMMENDATIONS TO NARRAGANSETT BREWING COMPANY.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

Whereas, The medium of television now reaching into almost every home in our community has become one of the most important factors in educating and influencing the thinking of our people; and

Whereas, Many television programs sponsored by business because of the type of subject presented and the manner of portrayal are detrimental to our people, especially our youth, and follow a low standard of entertainment with no value by way of information and education; and

Whereas, The community should take notice of and encourage the better television programs which have a high purpose, are done in good taste and which therefore are in the nature of a public service; and

Whereas, The television series entitled "I Led Three Lives" was a television program in the nature of a public service in that it served to reveal and dramatize the evils of communism as well as provide good entertainment; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, hereby commends the Narragansett Brewing Company of Cranston, Rhode Island, for sponsoring over a period of three years the television program "I Led Three Lives" recently concluded and which provided good entertainment and also served to educate and remind the public of the true nature and purpose of communism, namely, an enemy organization devoted to the violent overthrow of our government and the use of every tactic, evil and illegal, to achieve its objective.

The resolutions were severally adopted under suspension of the rules.

REPAIR OF PIER AT COMMERCIAL BEACH.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 15, 1956.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith further communication from the Commissioner of Parks and Recreation concerning your order of August 20, 1956, relative to specific instances of vandalism for each year at the lower section of the pier at Commercial Beach, so called, in the North End section of the city.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Parks and Recreation Department,
October 3, 1956.

Harold B. Flemming,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

Receipt of memo from your office dated September 27 is hereby acknowledged. The matter of repair of the North End pier has been presented to us previously. As pointed out in my letter of September 10, it was impossible to keep up with the repairs required to the pier. The expense would be great and we have no funds within our budget for repairs.

Your most recent request regarding this pier comes to us in the form of a memo from City Clerk Walter J. Malloy in which he states that Councillor Piemonte desires a report as to the specific instances of vandalism.

It is impossible to give the dates and occasions of the vandalism because in most instances it was not known until after the damage had been caused.

This is an old structure and should be torn down unless sufficient funds are provided for reconstruction. To reconstruct the pier would be a major expense.

Very truly yours,
FRANK R. KELLEY, Chairman.

P.S. We have placed in our "Capital Budget" an item for repair of this pier. This has been submitted to the Planning Board.

The message of the Mayor submitted on September 24, 1956, and the foregoing message were severally placed on file.

No. 45

PLANS FILED FOR BOSTON HARBOR TRAFFIC SPAN

The Massachusetts Port Authority has filed with the United States Army Engineers at Boston a set of plans for a fixed, high-level bridge to span Boston's inner harbor as a possible second vehicular crossing to East Boston connecting the Central Artery with the northeast road network. The newly-created, state-authorized agency has also filed specifications for an alternative vehicular tube crossing similar to the Sumner Tunnel. These actions were taken in compliance with the statute which created the new port authority—chapter 465, Acts of 1956.

The state port authority act directs that either a tunnel or bridge be built to ease congestion in the existing Sumner Tunnel and to fit into the master highway program. All indications, at present, seem to point toward a bridge. The statute bears the following lengthy title:

"An Act Providing for the Construction of an Additional Vehicular Crossing Between Boston Proper and East Boston; Creating the Massachusetts Port Authority and Defining Its Powers and Duties; Providing for the Issuance of Revenue Bonds of the Authority, Payable Solely from Tolls and Other Revenues, Financing Such Additional Crossing, Refinancing the Existing Tunnel and the Mystic River Bridge and Refinancing and Improving the State-Owned Airports and Port of Boston Facilities; and Providing for the Transfer to Said Authority of Said Existing Tunnel, Bridge, Airport and Port Facilities."

Pending formal purchase of Sumner Tunnel by the Massachusetts Port Authority for the sum of $15 million, as specified in the act, the City of Boston continues to maintain the traffic tube.

According to the bridge plans filed with the Army Engineers, a triple-span suspension bridge, with terminals just north of T Wharf on the Boston shore and Commonwealth Pier No. 1 in East Boston, would cross the harbor approximately a seventh of a mile below the Charlestown Naval Shipyard, according to the plans. The 1,000-foot center, or navigational span, would hang 144.5 feet above the high-tide mark. Supporting towers would rise 320 feet above the low water level.

Interested parties, who must approve the plans, have been supplied specifications by the Army. These include the Navy Department, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, Waterways Division, the Boston Public Works Department, and major shipping interests, according to Henry A. Whitcomb, chief of the Engineers' Operations Division. "I doubt if there will be any trouble securing such approval," Whitcomb said.

If the Navy decides that the bridge would not impede the access to the Charlestown Navy Yard and the shipping firms in the same area approve, the plans need only State Public Works approval, according to Whitcomb. The Army Engineers would then make recommendations that a permit for construction of the bridge be issued in Washington. However, the Massachusetts Port Authority must first decide which shall be built—the tunnel or the bridge.

Ephraim A. Brest, chairman of the Port Authority, stated that "cost will be a determining factor," but he declined to give an estimate of the bridge construction cost at this time. He did say that such a bridge would cost "far less" than the $75 million to $100 million figures which Public Works engineers estimated after a study in 1955. Estimates on the construction of a traffic tube similar to Sumner Tunnel range from $38 million to $50 million.

Boston Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland stated that the City of Boston has made no official preference between a tunnel and a bridge. He personally is inclined to favor a bridge because of its greater asset as a traffic-handling facility and its greater ease of maintenance. Chairman Brest announced further that official estimates on the bridge cost would be released by his office later this month.

The Army Engineers also hesitate to estimate the cost of a bridge. Mr. Whitcomb merely says: "It's going to be expensive."

Interested parties, including Boston's Public Works Department, have been given until December to file any statements on the bridge plan "in the interest of navigation and land transportation," according to the Army Engineers' announcement.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

FIN. COM. REPORTS ON OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES

October 31, 1956.

To the Honorable the Mayor.

The Finance Commission desires to address you in regard to some of the problems involved in the production of off-street parking facilities. At irregular intervals in the past, the Commission has characterized the progress being made in this area of municipal activity as sluggish.

There have been liberal appropriations for garages for off-street parking, and there is authority vested in the city by legislative enactment to produce the garages. Nevertheless, the observation of the Finance Commission as stated in its reports was that progress in production of garage facilities was slow. Yet for lack of adequate facilities for off-street parking in the "downtown" business area, the streets continue to serve as parking areas and traffic often is forced to move at "a snail's pace" as a result.

As long ago as in 1950, the Finance Commission urged the creation of a "Parking Authority as a means of getting an authorized program consummated." (Vol. 46, Fin. Com. Reports.)

In the ten years which have elapsed since the legislative authorization in 1946 to the city to construct off-street parking garages, only three municipal garages have been constructed and are in operation. The first (Essex and Lincoln streets) was city-built on a city-owned site and then leased to a private corporation. For the second (Winthrop square and Federal street) and third (Post Office square), the city acquired the sites and then, under leases, gave the projects over to private corporations which built according to city plans and specifications. These lease offers were obtained by public advertising of calls for proposals.

In 1954 the city attempted to produce on St. James avenue a fourth garage by acquiring a site and offering to private capital the opportunity to lease and build. Finding no response to this effort to obtain private capital for the undertaking, contract was made by the city directly for the construction of the garage. This construction is now under way. Presumably it will be offered for lease when completed.

In the last few months, due to City Council and civic organizations activity, progress has been stepped up. The contract to lease another project (Hayward place) has been awarded to representatives of local capital on a lease basis (the lessee to construct a garage on land taken by the city). In another instance, by city authorization (Fort Hill square), an architect has drawn plans for a garage on land acquired by the city from the state. In another (Bedford street), the site has been acquired by the city, and an architect has been selected to draw plans.

The Real Property Board has determined on a taking for another garage at Central and Kilby streets, but a petition by the owner to restrain the taking has halted the project. An architect has been retained who has already submitted preliminary plans. For another, the Real Property Board has decided to acquire land on Blackstone street. The site has not yet been acquired, and, therefore, the planning is only in the preliminary stage. Other projects are under consideration, but no final decisions have been made in regard to them.

The garages already constructed appear to have been successful ventures for the lessees. The Essex-Lincoln Streets project cost the city in the vicinity of $700,000 for land and building, and the lessee pays an annual rental of $96,000. The Winthrop Square project cost the city for land about $650,000. The lessee built the building and pays the city an annual rental of $61,500. The Post Office Square project cost the city $1,373,550 for land. The lessee built the building and pays an annual rental of $56,000. In the latter two of these instances the city was able to attract private capital, which saved the city borrowing of funds for construction.

In the three garages now in operation the method of rise from ground level to upper levels is by ramps. Though there are some who contend that rise by ramps is best and feasible in a building of any height, nevertheless, it is a fact that there are many who do not like driving up more than a few ramps; and ramps materially reduce the parking area within a building.

In the instance of the Hayward Place Garage project, the Real Property Board decided that because of the size of the lot involved and the need for spaces in that location, a multi-level garage is needed and therefore advantage should be taken of a fairly new idea in garages—using a mechanical rise facility. At the time this decision was made it appears there were only two mechanical rise garages in operation, though there were a half dozen others in the experimental or planning stage. This decision to depart from a policy of exclusively using ramp-type garages was therefore a critical point of departure from previous practice.

The first legislative authorization for public off-street parking facilities in Boston (chapter 474, Acts of 1946) limited the city to construction of the garage and then leasing its operation. However, an amendment in 1948 (chapter 612, Acts of 1948) contained this language in the first section: "that it is not in the public interest to expend public funds in the building of structures on off-street parking facilities when private capital is available therefor." This indicated that the sentiment of the Legislature was, as it was indeed the desire of those who petitioned for the legislation, that private capital be obtained for construction, if possible. Section 2 of the act accordingly added the power to lease for the purpose of construction and operation. Nevertheless, it remains within the discretion of the Real Property Board to follow one course or the other, depending on circumstances.

While the city in two instances (Winthrop square and Post Office square) was successful in obtaining private capital to finance garage projects by public advertising, when it advertised its next project, St. James avenue, private capital did not respond on any of three calls for bids. Therefore the project had to be constructed by the city itself.

When in the spring of 1955 the Real Property Board came to the stage of starting the Hayward Place Garage project, the Board conferred with William Nelson Jacobs, architect, as the result of which Mr. Jacobs set his office staff to work gathering informative material in regard to mechanical devices for parking cars in garages. Under date of May 25, Mr. Jacobs received from the Chairman of the Real Property Board his only written instructions (prior to the formal contract) as to what the Board expected of him. This was a brief letter informing him that the Board had commissioned him to draw plans for a garage to accommodate 750 cars, the cost not to exceed $1,250,000. The estimated cost was subsequently changed to $1,450,000. Before Mr. Jacobs had made a report to the Real Property Board, he passed away. Thereafter there was a reorganization of the firm, and conferences between the Real Property Board and the new head of the firm began. In these conferences the architect was instructed to provide a ceiling height which would permit of converting the building to other uses in the event parking cars there was abandoned.

A written contract for the services of the architect was not executed until October 27 following. Article 2 of this contract requires preliminary studies to be made by the architect to furnish the Board suggestions and recommendations with respect to the basic ideas of the structure, and to consult with the Board thereto.

Thereafter, to add to the information he had already gathered, the architect visited places where two parking devices were in operation, the so-called Bowser System, an overhead electric lift, and the so-called Pigeon Hole System, a hydraulic hoist. He informed the Finance Commission that he could not find that any other systems were then in such use as to make a visit to them worth while.

The conclusion at which he arrived, which he claims he submitted to the Real Property Board, was that the paucity of proven and sizable installations at that time compelled only one conclusion: that there were only two systems which could merit consideration. The survey, therefore, in its detailed form became a comparative analysis of the characteristics of efficiency and economy of these two systems.

Apart from the conclusions of a cost and efficiency analysis, much of which is a matter in dispute between the representatives of the two mentioned companies, the architect admitted to the Finance Commission that the requirements of convertibility for future use and the presence of safety gates at all floor levels, which were set by the Real Property Board, forced the conclusion at that time that only one system could meet requirements, namely, the Bowser System. To house 750 cars on levels 10 feet high would require a building of 12 levels, which the architect claims it appeared at that time was higher than a hydraulic system which is used in the Pigeon Hole device could go or be used with safety.

The Finance Commission is not competent to pass on the relative merits of the several mechanical garage systems. It cannot resolve the controversy between the representatives of the Bowser and Pigeon Hole Systems. But enough has been testified at the hearings before the Council and discovered by investigation to enable the Finance Commission to make the following observations.

The field of mechanical parking is so new that it is evolving and expanding, and with its growth have come new improvements and new companies. This is true even in the short space of time since the survey mentioned above was made for the city. The original survey made in 1955 cannot be said to be a valid picture of the field today.

The Real Property Board should now make no policy of adoption of any one system of mechanical parking which would bar future consideration of any but one. The emerging character of this field makes a fixed policy decision at this time premature. Two significant studies, reportedly, are being made by authoritative organizations in this field, which indicate the developing character of mechanical parking. One is the joint study by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Standards Association; the other is a study by the Eno Foundation for Highway Traffic Control.

The particular field of competence most closely related to mechanical parking is that of professional engineering. It is important, therefore, that competent mechanical engineering advice be employed to draw up specifications for future installations that will spell out the most efficient and economical installation and provide the widest possible competition in bidding.

Since convertibility to a future different use was such an important factor in limiting competitive bidding to one type of system, and since the actual conversion would represent such a great expense, the requirement should be reappraised. Reappraisal of the requirement for safety gates at each floor level is also indicated, since that requirement was challenged in the hearings before the City Council committee.

Another recommendation made before the City Council committee which merits exploration (and this proposal has been made previously by writers in this field) is that a policy of concentrating on many smaller-sized lots rather than fewer larger-sized lots as the sites for off-street parking ought to be considered. Reasons for this consideration are: 1) mechanical installations are especially designed for relatively small lots; 2) smaller lots offer a wider choice of location as well as land cost; 3) they have the advantage of reducing the impact on and interference with traffic flow by reducing the number of cars converging on or leaving one garage.

One question underlying the hearings before the City Council committee appears to be "Was there an 'a priori' decision on the part of the municipal authorities which favored the system eventually adopted for Hayward place?" This question is not easily answered. The Finance Commission has learned that local persons became identified with the Bowser System long before the contract was advertised for bidding.

Another matter brought out at the hearings which may call for legal clarification is whether the requirement set by the Real Property Board that the floors be 10 feet in height is consonant with the law which authorizes off-street parking. The question raised was whether the extra cost involved, which was occasioned by the requirement for future convertibility, presented an expenditure for parking purposes. This is a matter of interpretation of the law on the subject which the Finance Commission leaves to the legal officers of the city.

There is an important aspect of this whole matter which has been insufficiently discussed thus far. In this case, it develops that a private operator, at an annual rental of $60,000, stands to earn a profit of some hundreds of thousands of dollars per year in the operation of the Hayward Place project. This was made possible because a minimum amount was bid by the only bidder. While the law suggests that in the off-street parking program the city must first seek private financing before using municipal funds, it does not expressly require it. In the Hayward place instance, the architect who made the survey for the Real Property Board has stated to the Finance Commission that he had estimated that the net profit to the operators might be between $300,000 and $400,000 per year. Yet the one bid received by the Board, which became the contract, offered a lease price of $60,000, the minimum then estimated by the Board which the statute would allow. In this circumstance it would seem that an effort should have been made to obtain a better price in another call for bids.

In regard to the decision of the Real Property Board to prescribe a particular type of mechanical riser in the contract to construct the building, difference of opinion exists, but a representative of the Law Department stated at a City Council hearing that the method followed in the Hayward place instance was perfectly legal. It might be well before another such call for bids is made to have written opinion by the Corporation Counsel on this point.

Respectfully submitted,

The other bidders were:

John J. Botti, $8,750; Charles Todesca, $12,500; Dooley Brothers, Inc., $12,950; M. J. Hughes Construction Company, $12,975; V. J. Armata, $13,625; Joseph Amara & Son, $13,950; James A. Freaney, Inc., $19,000.

"Due to an inadvertence, the James Scimone firm neglected to insert his unit price for removal of abandoned gas lampposts in various streets of the City of Boston on the copy of his proposal as filed with the City Auditor. However, his proposal as filed with this department was complete and in proper form.

"As will be seen from an examination of the proposed contract prices for the various bidders, James Scimone in fact submitted the lowest price for the work. Therefore, I propose, subject to your Honor's approval, to reject all bids, and award the subject contract, without public advertising, to James Scimone, 24 Tilton street, Roxbury, in the amount of $8,000, plus the sum of $2,000, the allowable expenditure under the so-called 25 per cent provision of our standard form of contract in excess of the total amount of the bid, thereby making a proposed contract sum not to exceed $10,000."

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed December 31, 1956.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Plans and Specifications

The Mayor, on October 29, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

We respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to Wallace B. Orpin, 1381 Commonwealth avenue, Brighton, Mass., for full engineering services in connection with the preparation of plans and specifications for the construction of additional parking facilities, Boston City Hospital.

The removal of the Superintendent's House opens more available space for the parking area, and it is proposed to enlarge the present parking area by including the area formerly occupied by the house.

The estimated cost of the work is not to exceed the sum of $20,000, and the engineer is to be paid a fee equal to 5 per cent of the full amount of the work.

The engineering contract will include supervisory services to be rendered during the process of construction.

Because of the professional nature of the services required, the trustees are of the opinion that there would be nothing gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

TRUSTEES OF THE HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT,
AND OF THE BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

Binding Machinery

The Mayor, on October 29, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Trustees of the Public Library respectfully request the approval of your Honor for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Gane Brothers & Co. of New York, Inc., 480 Canal street, New York, for the purchase of a Pleger self-centering air model roller backer.

The roller backer is a key machine in the binding of books and will replace an old Pleger manual-operated machine in the Binding Department which is in need of constant repair. Since this is a proprietary item and can be purchased only from Gane Brothers & Co., of New York, Inc., the trustees have therefore "Voted, That there be entered into, without public advertising, with Gane Brothers & Co. of New York, Inc., 30 Canal street, New York, a contract for the purchase of a Pleger self-centering air model roller in an amount not in excess of two thousand and eighty-five dollars ($2,085)."

Inasmuch as the cost of the roller backer will exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), there is requested permission of your Honor to enter into this contract without advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON,
by MILTON E. LORD, Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Refilling Broom Cores

The Mayor, on November 1, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of April 17 of the current year, your authority was obtained to the awarding of contracts, without publicly advertising for proposals, to the New England Broom and Supply Company, Jamaica Plain, in an amount of $3,500, and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company of Needham in a similar amount, for refilling broom cores used on our Elgin and Wayne street-cleaning machines.

During the current year, we have conducted an extensive street-cleaning program and, therefore, we have worn out more mechanical street-cleaning brooms than we estimated early this year. The amounts authorized, therefore, under the provisions of the above-referenced contracts have been expended, but it will be necessary to continue this type of service during the remainder of the current year and for the first three months of next year as we use street-cleaning machines at every opportunity, even during the winter months if weather permits. No advantage would accrue, in my opinion, by publicly advertising for bids for this work, as the Bleiler Company is the authorized agent for the Elgin sweeper in this area, and the New England Broom and Supply Company specializes in this type of work and has been performing it for the department satisfactorily for a number of years.

I respectfully request, therefore, your authority to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the New England Broom and Supply Company of 191 Forest Hills street, Jamaica Plain, in an amount not to exceed $3,000, and to the E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, 15 Crawford street, Needham, in an amount not to exceed $3,000, for refilling broom cores used on our Elgin and Wayne street-cleaning machines during the remainder of the current year and for the first three months of next year.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION.

Extension of Time Limit

The Mayor, on October 31, granted an extension of time on a contract originally awarded, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR MAYOR HYNES:

On April 16, 1956, your Honor authorized the awarding of a $60,000 contract to the National Waterproofing Company, to perform the pointing and waterproofing of the exterior walls of the old Court House building. On May 29, 1956, the contract was actually executed. In the process of performing the work included in the principal contract, the contractor was able to discover that certain inside cast-iron pipe drains were corroded badly and in need of immediate replacement. On October 16, 1956, your Honor approved a request to have this work performed as an amendment to the original contract at a cost not to exceed an additional $6,000.

The original contract carries a completion date of November 1, 1956, and in order that the work specified in the amendment to the contract can be performed, the Court House Commission respectfully requests that the completion date of the contract as amended be extended to December 31, 1956. The work specified in the original contract has been completed.

Very truly yours,

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
by ARNO I. DREW,
Chairman.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, October 29, 1956.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m., Senior Member WHITE in the chair. Absent, Councillor McCormack.

The Reverend Samuel Tyler, Jr., of Trinity Church, Boston, left the following prayer to be read in the record.

PRAYER OF REV. SAMUEL TYLER, Jr.

Our Father, Who has set a restlessness in our hearts and made us all seekers after that which we can never fully find, forbid us to be satisfied with what we make of life. Draw us from base content, and set our eyes on far-off goals. Keep us at tasks too hard for us that we may be driven to Thee for strength and so help us not to pray for proper tasks equal to our power, but power equal to our tasks.

To all in authority in government, give wise and understanding hearts, that they may desire to strive for a community of the people in which both groups and individuals can find their lives fulfilled. Increase in them faith, hope, and perseverance. Grant that among the multitudes no hasty passions may weaken the hands of those whose undimmed devotion is given to the building of a city in which justice and law, understanding and tolerance, love and peace, shall reign according to Thy will.

All of which we ask in the name of the master of all mankind, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

COMMENDATIONS TO JEWISH WAR VETERANS.

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting, assembled, desires to heartily congratulate and highly commend the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, Department of Massachusetts, Samuel Magazine, commander, for their splendid efforts in aiding Israel in its struggle for independence through their sponsorship of the film "Hill 24 Doesn't Answer," a real life story of Israel's battle for a place among the nations of the world.

DEFINITE DATE TO COMPLY WITH HEALTH STANDARD CODE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, October 25, 1956.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Health Commissioner relative to your order of October 1, 1956, with reference to Regulations Establishing Minimum Standards of Fitness for Human Habitation in the City of Boston.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Health Department, October 16, 1956.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge a communication from your office under date of October 5, 1956, relative to a Council order of October 1, 1956, with reference to Regulations Establishing Minimum Standards of Fitness for Human Habitation in the City of Boston.

In accordance with the Acts of 1954, chapter 209, section 128C, the final sentence in this section sets forth that "Regulations made by a local board of health shall become effective upon passage by the board, and publication once in a newspaper of local distribution."

The desirability of establishing a future date and setting forth a particular time when Minimum Standards of Fitness for Human Habitation in the City of Boston would become effective was seriously considered by the Health Department before the same were adopted. However, the requirements of the statute are very specifically set forth in section 128A, chapter 209 of the Acts of 1954, above quoted.

The situation is that the Minimum Standards of Fitness for Human Habitation in the City of Boston are now in effect; and the Health Department, with the force of inspectors available, is attempting to start a survey in each individual district by individual inspectors in order that the provisions of the minimum standards shall be enforced.

Respectfully,
JOHN H. CAULEY, M.D.,
Health Commissioner.

Coun. McLAUGHLIN in the chair.

In connection with the foregoing message Councillor Piemonte offered the following motion: Moved, That this be remanded to the Health Commissioner with the suggestion that he give serious consideration to inserting a compliance statement in the minimum standards promulgated by his department.

The motion was carried.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON PURCHASING PROCEDURE.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Finance Commission, October 24, 1956.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission desires to call your attention to the fact that there is a loophole in the intended procedures of purchasing for city departments by which it can happen that the city may not obtain its needs at the best prices available to it. There is nothing in statute, ordinance, or Mayor's directive, or in prevailing practices which requires the City Purchasing Agent before he awards a contract to notify the department head who initiated the purchase of the prices and firms bidding in competition, or that it is proposed to award the contract to anyone in particular of the bidders.

Currently the Purchasing Agent, on requisition from a department head, will make all arrangements for a purchase. He assumes that there is nothing to warrant any interference with a decision by him to award to any particular bidder, except that he must obtain authorization from the Mayor under certain circumstances. After the contract has been executed, which includes the Mayor's approval, the Purchasing Agent simply sends the contract as executed to the requisitioning officer. It is then that the department head who wants the purchase learns officially exactly what has been purchased, from whom purchased, and the price to be paid. In other words, before the contract has been awarded to a bidder, there is no set practice of obtaining information from the department head which might bear on proper award.

There has been one episode recently which illustrates the possibility of loss of advantage to the city by a loophole in this procedure.

Some time ago the City Hospital administrative authorities decided that the animal cages used in connection with its laboratories were beyond repair. The doctor in charge of this service, authorized to arrange for replacement, consulted the Norwich Wire Works of New York, manufacturers of this type of equipment, to furnish drawings of suitable cages.

The drawings were accepted, and discussion took place as to the price which the Norwich Company would charge to make the cages. The Finance Commission has been informed by the Hospital authorities that at this time the Norwich Company representative verbally offered a price of $500 each for forty units of two cages and stated that the price per unit would be somewhat less if the number of units were increased above forty.

Informed by the City Auditor that bids must be solicited by advertising, the Hospital Superintendent made requisition to the Purchasing Division of the Administrative Services Department for purchase of the cages. The contract was advertised by the Purchasing Division on September 7, and executed by the Purchasing Division on September 14 to the lowest of these three bidders:

B. Feneno Company, Inc., $45,840; Warren E. Collins, Inc., $48,200; R. B. Mearns Company, Inc., $51,400.

The drawings furnished by the Norwich Company were used as the basis of the bidding. In the solicitation for bids, the purchasing division described what was wanted as a bid to furnish "80 cages." Though it was thus referred to, since the Norwich Company drawings were the specifications, it meant the same thing as the private offering by the Norwich Company of forty units of two cages each.

It was not until this executed contract was received by the Hospital Superintendent that he learned who had bid, the amounts of the bids, and to whom the contract was awarded. Noting that the price to be paid to the bidder was $15,840 after having received a quotation of $20,000 from the Norwich Company, the Superintendent immediately conferred with the City Auditor as to what should now be done.

Subsequently the Auditor, the Superintendent of the City Hospital, and the City Purchasing Agent forwarded registered letters to the B. Feneno Company giving notice that the contract was being voided.

On September 17, which was three days after the contract had been executed, the Hospital Superintendent obtained from the Norwich Company a letter confirming the offer made verbally some weeks earlier to furnish the cages as specified in the drawings for $20,000. The Norwich Company had not submitted a bid to the Purchasing Division. Its representative claimed that its place of business being in New York, it was not familiar with the "City Record" which contained the only official notice of the call for bids. It had no knowledge therefore that bids were solicited.

It might be said that the Hospital Department was at fault in not volunteering to the Purchasing Division the information privately received and in failure to notify the Norwich Company with whom it had had a previous contact, that it must now offer a formal bid. It might be said also that had the practice been for the Purchasing Division to inform the Hospital Department, before award was made, of the result of the canvass of bids, the contract might not have been awarded to B. Feneno Company, Inc., at $45,840, or $25,840 more than the Norwich Company offered.

It would appear from this experience that either by Mayor's directive, or by ordinance, it should be required in all instances that an exchange of information should take place between department heads requisitioning purchase and the Purchasing Agent before consummation of a contract for which bids had been solicited by the Purchasing Division. Inasmuch as mayors' directives lapse with each mayor, and may sometimes be neglected by department officials, it would be best to obtain the desired control by ordinance.

The Commission, therefore, recommends that the Mayor and Council amend the purchasing ordinance as indicated.

Respectfully submitted,

H. W. DWIGHT RUDD, Chairman,
LEO J. DUNN,
EDWARD U. LEE,
ROGER J. ABIZAID, M.D.,
HENRY A. SASSERNO,
The Finance Commission.

ROBERT E. CUNIFF,
Secretary.

LAND LEASE RENEWAL

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor, on October 29, approved the renewal of a lease for a small parcel of park land in Dorchester, based on the following communication from the Parks and Recreation Commissioner:

DEAR SIR:

Since 1939 this department has rented, under successive leases, a parcel of land on Freeport street, Dorchester, to Mr. Vernon L. Hart, of 296 Freeport street, for use as a boat yard. One year ago the Commonwealth took the major portion of this land for highway construction purposes, leaving us a small parcel approximately 230 x 175 feet. The original area included a portion of the water front, which has now been relinquished to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Hart then requested and was granted a lease for this small remaining area, on which he continued to conduct his boat-building business. He paid a yearly rental of $160 for this area, the same amount that he formerly paid for the much larger area, and in addition he pays to the city the taxes assessed on the land and on the three buildings which he has erected thereon.

The current yearly lease ends on October 31, 1956. Mr. Hart has requested that a new lease be awarded for another year and that this lease be made jointly to him and to the Bay State Boat Company, Cambridge, of which Mr. Robert B. Eagan is proprietor.

As this department has no use for this small parcel of land and as Mr. Hart has always been a satisfactory tenant, I respectfully request your approval for the award of a joint lease to Vernon L. Hart and Bay State Boat Company for the term of one year beginning November 1, 1956, and ending on October 31, 1957, at a yearly rental of $160.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
 Commissioner.

HUB DWELLING UNITS UP 16,625 IN DECADE

Preliminary statistics on the number of family dwelling units in the City of Boston compiled by the City Planning Board in its urban renewal studies indicate a net increase of 16,625 units in the post-war decade from January 1, 1946, to January 1, 1956.

Public housing accounted for the construction of 7,772 dwelling units and private housing for 8,638 units.

Family dwelling units added by alteration totaled 5,043 during the post-war period and virtually balanced the units eliminated by demolition or alteration, which totaled 4,718.

The statistics, compiled in cooperation with the Building Department of the city, revealed that the net increase of family units during the post-war period ranged from a high of 3,760 in 1951 to 526 in 1955.

This increase in family dwelling units may be compared with the federal census report on household units although the definition of household units is more inclusive than that of family dwelling units. A net increase of between 10,000 and 14,000 household units took place in Boston during the decades 1930-40 and 1940-50, according to the federal census. The net increase in household units in the decade 1920-30 was estimated by the federal census to have been approximately 33,000.

During the first nine months of 1956 a net decrease of 55 dwelling units is estimated to have occurred in Boston, the first such decrease during the post-war period. During 1956, a new high of 768 dwelling units were eliminated by demolition.

The preliminary research does not estimate the number of family units abandoned or vacant. However, much of the oldest housing in the city has outlived its usefulness and is being abandoned. The Planning Board attributes this trend basically to the fact that a large number of dwelling units were constructed in the City of Boston between 1870 and 1910 when the population increased almost 270 per cent from 250,526 to 670,585.

The present total of family dwelling units in the City of Boston is estimated to be 238,754.

About one half of all the homes in Boston are in areas which are either slums or in danger of becoming slums, according to the Boston Municipal Research Bureau. In a 17-page report, issued November 3, the Bureau said that about 57,000 dwelling units, or about 26 per cent of the city's total, are located in "badly-blighted areas."

The city is developing slums faster than they are being replaced and what efforts have been made to date have only scratched the surface, the report said. It called urban renewal "the city's most important function, one which will be with it forever," and suggested three immediate steps to speed the program:

1. New legislation to allow the city to set up a separate urban authority to bring continuity, coordination, and direction to the program. (A state act of 1952 gave all the cities and towns but Boston authority to set up a central urban renewal group).

2. An enlarged and better-paid City Planning Board which can properly perform its essential role in urban renewal.

3. The development of a definite plan for applying the new housing code and other codes on an area basis.

The report added that several cities in Massachusetts have already adopted the central urban renewal form of organization. Others are considering the step. "The law must be changed to give Boston the same opportunity," the report said.

B. C. SEMINAR HEARS ANOTHER PHASE OF BOSTON'S PLIGHT

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DIRECTOR ADDRESSES FIRST 1956-57 SESSION

Following are the remarks of John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services, at the first 1956-57 session of the Boston College Seminars, Tuesday, November 13:

The problems confronting the corporate City of Boston are essentially no different than the problems which are found at the core of all large metropolitan cities in America. These problems are directly traceable to the great changes which have taken place in our way of life since the automobile has come into general use. It may be an oversimplification of the problem but, as a real estate man, I am inclined to think of these problems in terms of the number of square feet which are required in order to carry on any operation involving the use of land or the space within buildings.

When we consider that, under an older organization of our society, persons entering the central city would require possibly no more than 10 square feet of space in some mass transportation vehicle, whereas now we must find something in the neighborhood of 250 square feet for a terminal facility for his personal automobile, we begin to get some notion of the strain on the existing space and the consequent pushing out of the boundaries that formerly contained the greater part of the economic life of this community.

If downtown Boston was actually not the Hub of the Universe it certainly was the hub of the economic community which radiated from Boston Harbor to the north and west and south.

A business establishment in downtown Boston was centrally located in relation to the distribution of goods to all points of the compass and customers and salesmen could move from the center outward with great facility. But the automobile and the sheer impact of the physical presence of these vehicles within the limits of the city constitutes the principal reason why we are called upon to answer the question "What is the matter with Boston?"

The matter with Boston is the fact that it has grown old and the patterns of land use within the city are inefficient in relation to the needs of a civilization on wheels. The proof of this contention that our land areas have become unproductive is found in the constantly decreasing valuation of real property, the loss of population, and the lack of new construction to offset the deterioration of the uneconomic types of space built for the needs of another generation. It is a problem which has engaged the attention of the state government, Metropolitan District Commission, the city government, and every civic-minded group in the area.

Intensive Road Programs

The State and Metropolitan District Commissions, through intensive road programs, have made it easier to enter the city, and by the same token, they have made it easier to get out of the city. If we think of the new central artery and the feeder arteries, such as Southeast Expressway and Northeast Expressway, now under construction and projected as one half the wheel, and Route 128 as the other half of the wheel, we begin to realize that downtown Boston is nearer the rim than it is the hub for at least the purposes of automobile transportation.

The impact of this change in the utility of land at the center of the city should be quite evident, as it relates to retail and wholesale trade. When the central artery and Southeast Expressway are completed, a baker, for instance, in Quincy will be able to compete in Lynn and the North Shore, areas which were impossible for him to reach prior to the construction of these highways. When we consider the destruction of value in the downtown retail trade area over the last 25 years, and the fact that as of now there seems to be no slackening or reduction in the rate of destruction, we are forced to the conclusion that no small plan will succeed in our efforts to maintain the productivity of land in the heart of the city at the highest level.

One could probably, in a 25-minute walk beginning at Copley square and taking a line toward South Station and then up Oliver street to State street, and thence to Tremont street and Boston Common, have walked around pretty close to $600,000,000 worth of property, or 40 per cent of the total valuation of real estate in the entire city. The importance of this downtown area may be realized by the comparison which was recently made. One insurance company building, occupying a city block in the Back Bay, was more productive of real estate taxes than a ward with an estimated population of 30,000 to 35,000 persons located within less than a mile.

Trend Continues

Some notion of the destruction of value over a relatively short period in the history of our city may be gained from the story of 177 Tremont street. This was a small parcel of land near the corner of Boylston street, which the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy rented to Childs Restaurant in 1925 at a ground rent, absolutely net to the owner of the fee of $12,500 a year. At a 6 per cent return, that rental would indicate a value of the land of $200,000. Under the terms of the lease the

City Messenger Has Fee Schedule Revisions

The proposed ordinance submitted by Mayor Hynes to the Boston City Council calling for upward revision of the schedule of fees charged by the city for permits and special services has been acted upon by the City Council's Committee on Ordinances. Several changes in the original order are recommended. The text of the order, as approved by the Council Committee on Ordinances, was published in the minutes of the City Council which appeared in the City Record, issue of November 10.

The newly revised order as drafted by the Committee on Ordinances is now before the Council's Executive Committee.

Copies of the text of the revised ordinance are available at the office of the City Messenger, Room 41, City Hall.

restaurant corporation built a five-story building and, at the end of 35 years' lease, the building would revert to the owner of the land. At one time this property had an assessed value of $300,000. Within the last few years it was sold for less than $80,000. This is not unusual. I have brought with me a chart, indicating the changes in land value which took place between 1930 and 1950 in one section of the city. Since 1950 there has been no general improvement. The trend continues in the same direction.

The rebuilding of the downtown area calls for a study of the economic forces which are in motion, not only in this area, but throughout the metropolitan area and, in fact, all the competitive metropolitan areas in the country.

In order to plan intelligently for the future of downtown Boston, we must come to some conclusion as to the function of this particular area of land in the total development of the metropolitan area, as well as the region. According to the preliminary report of the City of Boston Planning Board of 1950, Boston had 37 per cent of the metropolitan population and 9.5 per cent of the land area, but we had 81 per cent of wholesale trade employment, 57 per cent of manufacturing employment and 44 per cent of the total taxable real property valuation. It is important for us to know whether we are gaining or losing. Even in the short space of time since 1949, there have been a great many changes affecting Boston and the metropolitan area.

Loss of Valuation

Let us consider television and its effect on the movie houses. Last year I appraised a building, with a fairly modern movie, in the Jamaica Plain area which, in 1950, paid a tax on a valuation of $175,000. As a result of the competition of television, this property is currently worth about $75,000. At even a $70 tax rate we have lost on this one property $7,000 a year tax revenue. In order to make up a $7,000 loss in revenue, assuming a $70 tax rate, we must have a 10 per cent increase in the taxes collected from $1,000,000 of valuation. If three-family houses in this general area are assessed on the basis of $2,500 per dwelling unit, there must be a 10 per cent increase on the tax rate applicable to 400 dwelling units in order to make up for the loss in the movie house. Multiply this across the entire city and you get some notion of the impact of this change in the entertainment field.

The only means at hand for changing the pattern of land use in strictly mercantile areas is through the use of the powers of the Real Property Board in connection with off-street parking. Up to the present time, at least, there has been no program for the use of power of eminent domain to assemble uneconomic parcels of business property for the purposes of urban renewal. Under existing law, we have programs for urban renewal and urban rehabilitation only where the present use of the land, or the proposed new use of land, is largely residential in character.

In our downtown area on many of the important business streets, second floor space, where the owner provides heat and elevator service in marginal type buildings, the square foot rental charged to tenants is less than it costs the tenant per square foot to occupy space in a garaging facility constructed under a program of tax exemption. On the other hand, the uses being made of this marginal space by wig makers or umbrella repair concerns, or by a host of small individual businesses catering to a very limited demand, provide the downtown area with its cosmopolitan aspect.

Those who have the day to day responsibility of making decisions which will commit the city for many years to come are in need of some objective studies as to where the economic and social forces now in motion may lead us and what their effect may be upon the corporate city.

Must Know Population Trend

At the Boston City Hospital, for instance, we have a physical plant which is nearing the end of its life of economic utility. It is a series of buildings of various sizes which, by comparison with modern hospitals, are extremely inefficient from the viewpoint of management, although they are perfectly capable of meeting the highest standards for patient care. We are meeting this need at a cost far in excess of what it would be in a modern building. What we must know at Boston City Hospital, before we commit the city to a long-range redevelopment program is what Boston's population is likely to be in 20 years and where the population may be in relation to required hospital facilities and whether or not the increase in Blue Cross-Blue Shield and other hospitalization and sickness plans may continue to decrease the need of public facilities. More particularly, with regard to the Boston City Hospital, our community must come to some conclusion as to the extent of medical research which should be supported by the municipality.

The deterioration of residential neighborhoods in the city, which has been a matter of concern, is proceeding at an accelerated rate, so much so that emergency measures had to be taken to provide funds for the elimination of abandoned structures which were a hazard to health, morals, and safety.

Land in this type of area may be acquired under the provision of urban renewal legislation and assembled into parcels which may be suitable for warehousing and light manufacturing. This may benefit the city in two ways—by reducing the cost of municipal services necessary in residential areas and by providing a source of new tax revenue. In this way, the city may become competitive with the surrounding cities and towns, which are deriving the benefits from expanding of industrial and mercantile construction.

The decisions which must be made in the near future in corporate Boston should be made in the light of information concerning the entire metropolitan area, rather than upon what we may expect

Details of Panels To Appear In "Record"

The City Record, in the issue of November 24, will publish, over a period of weeks, details of the panel discussions at Boston's first Conference of City Employees on Municipal Problems which was held on November 14 and 15, at the Boston Public Library.

This conference was attended by 200 key personnel of the city. It was held under the direction of John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services.

within the corporate city. There is obviously some economic limit to the decentralization of the core areas in our metropolitan cities. There is undoubtedly some point at which increased costs of transportation and communication and a thin labor market make it impractical for industrial or mercantile development. If we are to plan properly in the corporate city as to new land uses, we can only reach valid conclusions in the light of the over-all future of the metropolitan area. It would be the part of wisdom for us to encourage those uses of land which are most productive. It is not inconceivable that the time will come when the cost of personal transportation may become so burdensome that intelligently-planned areas within the corporate city, combining industrial and residential uses and adequate recreational facilities, may have a definite competitive advantage.

Downtown Difficult Problem

Prospects are bright for the future because we have tools to work with in this type of urban redevelopment.

The downtown area, of course, poses the most difficult problem because, as far ahead as we can see, there will be a demand for space in the heart of this great metropolitan area. In order to wipe out considerable marginal space and to assemble land into lots that meet modern requirements, it may be that we will change our thinking with regard to off-street parking and, instead of building up in the air, clear more land. That could possibly have two results—it would tend to remove some marginal uses and enterprises that are not capable of paying high rentals and, consequently, are not productive of real estate taxes and, at the same time, would reduce the traffic in the streets because employees and others would not be in the downtown area.

It may seem to be heresy to some to talk in terms of discouraging any type of activity in the downtown area, but there is, in my opinion, an optimum type of downtown development which will be more efficient and which can be managed with lower cost. As we look into the future it is fair to assume that as our new highways are built and circulation within the

HUB BUILDING IN 1956 EXPECTED TO TOP PREVIOUS THREE YEARS IN VALUATION

The year 1956 shows every indication of being the highest 12-month period for investment in the construction and alterations of buildings, private and public, within the City of Boston since 1952 when the erection of large-scale public housing ceased in this city.

The total estimated value of all structural work in Boston since January 1 of this year was $39,801,241, or 21 per cent above the first ten months of last year, according to figures released this week by the Building Department. This total exceeds 1954 and 1953 building figures for the same period by even larger percentages, but falls 11 per cent under the corresponding 10-month period in 1952 when Columbia Village and other large scale projects were still underway.

For the first ten months of this year the number of building permits issued fell 16 per cent short of the number issued in the corresponding period last year.

October building and alterations this year reached $1,192,600 valuation which was 38 per cent under October of last year.

metropolitan district is improved there will be a leveling-off tendency and that all sections of the city will have a redevelopment pattern which is similar to the development patterns in the growing areas outside of the city. As we improve our interior system of streets and highways we bring new areas of land into competition and we give new areas of land greater utility. I think it may be safe to say that even now, for many purposes, land close to Post Office and Park squares is in competition with land in Framingham and Burlington.

In closing, I suspect that I should have some comment about the political complexity of our metropolitan area and whether or not political integration is a requirement for the solution of some of our problems. I would rather be of the opinion that the economic forces which are in motion in corporate Boston and in the metropolitan area were not generated by political decisions but are impelled by the needs of the people with expanding purchasing power and by the needs of a civilization on wheels. While cooperative action is necessary and understanding of mutual problems is necessary, it is not my impression that the mere integration of the units of local government would measurably contribute to the solutions of the problem we are now facing.

List of Objectives

In summary, the problems of corporate Boston are the problems of growing old; they are the problems of a great community which must conduct its affairs within the limits of a revenue system dictated by the state government, a system which must work as well for Wellfleet as it does for Springfield and which must be the basis of the conduct of local governmental affairs in Boston and in Mashpee. The basic problem is that of making the most productive use of the land by intelligent planning for the future, based upon the identification and evaluation of all the components of the economic life of the city and the metropolitan area as they now exist and as they may develop in the future.

The objectives of corporate Boston are:

1. To retain its position as the center for retailing, wholesaling, financial and insurance services, utility headquarters, medical, legal, publishing, etc. In short, those activities capable of supporting high-value land and structures.

2. Institute urban renewal projects which will permit the creation of sites for the foregoing purposes to make the corporate city competitive with the rest of the area.

3. Zoning changes to attract more industrial, mercantile, and other uses with emphasis on contiguous walk to work and play residential neighborhoods.

4. Special programs to ease commuting by mass transportation or passenger cars.

5. Interior system of streets to speed exchange of goods within corporate city and provide rapid access to outlying area.

AWARDS OF SNOW REMOVAL CONTRACTS ARE APPROVED

The Mayor, on November 7, approved the awards of contracts by the Public Works Department, upon receipt of competitive bids, based on the following communication from the Public Works Commissioner:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully recommend that contracts for removing snow during the 1956-1957 winter period be awarded to the following contractors in Areas 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10 and 12, at the price per cubic yard designated:

Area No.	Contractor.	Price Per Cubic Yard.
1	Charles Callahan.....	$0.85
2	J. A. Singarella Co.....	.90
3	Joseph P. McCabe, Inc.....	.90
4	Dooley Bros., Inc.....	.78
5	J. F. White Cont. Co.....	.83
10	Suburban Excavators, Inc.....	.84
12	J. A. Susi & Sons, Inc.....	.85

The above contractors in my opinion, represent the best qualified bidders who have sufficient experience, organization, and equipment to do the required work and it is in the best interest of the city that the contracts be awarded as recommended. Likewise, we are following our usual policy of awarding only one district to each contractor.

It is understood that the contracts will expire on March 31, 1957. Under the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1951, contracts may be awarded in a current year for the first three months of the succeeding year as long as said contracts affecting the latter-referenced period are awarded "upon like or more favorable terms and conditions" than the contract in effect in a current year. The above-referenced proposed snow removal contracts comply with the terms of chapter 182 in that they are being awarded for the months of January, February, and March of 1957, under the same terms and conditions in effect during the current year.

The above prices represent bids that were opened in this office, November 1, 1956, after publicly advertising for proposals in the City Record, issue of October 20, 1956. Attached hereto is list of bids received in the above districts.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

COMMONWEALTH AVENUE, ALLSTON, TO UNDERGO TRAFFIC SAFETY CHANGES

Plans to make Commonwealth avenue, between Brighton avenue and Warren street, Allston, safer for pedestrians and motorists and at the same time provide more parking facilities for residents and shoppers were announced November 16, by Chairman George G. Hyland, of the city's Public Improvement Commission. He said the plans call for the removal of 61 of 227 trees now located along the sidewalks and divisional strips on the 15-block stretch of the avenue.

"It is the belief of the commission," declared Hyland, "that the removal of some of the trees can be carried out without sacrificing anything of the beauty or character of this part of Commonwealth avenue.

"Hearings will be held soon to obtain the views of residents and businessmen in the area.

"We do not intend to remove any of the trees along sidewalks except to provide parking spaces in front of business places. A total of 125 of these trees would remain.

"The removal of every other tree in the existing divisional reservation, where no parking is now permitted would make available angle parking for 267 cars.

"Thus, the removal of 61 trees would permit parking spaces for 320 more cars than are now available.

"More important, from a standpoint of safety for both pedestrians and motorists, we intend to provide a 4-foot wide divisional island as a safety measure. To provide this island, we intend to narrow the reservation 6 feet and increase the roadway width accordingly.

"Our plans provide for a divided highway comprising 26-foot travel lanes and a 4-foot center island. The new highway for through traffic will provide safety features for both pedestrians and motorists which it now lacks.

"The new plans," Chairman Hyland concluded, "will also make possible the installation of center island lighting, regarded as the best method of lighting a thoroughfare of the Commonwealth Avenue type."

If the plans are adopted it is expected work will be completed next year under the Chapter 90 State Aid Project.

MAYOR'S OFFICE. Christmas Festival

The Mayor, on November 7, approved the award of contracts, without advertising, based on the following communications:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This year I propose, subject to your Honor's prior approval, to purchase considerable electrical equipment consisting of 10,000 lamps, 10,000 sockets, and 30,000 feet of wire needed for the illumination of the big Christmas tree on Boston Common in connection with the 1956 Christmas Festival. Hitherto, it has been the practice to have these electrical items merely made available to the City of Boston Christmas Festival Committee for use during the period of the Christmas Festival. It now appears more desirable for the city to purchase and own these electrical materials, thus having the same available for use year after year. Therefore, I request your authorization to dispense with public advertising and to enter into a contract with Westinghouse Electric Supply Company, 95 Brookline avenue, Boston, Mass., for the above-described electrical equipment for a sum not to exceed $3,616.

The electrical products made and sold by the above-named firm have a widespread and excellent reputation for quality; the price in the present instance is a fair one and so it is not felt that advantage would accrue to the city by publicly advertising the proposed purchase.

Respectfully yours,

PAUL HINES,
Festival Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In connection with the 1956 Christmas Festival, it is our purpose to purchase at a cost of $2,000, an additional outdoor display depicting and entitled "Sermon on the Mount" for installation on Boston Common. It will, we believe, suitably augment the displays which are in use each year. This outdoor unit will be constructed of plywood on a steel frame; it will be 16 feet long and 18 feet high, and will be finished with waterproof paint.

Therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to omit the usual public advertising and to award a contract to Joslin Displays, Inc., 105 Kingston street, Boston, to construct and install one outdoor unit entitled "Sermon on the Mount," on Boston Common, at a total cost not to exceed $2,000.

The aforementioned contractor has been engaged in the business of designing and constructing displays of various types since 1893. I feel confident that the unit will be a noteworthy addition to our 1956 Christmas Festival. In addition the price is a reasonable one and for these reasons it is considered that nothing would be gained by publicly inviting bids.

Respectfully yours,

PAUL HINES,
Festival Director.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

CITY OF BOSTON.

MUNICIPAL COURT FOR CRIMINAL BUSINESS.

Registration Index Books

The Mayor, on November 7, approved the award of a contract, without advertising, based on the following communication:

DEAR SIR:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 216, of the Acts of 1950, and chapter 182, of the Acts of 1951, I respectfully request permission to award a contract for registration index books to Henry Rosnosky, of 16 Lincoln street, Boston, without advertising, for the calendar year 1957.

Mr. Rosnosky has furnished this type of books in the past and is familiar with the requirements of this court.

These books will consist of two sets of seventeen volumes each, one more volume per set than was needed in 1956—Parking Registration Index Books—one set for uptown violations and one set for downtown violations, at eleven hundred and forty-nine dollars and seventy-five cents per set or a total of two thousand, two hundred ninety-nine dollars and fifty cents ($2,299.50).

Respectfully yours,

DANIEL J. LYNCH,
Clerk of the Court.

THANKSGIVING WEEK BRIGHTENS HUB'S PROSPECTS

The well-grounded hopes of Mayor John B. Hynes for a brighter future for Boston took positive shape this Thanksgiving week, 1956, on three important fronts:

(1) The appointment of Donald E. Graham of Providence, Rhode Island, as Boston's Planning Administrator is an important step in bringing to full strength the staff of this important agency of city government; (2) preliminary approval of a contract by the Boston Housing Authority to redevelop a large area of the West End has put this long-awaited project within range of the foreseeable future; and (3) the signing of an agreement between the Prudential Insurance Company and the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority for using part of the Boston & Albany Railroad yards in the Back Bay as a building site has removed the final obstacle in the way of another big revenue-producing structure on Boston's sky line.

For several years the City Planning Board has sought qualified personnel in keen competition with other cities paying far higher salaries. Before filling the post of planning administrator, applications from many sections of the country were received. Mr. Graham, who will receive a salary of $12,000, comes to Boston from the Providence Redevelopment Agency, of which he has been the executive director for the past four years. Mr. Graham is responsible for the drafting of the City of Providence housing code and for the groundwork on the adoption of the new State of Rhode Island constitutional amendment to enable that state to legislate more effectively toward urban renewal and other phases of municipal planning. Development of a master parking plan for downtown Providence is another activity in which Mr. Graham has played an important role. He has planned and executed many project programs in Providence, including school sites, shopping centers, recreation areas, and industrial tracts. Boston's new Planning Director is thirty-seven years of age. He received his master's degree in city planning at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and further engineering degrees at the University of Chicago and the Illinois Institute of Technology. Mayor Hynes this week named Frederick A. Davis of West Roxbury as a member of the Boston Planning Board. He succeeds William F. Otis, who has recently been elected to the Massachusetts House of Representatives from Ward 5.

The Housing Authority preliminary agreement for redevelopment of the West End Area was made with Charles River Park, Inc. The purchase price is $1.15 per square foot for the residential and $1.47 per square foot for the commercial property. The total purchase price is approximately $1.5 million. This price, as quoted by Mayor Hynes, is approximately 50 per cent in excess of the reuse appraisal figure for the area, which amounted to 80 cents a square foot, residential, and $1.05, commercial. Under the agreement, 2,400 residential apartments and a commercial shopping center on Cambridge street are to be constructed to a total value of approximately $30 million. No tax concession is involved, and the area will be subject to full taxation, according to the Mayor. The contract is subject to approval of the Federal authorities, the City Council, the City Planning Board, and the State Housing Board. Mayor Hynes said that, unless there are unforeseen difficulties, the contract for the project can be executed by the Government and the actual relocation of families commenced by the spring of 1957.

Mayor Hynes hailed the agreement on the construction of a large insurance building in the Back Bay as follows:

"I am extremely gratified to learn that the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority and the Prudential Insurance Company have come to a meeting of minds with respect to the use of part of the land at the Boston & Albany Railroad site. Now that this impediment has been eliminated, the Prudential Company will proceed, I understand, very promptly, to acquire the land in fee. The erection of the Prudential Regional Office Building should be a certainty within the next few years, and should also mean the full development of the 28-acre site, including a convention hall and auditorium to be built by the city. The program planned for the B & A site will mark the real beginning of the development of a new Boston."

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

"HOW CAN BOSTON IMPROVE ITS PURCHASING PROCEDURES?"

CITY EMPLOYEE PANEL DISCUSSES NEW METHODS

NOTE:—This is the first of a series of six reports on each of the six panel sessions.

Ways and means of improving purchasing procedures were discussed before 200 key personnel at Boston's first Conference on Municipal Administration, held November 14 and 15 in the Lecture Hall at Boston Public Library.

There were, in all, six panel discussions on important administrative problems highlighting the two-day discussions. Each panel was presided over by a recognized authority in the particular field under discussion. John A. Breen, Director of Administrative Services, was general chairman of the conference.

Herbert Layport, director of purchases of the Wyman-Gordon Company of Worcester, former president of the New England Purchasing Agents Association, Inc., served as moderator at the Tuesday morning session during the discussion of city purchasing methods.

Panelists included Eugene K. Welsh, assistant purchasing agent, City of Boston, who discussed "Recommendations for Improvement"; Mrs. Helen E. Hurley, buyer of surgical, medical, and drug supplies for the City of Boston, who talked on "Requisition Details"; Mrs. Marion Keating, buyer of household, office, and stationery supplies, City of Boston, whose subject was "Present Structure and Procedures"; and Peter Duggan, food buyer, City of Boston, whose topic was "Specification, Standardization, and Inspection."

A lively question and answer period followed the panel discussions.

REMARKS OF MODERATOR LAYPORT

It is an honor to be invited to participate in this panel discussion on the subject, "How Can the City of Boston Improve Its Purchasing Procedures?"

On the surface, it seems that this should not be difficult, as I am sure we have never seen a purchasing department, either in industry or government, that could not be improved upon.

Having been involved in a recent study of our Municipal Purchasing Department, I feel that a good beginning can be made by improving the cooperation between all the participating departments who are doing business through the Purchasing Department and the department itself. One of the best ways to accomplish this is to hold panel discussions just like this one. These could be on a smaller scale, starting with a specific department, say the one that cooperates the least, and using as a starting subject for the panel discussion "How Can We in the Purchasing Department

MAYOR HYNES AT WASHINGTON MEETING

Mayor Hynes flew to Washington this week to confer with Administrator Albert M. Cole of the Housing and Home Finance Agency. The Mayor accepted the invitation of Mayor Charles Taft of Cincinnati to join a committee of mayors of other large cities to discuss land disposal procedures and problems. Mayor Hynes was invited to participate because of the nationwide interest in the Boston program and by virtue of his being President of the United States Conference of Mayors.

The Federal procedures have been criticized by the mayors of leading cities as unwieldy, cumbersome, and inflexible. Mayor Taft's committee urged the Administrator to institute flexible procedures to fit varying local needs in each city. The mayors emphasized to Administrator Cole that only land be sold for fair value for the new redevelopment use in order to make redevelopment possible and feasible.

Attending the conference were: Mayor Albert Cobo, Detroit; Mayor David Lawrence, Pittsburgh; Mayor Richard Lee, New Haven; Hon. George A. Garrett, Washington, D. C.; Mr. Charles Kaufman, Norfolk, Virginia; Mr. James W. Rouse, Baltimore; Mayor John B. Hynes, Boston; Kane Simonian, Chief, Urban Redevelopment, Boston.

Render Your Department the Most Effective Service?" You will be astounded at how much valuable information will come out of such a meeting. If the meeting is skillfully conducted, constructive information will be forthcoming, so that both departments will have a deeper understanding of one another's problems. After such a panel discussion has been held, conclusions should be drawn and the problem taken back into the departments for definite action.

Both industrial and governmental purchasing are reaching places of more importance as others understand that purchasing is fast reaching the stage of a profession. Arriving where we are today has been a long-drawn-out process of pulling the purchasing department up by its bootstraps, and today business and government recognize that the purchasing function is a most important function of business as far as profits are concerned. It is stated that if the purchasing department can make between 10 and 15 per cent savings in the purchases made by the average industrial organization, it has the same effect on profit as doubling the sales volume. Translating the same formula into governmental purchasing means that large sums of money for the taxpayers, and a more efficient and effective operation, can be achieved in all of the operating departments of the municipality.

This improvement has come about by an enlightened purchasing personnel who are studying their jobs, are taking courses in purchasing, and have joined organizations that have for their reason for existence the betterment of this particular phase of business.

At this point I feel I should put in a plug for the National Association for Purchasing Agents, which has done more to raise the standards of purchasing than any one single thing, and our New England Purchasing Agents Association, which is a chapter of that group, for right here in Boston was formed the first association in the United States, and it has been an expanding and growing group ever since, whose function is to improve its individual members' understanding of their jobs and thus enable them to perform a better service for their companies. Practically every university and school which has a course in business administration now has a course in purchasing. This means that, in the years to come, there will be educational qualifications whereby those entering this field will have to have a prerequisite of formal training in purchasing. One of the finest purchasing courses now being given in the United States is that being conducted by Professor Howard T. Lewis right here at Northeastern University.

Before starting on our formal talks, maybe we should ask some questions that can be used as study topics for the improvement of the department.

Let us start out with that first query:

How Can You Improve the Relationship Between All Departments Now Issuing Requisitions and Your Department?

How Can You Cut Down on the Time That Lapses Between the Issuance of the Requisition and the Writing of the Order?

How Do You Measure an Individual's Performance or the Overall Department Efficiency?

How Many Requisitions Should a Buyer Process in a Day?

How Many Orders Should Your Order Typist Write Per Day?

How Many Interviews with Salesmen Should an Assistant Purchasing Agent or Buyer Be Able to Make Effectively?

How Many Requisitions Are You Able to Combine on One Order?

How Much Does It Cost to Write a Purchase Order?

How Can You Improve the Relationship Between the City and the Vendor? This is so important.

How Effectively Are You Able to Work Substitutions That Will Do the Job As Well or Better, and Still Cost the City Less Money?

These are just a few of the questions we could ask ourselves. The answers to these questions constitute a beginning on how the city can improve its purchasing procedures.

We will now proceed with the panel speakers. Will you please keep in mind that you are going to ask the questions, and the effectiveness of this meeting depends upon the questions and answers that will follow.

SOME RECOMMENDATIONS FOR IMPROVEMENT

BY EUGENE K. WELSH,
PANELIST

Theoretically, Boston has had a centralized purchasing system since 1908. In reality, Boston does not have a central purchasing system, in so far as purchasing being controlled by one central agency is concerned. The School Department, the Police Department, the Public Library, and all county agencies purchase their requirements independently, under provisions of special statutes or by executive order.

If all agencies whose operating expenses are fully or partially paid for by the City of Boston tax dollar were forced to purchase through a central purchasing department, the tax dollar would buy more. Much has been done in recent years to remedy this situation. Still, under the present system, various city and county agencies are competing among themselves in an effort to purchase like items from the same vendors. The end result is several agencies buying the same commodities from the same vendors at different prices.

Huge Cedar Grove Parking Area Proposed

Traffic Commissioner William Arthur Reilly has proposed the establishment of a 2,500-car parking space in the Cedar Grove section of Dorchester, between the present Butler Street M.T.A. Station and a down ramp of the new Southeast Expressway.

There is space for additional parking, as the land now owned by the M.D.C. comprises 700,000 square feet.

Commissioner Reilly is conferring with Chairman Greenough of the M.D.C. regarding the availability of the land, and with General Manager Dana of the M.T.A. regarding rapid transit facilities.

The State Department of Public Works, in its original plans, has provided for a clover leaf at Granite avenue which opens up access to this whole area.

Grouping of Items

A grouping of the items would be an incentive for more companies to bid due to the larger quantities involved, and would result in lower prices. Practically all the employees now in the purchasing sections of other divisions could be transferred to other duties.

In modern business the purchasing agent is a key figure, because purchasing is one of the last remaining defenses against price increases. Purchasing has become a highly skilled profession. In private industry the purchasing agent shares responsibility for the profits or loss of the company. He is also responsible for the even flow of raw materials for processing and packaging. A slowdown of purchasing any single item may mean a general slowdown of an entire plant.

In modern municipal purchasing there is no difference. The profit or loss is reflected in the tax rate; the processing and packaging is the processing of a requisition and the delivery of materials; a slowdown in the purchasing division means a slowdown in the service to the public.

Boston System Ancient

The City of Boston purchasing system is far from modern, and why? As the automobile traffic is impeded by narrow streets in Boston, so the progress of an order is impeded by antiquated laws, statutes, ordinances, and policies initiated by individuals or groups without consulting or conferring with purchasing personnel. Ordinances or directives which may appear to be, or are intended to be, helpful when approved or issued are sometimes as helpful as an anchor to a drowning person. Vendors are not willing to do business with the city when they must wait for weeks for payments except by adding to their prices to compensate for the delay in payment. The delay is not with the Collector-Treasurer or Auditor but is the result of the long-drawn-out process of issuing formal contracts. Nationally known organizations are not interested in doing business with the city if they must put up a performance bond on a $2,000 contract, especially when the materials may be delivered before the required bond is executed.

Laws, statutes, and ordinances should be revised or enacted requiring all departments and agencies whose operating expenses are fully or partially paid for by the City of Boston tax dollar to purchase through a central purchasing department. These laws should be strong but simple and should give the Purchasing Agent any powers necessary to conduct the purchasing office without any interference.

Estimates Important

All using agencies, either by or with the authorization of a head of a department under which the using agency operates, should file with the Purchasing Agent detailed requisitions or estimates of their requirements for supplies in such manner, at such times, and for such future periods as the Purchasing Agent shall prescribe. Estimates should be based on availability of funds as approved by the Mayor and Budget Division. In this manner, larger contracts for long periods could be publicly advertised, resulting in lower costs. We should let the contractors be our warehouses from which we could draw our supplies as needed.

There should be established within the Administrative Services Department a Committee on Standardization and Specifications. This committee should include representatives of various departments, who would serve without additional compensation, and the Purchasing Agent or his representative. It would be the committee's duties to classify all supplies, standardize all items, and issue specifications for all items.

Simplification Needed

Changes should be made in procedure for contracts. The present system requires advertising, public bidding and contracts on purchases of $2,000 or over. Advertising and public bidding make for lower prices, but formal contracts are a hindrance. In the State of Massachusetts the Purchasing Division opens bids at a designated time and issues orders immediately for thousands of dollars without entering into any further written agreement. In Pennsylvania the General Assembly adopted the Uniform Commercial Code, which greatly simplifies sales and purchasing procedures. In brief, relative to purchasing, it provides that verbal or informal agreements are as binding as formal written and bonded contracts. Changes should be made whereby formal contracts should be required only on amounts of $5,000 or more. The bonding of purchase contracts should be done away with.

Many of these modern improvements which could be applied to our purchasing system may be found in the Model Purchasing Ordinance published by the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers and issued by the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing. The officers of the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers have included such persons as corporation counsels of New York City, Chicago, Milwaukee, and Washington, D.C. Their services were given to provide a comprehensive code of ordinances on every phase of municipal regulations. This ordinance covers the whole field of purchasing from the requisition to the awarding of contracts. Many parts of the Model Purchasing Ordinance could be copied as is for use by the City of Boston. Just as old equipment is traded in for new, our outmoded procedures should be traded in for new models to keep up with the changing times.

It is our hope that meetings like this will eventually result in new and better purchasing procedures, which can and will save considerable amounts of money, making the tax dollar go farther.

REQUISITION DETAILS

BY MRS. HELEN E. HURLEY,
PANELIST

The requisition is, for more than one reason, the foundation of purchasing. Without it, the many services of the city could be at a standstill. It must be functional. It must possess certain qualities besides its basic existence. If the Purchasing Division is to work efficiently, it must impress upon other city departments the real need for these qualities. Many, many requisitions do possess them completely, some have them partially, and others have them not at all. It would seem that today is a good time to discuss these seven fundamentals of clarity, sufficient information, quality, quantity, planning, selectivity, and separation that make a good requisition.

1. The Requisition Should Have Clarity.

Clarity means that the Purchasing Agent should recognize immediately to which unit it should be assigned. A jar, a bottle, a ream of paper, even a thermometer, could have very many uses. If he has to guess or ask questions or take time to identify an item, delivery will be delayed.

2. The Requisition Should Have Sufficient Correct Information.

This is of the utmost importance. Give the manufacturer's catalogue number, if there is one. Give the length, the dimensions, the standard packaging, the serial number. If we have to ask for more information or the vendor ships the wrong material, you may be held up weeks before a proper shipment is made.

3. The Requisition Should Have a Quality Basis.

Materials inferior for your needs are no bargains, but many hours of our time are spent to prevent this very thing, simply because you did not state clearly just what you expected of this product. Was it for long-term usage; was it to be used for a week or two? Will many people handle it, or a few? All these count. Another thing, if you have found from experience that one product only is suitable for your purpose, you must go further and state your reasons in attached letter. It is not enough to like one thing; you must have good reasons for disliking others, because competition is still the only way your prices can be right and your budget go a long way.

4. Your Requisition Must Have Large Enough Quantities to Attract Bidders.

These larger amounts may be sent in on a "to be delivered as required" basis. The more of these you have, the better your department will function. It is amazing how few departments see the utter reasonableness of this. The constant repetition of small items, some even not so small, is a headache to practically every buyer in the division. We return some of these requisitions, but the reasons are many for noncompliance. One of these reasons is the immediate need of the material; another is, many times, a false hope that it will not be needed again, and too often it is because it is easier to copy a previous requisition.

5. A Requisition Should Be Planned Far Enough in Advance.

This will allow for the many operations necessary to produce an order and for the vendor to deliver under normal conditions. You all know the steps it takes in your own department before a requisition is sent to Purchasing. In our own division, it is handled by three people before the buyer. After the buyer, it has at least four more operations before it is sent to be encumbered, after which it is returned to us to be mailed to the vendor. The Auditor and the vendor handle it in their own ways, with other unknown numbers of steps. The manufacturer, like the rest, has his system. Many a requisitioner feels that he may call to get immediate shipment and that his responsibility to his department is over once he has started these proceedings, but this is not so. If he or she will understand even our routine problems after today, it will help both of us. We have one aim—to get you the material you want, or its equal, in the shortest possible time, at the lowest possible cost. You must anticipate your requirements and you must know the ponderous operation it is to translate the desire or need for materials into an actuality.

6. Contract Items Should Be Kept Separate.

The reason for this is as follows. If an item is on contract it is already priced. It may therefore go its way with no delay. A requisition with four contract items and one quotation item will be held for a day or two, sometimes longer.

7. The Requisition Should Have Commodity Separation.

Although this last needed quality has very few offenders, it should be mentioned, for this requisition, too, will most certainly be delayed. It is the one that must go to more than one buying unit. To avoid this, the requisition clerk would necessarily have a knowledge of the types of materials handled by the several units. There we would be glad to assist at any time.

STRUCTURE AND PROCEDURE

BY MRS. MARION KEATING,
PANELIST

Purchasing is the term generally used in industry and management to denote the act and functional responsibility for procuring material, supplies, and equipment. The term is not completely descriptive, for the purchasing responsibility goes beyond the single act of making the purchase. It involves planning and estimating, research and selection, both as to material and supplies, and the follow-up procedure to insure prompt delivery.

It is obvious that the purchasing function has existed in some simple form from the very beginning of industry, for production and management must begin with purchasing. But it has been only comparatively recently, with large-scale production, that purchasing has been set up as a separate responsibility and that scientific methods and specialized skills have been developed to meet that responsibility.

Purchasing Setup

In the City of Boston's present mode of operation the Purchasing Division is headed by a Purchasing Agent and an Assistant Purchasing Agent. There are nine buying units, to which are assigned the requisitions for commodities to be purchased. There also are four assistant buyers who are assigned to units with the greatest volume of work and are trained to take over the buyer's work whenever he or she is out. The average buyer has been doing this type of work for at least fifteen years and is considered an expert in his particular field, and well qualified in the purchase of materials and supplies.

On November 30, 1953, the City Council passed a Reorganization Ordinance to take effect on January 1, 1954. Under this ordinance the Printing Section has become a unit of the Purchasing Division. The Purchasing Agent now has jurisdiction over the Printing Plant, and is responsible for the printing and binding for the city departments. Approximately 20,000 requisitions for printing and binding are processed by the Purchasing Division.

Surplus Property

A Surplus Property Center with authority vested in the Purchasing Agent was also a result of the Reorganization Ordinance. In establishing this policy, all personal property, when of no further use to a department, is transferred to the care and custody of the Purchasing Agent as surplus property. Many items such as waste paper, metals, obsolete fire apparatus, and other items are sold and a substantial sum of money is added to the City Treasury. Many items of furniture considered beyond repair have been reconditioned and issued to departments. The result has been a substantial savings to the city.

The Administrative Services Director, in 1956, established an Office Machine Repair Unit to be supervised by the Purchasing Division. Two well-trained mechanics service typewriters and other office machines in the City Hall area, thus eliminating the maintenance contracts which were formerly in effect. All typewriters formerly sold for credit on the purchase of a new machine are now received at the Machine Repair Unit, where they are completely renovated and eventually used in other offices.

Purchasing Responsibility

Purchasing is one of the most important functions of any city or any organization. The monies spent call for prudent and skillful management; the purchases made must meet all qualifications as to specifications; there must ever be a look to the future for newer and better products and better methods of purchasing in keeping with the trend of progress in our modern world.

The purchasing responsibility is sometimes defined as follows: the buying of material of the right quality, at the right price, at the right time, from the right source. Here are the present methods of purchasing used by Boston.

1. Telephone bids, limited to small purchases.
2. Written quotations, solicited from any reputable company, regardless of size.
3. Public bids, requested by public advertising in the City Record, the official paper of the City of Boston.

When bids are received they are tabulated for comparison and analysis. All bids are public information and may be reviewed at any time. The award is made to the lowest responsible bidder, in accordance with the specifications.

In making an award, price is weighed against the other factors of quality, quantity, and service, in order that the greatest value may be obtained.

Ten Million Annually

The Purchasing Division expends approximately $10,000,000 annually procuring the thousands of items necessary for the proper maintenance of our hospitals, institutions, public works, Fire Department, parks, and various other departments. These expenditures are based on requests from the departments.

Purchase orders in the vicinity of 50,000 are issued annually to vendors to cover the requirements of the various departments as requisitioned through the Purchasing Division. These purchase orders are the results of the processing of more than 20,000 purchase requisitions.

I am certain that our present structure and present procedures can be improved upon, and it is my hope that, as a result of today's deliberations, some constructive ideas will be advanced to modernize and speed up our present system of centralized purchasing.

SPECIFICATIONS, STANDARDIZATION, AND INSPECTION.

BY PETER DUGGAN, PANELIST

Specifications are the formulated, definite, and complete statements of what the buyer requires of the seller. They are the backbone of every purchase order written from the office of the Purchasing Agent. They make real competition possible. They protect the buyer and the seller.

It is the function of the Purchasing Division to provide specifications that properly describe material wanted, without being so strict or restrictive that companies will be unwilling, or unable, to bid, or so vague that trouble may ensue to either the city or the contractor.

An integral part of any specification must provide the means or basis for testing deliveries for specification compliance. Without this check on actual deliveries, the specification loses much of its force as a purchasing tool. Quite often such a check may be simple, but frequently a laboratory analysis is required to ensure a proper delivery. In some cases the city may have to devise its own methods to check delivery of a particular item.

Determining Quality

Specifications are established by using publications of the Federal Government, of private organizations such as the American Society for Testing Materials, the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Underwriters Laboratory, and by consultations between the Purchasing Division and private industry and the using departments.

The specification is an instrument for the control of quality. Its use in the Purchasing Division, as the basis for quality description in procurement, is an important part of the function, but not the only one. Its use goes back to product design, and to the requisitioning of materials; it is a guide to the supplier or manufacturer of the product; and it is a necessary reference in testing deliveries. As specifications are developed and complied with, standardization is sure to follow. There are almost as many different definitions and concepts as there are actual printed standards. Standardization is the organized process of obtaining solutions to common problems, and standards are considered the working records of such solutions, working to eliminate waste of creative effort in the repetitive consideration of identical problems. In other words, standardization is the process of establishing agreement upon definite quality, design, sizes, procedures, etc. A standard is not the work of a single person, but the result of cooperation. Standards should not be forced on anyone, but should be used by mutual agreement. In Boston, in 1689, it was a civic crime to make bricks other than 9 by 4 by 4 inches in size. This was standardization by law but not by agreement. We in the Purchasing Division have tried to standardize the types, varieties, and sizes of commodities commonly bought and used. Standards are no good if they are not used.

Problems of Inspection

With the use of specifications and standards comes the problem of inspection. The Purchasing Division and the using departments must ever be on the alert in checking shipments for compliance with specifications. Inspections by this division are made in various ways. We rely a great deal on the receiver to report any deviations from specifications. Buyers make personal inspections in these and many other cases. Other inspections such as those on fresh fruits and vegetables and meats are made by the Department of Agriculture at standard rates. Tea and coffee testing is done by commercial testing houses. Inspections of fish and poultry are made by the buyer. These inspections are made at the source of supply, and again at the delivery point, to make sure that goods purchased are in the same condition when delivered as when purchased. Good specifications and standards, with an inspection on delivery, are extra insurance on the tax dollar.

Specifications, standardization, and inspection are three of the most important functions of purchasing in any large organization. I feel that Boston has been on its toes in these particular fields, but nevertheless we are always open to suggestions or advice in improving our methods for more efficient purchasing operations.

DUDLEY TER., PUBLIC WAY

Dorchester

The Public Improvement Commission has voted, and the Mayor has approved, the laying out and construction of Holden place, Dorchester district, as a public highway, from Dudley street approximately 134 feet northeasterly, with the name of Dudley terrace or some other distinctive name.
